TWO MORE STEAMERS

The Edith and Rosalie Sail from Seattle.

THE GEORGE E. STARR TUESDAY

Seattle Is Crowded With Strangers Headed for the Gold Fields of the Northwest.

SEATTLE, July 31.—The steamer Edith sailed for Skagway today, having on board sixty-eight horses intended to pack the freight of the Clondyke over the trail to Lake Linderman.

The steamer Rosalie, with 150 passengers for Dyea inlet, got off at 9 o'clock tonight. She was heavily laden with freight, consisting entirely of the outfits of the passengers. These outfits varied from 200 to 2000 pounds, more approaching the latter than the former figure. The great majority of those who go north on the Rosalie are equipped for at least one year's work. Among the Rosalie's freight there were forty-five boats "knocked down," and ready to put together. These boats will be carried across the mountains with the outfits, put together and used to carry the miners and their outfits down the lakes and the headwater streams of the Yukon, to Dawson City and the gold fields. Each boat can carry about two tons of freight and five persons.

The steamer Transit, a steam barge, has been fitted up to carry pack horses to Skagway. She will sail tomorrow with ninety horses and more freight. The horses are the property of the passengers. The George E. Starr, chartered by the same people, sails for the north Tuesday next.

Hundreds of people are flocking to Seattle and crimes are becoming common. Two burglaries of stores were committed last night, the stocks being looted and carted away. One holdup occurred on the water front.

Members of the Chamber of Commerce and outfitters engaged in the Clondyke trade met this morning to discuss the Canadian tariff question by which all American miners have to pay duty. A committee of business men was appointed to formulate plans to have the United States collect duties at Dyea and Circle City. The committee will report at another mass meeting Monday evening.

TACOMA, July 31.—The steamer Rosalie sailed at midnight with 185 passengers for Skagway, Alaska, direct. There was an animated scene at the dock when the Tacoma delegation went aboard. Longshoremen were busy hustling the goldseekers and supplies aboard the vessel, and the Argonauts were dividing their time between bidding farewell to friends and seeing that their freight was put aboard. Several people on the Rosalie forwarded horses on the Edith.

IN A TIGHT PLACE.

Spanish Ministers Think They Want to Fight the United States.

LONDON, July 31.—A Spanish diplomat who is in close touch with Senor Canovas del Castillo, the Spanish premier, informs the correspondent of the Associated Press that it is useless longer to attempt to disguise the fact that the Spanish ministry is in a very tight place. He says:

"We can keep up the war in Cuba only so long as our funds last, and the time when they will fail is almost in sight. When it comes we must give up the struggle. Now we are too proud a race to do so at anybody's demand, but we can do so by pleading force majeure in a war with the United States. Such a result naturally would be a very unpleasant matter to us, but in order to prevent the overthrow of the monarchy war is the only way out.

"The premier knows from President McKinley direct that the president personally does not want war, and wishes to save us from the cost and the bloodshed. But his cabinet only partly shares his views, while the senate and house of representatives, the American press and the people of the United States favor a settlement with big guns. President McKinley, however, while first for peace, has declared himself as not shrinking from war, if peace measures fail. This is the position of the United States, and naturally lends strength to the independent course which General Woodford will pursue. His instructions will be at the outset to attempt to obtain for Cuba the peaceful means of Cuban independence. He is destined to be defeated in his proposal the moment it is made, for Spain would infinitely prefer war, with or without the encouragement of other nations, to any surrender of the Cuban question. This is the fact, and the premier sees no other way out of the present impasse in Spanish policies. We will court war the moment the United States becomes imperative in its demand. The wave of great emotion and patriotism such a war would call out in Spain would naturally sink all threatening questions and disturbances. The Carlists, Republicans and all others would unite for the nation, as they could be united by nothing else; and when defeated, if Spain should be defeated, Cuba could be surrendered without imperiling all present political and monarchical institutions."

The Dingley Law Raises Wages.
NEW ORLEANS, July 31.—Leon Godchan, the owner of seven sugar plantations in Louisiana, and the largest producer in the United States, has telegraphed to the managers of his several places to advance wages of all field labor 16 1/2 per cent, the advance to commence August 1, in consequence, he says, of passage of the Dingley tariff bill. The skilled labor employed in the sugar houses or refineries are paid according to the price sugar commands and will get an increase in wages of from 20 to 30 per cent.

The President's View.
NEW YORK, July 31.—A dispatch to the World from Plattsburg, N. Y., says President McKinley refuses to be interviewed by the newspaper reporters, but to one of the hotel guests who has known him for a long time and who attempted to secure an expression from him as to the effect of the new tariff law and the condition of business he said:

"It is too early to determine the effect of the tariff law, but it will eventually raise more revenue than the law in force up to last week. As to the condition of business, I believe it will improve."

A Great Commercial War.
PARIS, July 31.—The Eclair, commenting upon the renoucement of the Anglo-German treaty, says:

"It is the commencement of a gigantic commercial duel and a threatened outbreak between the two countries. At the same time, is a real declaration of war, and the struggle will be fought to the death. The future appears heavy with threats and dangers."

A NONUNION MAN KILLED.

Fatal Result of an Encounter With Strikers.

SCOTTDALE, Pa., July 31.—William Cummings, the leader of the nonunion men brought here by the Scottdale Iron & Steel Company to take the places of strikers, was shot and instantly killed tonight, in front of the Commercial hotel. Cummings and three companions, all nonunion men, encountered a number of strikers as they came from a barroom, and a war of words ensued. Some one fired a revolver, and a dozen shots followed in quick succession. Cummings dropped dead with a bullet in his temple, and his three companions fled to the mill hotly pursued by an angry crowd. When the nonunion men reached the enclosure the deputies on guard surrounded them and the mob was forced to retreat.

Sheriff Zanoff, of Greensburg, is now on his way here with 50 men. At midnight everything was quiet, however, and there was no fear of a further outbreak. Reports as to how the shooting occurred are conflicting. James Dolf, one of the nonunion men who were with Cummings, was arrested tonight, and other arrests will follow. The situation is very much strained, and no one can predict the outcome.

CAJOLED THE JURY.

An Interesting Incident of a Memorable Lawsuit.

The jury in the Martha Washington case, a famous trial of 40 years ago, wherein the captain of the steamboat Martha Washington and others were charged with burning the boat to secure insurance, was chosen with difficulty, says McClure's Magazine. During their five weeks' service the members of it were assailed on every side by the zealous feminine sympathizers of the accused. By every art possible to youth, beauty and wit and the reckless abandon of lives largely spent in the companionship of adventurers were they approached. "If you do not go into that jury room and vote 'not guilty' in an hour you will be a dead man," said the wife of the captain, confronting an aged juror on the staircase. Sprung from an old and respectable Massachusetts family, she was a singularly beautiful, brilliant, dashing woman. She had gone in early girlhood to the west and became enamored of the picturesque river captain, who did not see fit to marry her and went off to Mexico and opened his gambling house on the Rio Grande. One day as he sat dealing faro there his affianced presented herself. Disguised in a man's attire and armed with a brace of pistols, she had made her way without detection to the Rio Grande. She was a skilled shot and could hit a dollar across a room. Leveling a pistol at the recreant lover's head, she said in a short, sharp voice: "Marry me, or take this in your head!" The astounded captain replied: "Why, Ollie, my dear, is that you?" The marriage ceremony was performed that day.
