THEY WILL BUY.

The Baltimore American thinks the government should sell its claim against the Union Pacific to the syndicate offering $45,000,000 for it. The reasons it advances are peculiar. For instance, it says: "The parties offering this sum own all the branches and feeders, which are not included in the government's claim. They can afford to buy the Union Pacific on this account, but if it is put up at auction they will not make any such offer, because they don't have to." Now, this is where the Baltimore American does some good reasoning that it is not aware of. When the road is put up the government has the right to bid, and this is what it is asked to do. If it does bid, the gentlemen who claim they have the government over a barrel because they own the feeders will find that they are mistaken. Because they own the branches they must buy the road. The main line can exist without them, but what will they do without the main line? The Baltimore American is evidently subsidized to assist in plundering the government, and it is not earning its money. The owners of the branch lines will pay just as little as they have to, but they must have the road regardless of price.

CAN'T GO TOO SOON.

Dan Murphy thinks as his successor must be appointed sooner or later the appointment might just as well be made now, and that if he was released from the duties of the office now he could take a month's holiday. Dan is entirely too modest. When he retires from office he will have the balance of his life for a holiday, so far as holding office is concerned. The arduous duties of the office having been performed principally by his assistant, Schnabel, and in matters of importance by special attorneys, Dan had nothing to make him tired except drawing his salary, and that was not half as hard as drawing a toboggan into the new gold fields. The truth is, it was a case where a small man was used to stop a large hole, and it took considerable padding to make the fill. United States Marshal Grady goes out about the same time. That was a scratch appointment, he having as much fitness for the office as a—has for a powder house. We have no idea whom the president will appoint as their successors, but "any old thing" will be an improvement on the present incumbents.

WHAT TO EAT.

Mrs. S. T. Rorer in the Ladies' Home Journal says: "No diet is more healthful than ripe fruit, provided it is properly masticated and swallowed before or after bread and butter, but never with it." Our readers should take warning from this and when their mouths are filled with bread and butter not try to crowd in a clingstone peach or a box of blackberries or a watermelon, or any little thing of that kind. For the benefit of the Clondyke contingent we append another suggestion of hers in the line of select dishes for summer. She says:

"Fruit should be served in a flat dish with, if the weather is particularly hot, a little chopped ice sprinkled over it. Fruit that is very acid should not be served too cold. Powdered sugar and cream should accompany the fruit course. In the place of chops or steaks we may have eggplant, broiled or fried tomatoes, pan-fried tomatoes, a dainty omelet with peas, omelet with asparagus tips or with parsley, following the fruit. Corn oysters and corn fritters may also take the place of meat. Coffee, tea, chocolate and milk are of course, in summer as in winter, the breakfast beverages."

W. B. Powell, assistant secretary of the treasury, has taken the position that the Dingley tariff bill went into effect at midnight Friday, and that all goods dutiable must pay the Dingley rates Saturday. Against this ruling several of the most prominent importers protested. Under the Wilson bill the goods arriving on that day at the port of New York would have paid a duty of $600,000, but under the present bill $900,000, causing, the importers say, a loss to them of $300,000. Is this true? Is it not a fact that the importers will make their profit on the goods just the same? The only difference is that the duties will go into the United States treasury instead of going in the shape of additional profits into the pockets of the importers.

It is a pretty safe proposition that no country editor will have the Clondyke fever. When day after day he picks up the welcome "exchanges" and finds nothing in them that he can scissor, nothing but "Clondyke, Clondyke," he grows "tired with Clondyke," and tries vainly to get up something original.

What use is there in eating when food does you no good—in fact, when it does you more harm than good, for such is the case if it is not digested?

If you have a loathing for food there is no use of forcing it down, for it will not be digested. You must restore the digestive organs to their natural strength and cause the food to be digested, when an appetite will come, and with it a relish for food.

The tired, languid feeling will give place to vigor and energy; then you will put flesh on your bones and become strong. The Shaker Digestive Cordial as made by the Mount Lebanon Shakers contains food already digested and is a digester of foods as well. Its action is prompt and its effects permanent.

Doctors prescribe Laxol because it has all the virtues of Castor Oil and is palatable.

The True Remedy.

W. M. Repine, editor Tiskilwa, Ill., "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Experimented with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home, as in it we have certain and sure cures for Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Trial bottles free at Blakeley & Houghton's Drug Store.

Sucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required.
