PLENTY ANTHRACITE

New York Has No Fears of a Fuel Famine.

CITY NOT AFFECTED BY THE STRIKE

Should the Trouble Extend to the Anthracite Regions, New York Would Suffer.

New York, July 13.—The Tribune says: The consensus of opinion among a number of prominent coaldealers in this city and its vicinity is to the effect that there is no danger of a coal famine. The yards and docks are well supplied with coal and the present stock is sufficient to last for a long time. The strike is at present confined to the bituminous coal regions, and the use of soft coal is comparatively limited in this city. Should the strike spread among the anthracite coalfields there would undoubtedly be good cause for alarm.

One thing in favor of the ordinary consumer is that little coal is required at this season of the year. Of course, the railroad companies, factories and other large consumers, are in a far different position. They use large quantities of coal at all seasons of the year. In this city, however, they are prevented from using bituminous coal by law, and consequently the strike as yet has not put them to any inconvenience, as it has in Chicago and other Western cities. Comparatively little bituminous coal is used in Brooklyn. A few large factories there use it, as do the trolley roads at these power-houses. A movement has been started to compel the latter to give up its use.

The great railroad lines that reach this city are well stocked with coal at present, the majority of them now burn anthracite coal in their passenger locomotives. The bituminous coal, however, is used almost exclusively on freight locomotives.

Superintendent Brooks, of the Pennsylvania road, said the road had a stock of coal on hand sufficient to last it a month. The locomotives of passenger trains, he said, burned anthracite coal almost exclusively, as did some of the locomotives of the fast freight trains. Should it become necessary, all the locomotives, including those which draw freight trains, could burn anthracite coal.

The Pennsylvania is a large carrier of coal including the bituminous coals, and should the strike continue, it would feel the loss of these freights. Other railroads carrying large quantities of coal are the Philadelphia & Reading, which runs to Jersey City over the New Jersey Central tracks; the Lehigh Valley and Delaware Lackawanna & Western. The Philadelphia & Reading Coal Company and the Lehigh Valley both operate coal mines of their own. These companies report good supplies of coal on hand at present.

The Manhattan Elevated Railroad Company burns only anthracite coal in its engines, consequently it is not affected by the strike. Even owners of river craft are not as yet worried, as anthracite coal is almost exclusively consumed on the boats of all classes.

The time is drawing nigh for the dealers to lay in their winter stocks of fuel, and should the strike continue it will cause some delay, at least, so far as bituminous coal is concerned.

A director of one of the Ohio soft-coal roads said:

"We have evidence from the West that the soft-coal strike is really going to be the salvation of the transportation companies of that district, because it will harmonize them and ultimately get the price of soft coal where there will be money in hauling it, as well as in mining it. The railroads are hauling at less than a mill a ton a mile, which does not pay for simply the wear and tear of the stock. Every one is glad that the strike is so general and has excited such widespread attention from the public. This fact will pave the way to an easier and larger advance in the price of coal than could otherwise be obtained."

Iowa Miners May Strike.

DES MOINES, Ia., July 13.—So far no Iowa miners have joined the big strike but they are likely to do so at any time. There are 10,000 miners in the state, and until coaldealers commence importing into Illinois to fill orders where Illinois miners are striking, little attention will be paid to the strike, as the Iowa miners are not well organized. Their sympathies are with the Eastern miners, however, and at several meetings held in the principal coal centers, the opinion was expressed that it is time to take action to help the Eastern miners by cutting off the coal shipped East.

Mrs. Bradbury is Off for Chicago.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 13.—Mrs. John Bradbury, wife of the Los Angeles millionaire, who eloped with W. R. Ward and was subsequently arrested in this city, is speeding away on an east-bound train toward Chicago, free from the coils of the law, and innocent, so the court declares, of the crime charged against her.

Ward, the man who induced her to leave her home, stays behind, held under a cash bond of $2000 to answer to the charge brought by the Society for the Prevention of Vice.

Mrs. Banning, Mrs. Bradbury's mother, aided by influential friends, has accomplished the purpose for which she came to this city, and accompanies her daughter on her journey.

From the other end of the continent Colonel Bradbury is said to be approaching his wife to extend in person forgiveness. It is understood that there is to be a reunion in Chicago and a brief tour through the South.

OREGON FOR HAWAII.

Administration Thinks a Battle-Ship is Needed There.

New York, July 13.—A special from Washington says:

Recognizing the gravity of Japan's attitude toward Hawaiian annexation, the administration has decided to send the big battle-ship Oregon to Honolulu to relieve the cruiser Philadelphia and the old corvette Marion, now stationed there. The orders were issued by the navy department Monday.

The Marion returns home at once and her instructions will go to Honolulu by the steamer leaving San Francisco July 17. The Philadelphia is in a very un-serviceable condition in consequence of her long anchorage in semi-tropical waters. The Philadelphia will remain at Honolulu, however, until the Oregon reaches there, and perhaps longer.

It had been intended by the navy department for some time to send the cruiser Baltimore to Honolulu, but it will take longer to make her repairs than was expected at first. This unexpected postponement of her assignment to the islands has served a good purpose in allowing the navy department to send the Oregon, one of the most formidable ships in the service, without giving Japan an opportunity of constraining this action as a display of unfriendliness on the part of the United States.

In detaching both the Philadelphia and the Marion, the navy department will not weaken its naval force at Honolulu. The Oregon is more formidable than both, and capable of combatting any vessel in the Japanese navy. She is so far superior to the Japanese cruiser Naniwa, now at Honolulu, that comparison is out of the question.

How Japan will view the assignment of the Oregon to Hawaiian waters remains to be seen, but it is certain that if other vessels are sent to support the Naniwa the United States will respond in a vigorous manner that will leave no doubt as to the determined policy of the administration that foreign countries must keep their hands off Hawaii.

The Mount Lebanon Shakers have recently perfected an ingenious cure for dyspepsia. Their Digestive Cordial consists of a food already digested and a digester of foods happily combined.

The importance of this invention will be appreciated when we realize what a proportion of the community are victims of some form of stomach troubles. Thousands of pale thin, people have little inclination to eat, and what they do eat causes them pain and distress.

This Digestive Cordial of the Shakers corrects any stomach derangement at once. It makes thin people plump. Every one would be greatly interested to read the little book which has been placed in the hand of druggists for free distribution.

Electricising Water Power.

Clear lake, 75 miles north of San Francisco and 1,317 feet above the sea level, having its outlet at Cache creek, a stream supplying 327,000,000 gallons of water daily, is to have its forces translated into electricity, sent on overhead copper wires, 20,000 horse-power and upward, to the motors at San Francisco, besides doing lots of work all around the region and on the line of transit. On the way the waste water is to irrigate hundreds of thousands of acres of land, making it bud and blossom like the rose. The water will be shot through Pelton wheels, which will be connected directly with the dynamos, the latter being among the largest and most powerful known. The transmission of electricity under the waters of the bay has been an intricate and difficult problem, but has found its solution, and now presents no obstacle of a serious character.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

WEBSTER GAVE HIM THE APPLE.

Gov. Doty Planted the Seeds and from Them Grew a Historic Tree.

There is an old apple tree back of the old Doty homestead on Doty island, in Neenah, which has a history, says the Milwaukee Sentinel. It is a tree which grew from apple seeds planted by ex-Gov. James Duane Doty. When Mr. Doty was first appointed territorial judge of Wisconsin by President Fillmore, and was about to leave Washington, the great Daniel Webster shook hands with him and bade him goodbye, at the same time handing him a large red apple. Webster then split the apple in two and he took one-half and Doty the other. The seeds from Doty's half were brought to this place and planted, and all there is left now is an old, withered tree, almost ready to fall.

The Doty homestead across the river still remains, and is in a good state of preservation. It is an old log house, and before the new Roberts summer resort was built it was used as a summer hotel. An old registry which was used in this hostelry is still preserved by Mrs. Roberts, and on its title page are the autographs of some of the noted men of the country who used to come here to catch fish in Lake Winnebago. Among them were the names of Gen. Philip H. Sheridan, Gen. Anson Stager, Gen. W. T. Sherman, Walter Q. Gresham, William Pitt Kellogg, George Jay Gould, Emmons Blaine, John B. Foraker, Perry H. Smith, and a score of others not quite so prominent.
