WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Random Observations and Local Events of Lesser Magnitude.

One carload of sheep was fed at the stock yards last night.

There will be no meeting of Rathbone Sisters this evening. Hereafter the temple will meet the first and third Thursdays of each month.

The wool market is a trifle dull, with prices a trifle lower than a week ago. There were a few sales yesterday at 10 to 10 1/2 cents, but the lots were small.

California wheat for the first time is being shipped to Brazil, two ships being now loading at San Francisco for Rio. The cargoes will amount to more than 4000 tons.

It is sad news to many office-seekers that congress is about to adjourn. Most of those who are really on the anxious seat must have their appointments confirmed by the senate, and if there is no office.

Quite a number of the Christian Endeavorers arrive every evening on the boat, and leave for home on the 1 o'clock train. All are delighted with their trip up the river, which will be one of their most pleasant recollections.

By existing arrangements with the publishers of the Weekly Oregonian, we are enabled to club that excellent paper with the Twice-a-Week CHRONICLE at the low rate of $2.25 per year. Now is the time to send in your names.

The Elite Candy factory has just put in a fine new soda fountain, and is prepared to furnish its customers soda-ice cream as well as soda, with the most delicious flavoring. Try one of its milk shakes. 2-16-11

King, the young man arrested at Baker City for running away with a girl under the age of 16 years and taking advantage of her, when arraigned Tuesday entered a plea of guilty. The minimum penalty for the offense is three years in the penitentiary, which King will surely get.

A. F. Haynes has purchased a new 28-inch cylinder case separator and a traction engine, which he will put at work in the grain fields of the Tygh section. Andrew Douglas has also purchased a new threshing outfit with traction engine. His separator has a 32-inch cylinder.

Hon. W. R. Ellis, writing to a friend here under date of July 15th, expresses the opinion that 'Congress will adjourn in ten or twelve days.' From this it seems likely that as soon as the tariff question is settled congress will adjourn. It is expected the senate will take action this week.

The latest flying machine has been made by an inventor at Los Vegas, New Mexico. The dispatches say that it flies all right—at night. Strange what night birdst these flying machines be.

If some fellow will make one that can fly by day, he can secure a fortune in the Clondyke passenger trade.

The examination of Budd Robbins, charged with larceny by bailee in keeping possession of a horse belonging to W. G. Spencer, was set for 2 o'clock this afternoon. At that hour the defendant was brought in, and E. B. Dufur appeared for him, filing an affidavit for a continuance for the purpose of securing a witness.

The members of the hose team have arranged for giving an entertainment one week from Friday evening for the purpose of raising money for the use of the team in preparing for the tournament. Members of the Commercial Club minstrels have volunteered their services, several ladies will assist with vocal and instrumental music, and others will take part. It will undoubtedly be a very pleasant affair, and will be, or at least should be, well patronized.

Roland D. Grant and party, consisting of twenty-one persons in all, arrived on the Baker last night, and, under the guidance of Rev. O. D. Taylor, are examining the points of interest about our city. Among other things they visited the Indian village of Wishram, on the other side of the river, and amused themselves by hunting arrow-heads. The party was not expected here until tomorrow, and Rev. Grant was billed to lecture in the evening. This part of the program will probably be abandoned.

The London Times of a recent date says: 'The prospects of the harvests in Eastern Europe are disquieting indeed. In Austria and Hungary and along the whole line of the Danube the harvest will be bad. Immense tracts of corn fields in Servia, Bulgaria and Roumania have been laid under water by destructive floods, and what water has spared rust has greatly injured. So bad, indeed, is the prospect that Austria and Hungary, instead of exporting wheat, will have to import it. At any rate it is clear that the wheat supply from the Danube is likely to be exceedingly small, if not altogether wanting, this season.'

A child about 2 1/2 years old had a remarkable escape last Sunday, near Newport, Wash. During the absence of its mother, the child leaned out of the window of the westbound Great Northern train, and fell out on the track just as its mother was returning. The train, which was running about 25 miles an hour, was stopped a mile farther on, and crew and passengers returned in search of the lost one, the mother in the meantime being almost distracted with grief. The child had rolled down the embankment, but was found in the act of crawling up to the track, crying lustily for its mother. It was not injured except for a slight scratch on the nose.

Walla Walla possesses two young perpendicular animals that only lack of brains prevents being men. Recently they dressed up in ragged clothes and held up and robbed two of their friends. Of course had one or both of them been shot or beaten to death, their relatives would have mourned with an exceeding great mourn the loss of such bright family material, but in the recesses of his gloomy cave the fool-killer would have laid aside his club, while the smile of joy that spread over his countenance would have illuminated his cavern with a ray as bright as a shaft of sunshine through a knot-hole in a wall. It is really a pity the robbed did not have a gun, for there never was such an opportunity to use it to a good purpose.

Supreme Court July 31st.

Clerk Lee Moorhouse, of the Oregon supreme court, Pendleton, received word this morning from Chief Justice Frank A. Moore that the supreme court justices will be in Pendleton on Saturday, July 31st, to hand down decisions in cases argued and submitted at the May term in Pendleton.

It had been expected that the court would not be ready to hand down decisions in the cases heard in Pendleton before August 15th, and, perhaps, not before September 1st. But the court has hastened in the matter, and rapidly as possible consistent with thorough work, has completed the arduous work. Even now the handing down of decisions will be considerably later than in previous years.

Clerk Moorhouse desires that other Eastern Oregon and Washington papers make the announcement that supreme court will be in session in Pendleton for handing down decisions on Saturday, July 31st.

Grain Prices.

Wheat is going up all over the world. Dispatches from Liverpool show a rise of three cents a bushel within the past two days. At New York the market is reported as strong, with prices at 75 to 78 1/2. At Chicago the price is 72, while at San Francisco it is given as 1.38 per cental, or 82 cents a bushel. Reports from Pendleton, where the harvest is in full blast, say that some wheat had been sold at 55, but that it was now held at 60 cents. Portland prices yesterday were 65 for Eastern Oregon, 68 for valley.

At The Institute.

Miss May A. Sechler of The Dalles began institute work today. The following were visitors yesterday: Miss Mary V. Wynkoop, principal of the high school at Maquoketa, Iowa. Miss Antoinette B. Hollister, of the Chicago schools. Miss Grant of Wallace, Idaho. 'The Recitation' was the subject for general discussion today, and many valuable hints were given by the leader.

Fire Department Election.

The annual election of The Dalles fire department will take place Monday, August 2d, at the engine house, on Third street, between Court and Union, for the election of chief and assistant engineer. Polls open from 5 to 7 o'clock p. m. By order of board of delegates.

UP MOUNT HOOD.

Dr. Siddall and Others Make the Trip With W. A. Langille.

Dr. Siddall of this city, Mrs. W. F. Hume, and T. Brooke White, ex-secretary of the Mazamas, made the ascent of Mount Hood from Cloud Cap Inn July 20th. The day was perfect and the trip one of which the doctor will never tire of telling, as he is perfectly delighted with it. The start was made from the Inn at 7 o'clock, and the party arrived at the summit at 1:30, having stopped just short of it to eat their lunch. The climb from Cooper's spur was made in three hours and thirty minutes. The party was in charge of W. A. Langille, manager of the Inn and one of the most careful as well as the most expert mountain guides in the world. It was Mr. White's 8th ascent of the mountain, Mr. Langille's 48th. In the book of records left by the Mazamas Mr. Langille wrote: 'The most pleasant and easy ascent of Mount Hood ever made.' Langille is a man of 28, of powerful build and iron constitution, keen of eye and sure of foot, quick to grasp a situation and quicker to act upon it, and absolutely without fear—for himself. He knows the mountain as well as a mother knows her baby, and apparently the mountain knows and respects him. It is safe to say that anyone making the ascent who will place full reliance in him and do as he tells them, will make the trip to the summit of Mount Hood and back in perfect safety.

A thousand feet of rope has been placed along the steepest part of the trail to assist in climbing and guard against accidents. In coming down is where the fun is, as all lie on their backs with the rope under one arm and alpenstock under the same arm for a brake. Then Langille starts the crowd down, following them and checking their speed when it becomes too great, by means of a rope which he has tied to them. Dr. Siddall, speaking from experience, advises those who wear sweaters to put them inside of their pants before starting down. He tried it the other way, and the way that sweater scooped up the snow and sent the ice-water permeating his other garments was a terror. The trip is a delightful one, and no Oregonian can afford to miss it, for it is part of our products. Eastern people can take their choice, but they can be assured that they will find something new under the sun if they will climb Mount Hood, and something that neither New York, Boston nor Chicago can furnish them.
