HURTS FRENCH PRIDE

All Paris Enraged Over Prince Henry's Defeat.

EXCITEMENT ON THE INCREASE

Reports That Henry Lacked Nerve During the Duel Serve to Fan the Flame.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—A dispatch to the World from Paris says:

Paris is intensely excited over the royal duel in which Prince Henry of Orleans was severely wounded by the Count of Turin, a nephew of the king of Italy. The sale of evening papers on the boulevards was almost unprecedented, while on all sides knots of Parisians, gesticulating with their customary energy, were discussing, almost quarrelling over the encounter.

Although the Republicans would fain console themselves with the reflection that Prince Henry's overthrow has killed Orleanism for a generation, French pride, irrespective of party, is deeply hurt by the Italian Prince's victory. Happily, the mood of the Parisian changes quickly and often, for if the present temper were to last, international complications would be unavoidable.

The French anger is further stimulated by persistent reports that Prince Henry was inferior to his opponent in nerve more than in swordsmanship, and was completely overborne by the violent, reckless onslaughts of the count. The opinion is said to have been expressed by the count's seconds that if Prince Henry had had proper self-control he had an opening in the second bout which would easily have enabled him to put the Count of Turin hors de combat.

The count is also said to have displayed less than his usual skill and literally to have overborne his antagonist by his desperate onset from the very start.

According to one account, the wound in the abdomen from which Prince Henry was disabled was the result of his own maladresse in parrying a fierce lunge of his opponent.

It is said that the prince collapsed instantly, and that the count looked on in alarm when his surgeon, approaching, asked to be permitted to dress the wound on Turin's sword hand which was bleeding profusely.

The swords used had been rubbed with an anti-septic, but it is needless to say that if Prince Henry has sustained a wound perforating the intestines the danger of peritonitis is great and will not have passed for some days.

It seems to afford appreciable gratification to the average Parisian that the encounter was a reality and not a sham, but that was due to the earnestness with which the Count of Turin entered upon it.

General Albertone's seconds still claim that the prince must meet him when he is restored to health.

THE HUMBOLDT LEAVES TODAY.

Mayor Wood's Klondike Expedition Ready to Be Off.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 16.—Mayor Wood's steamer Humboldt, will leave for St. Michaels this afternoon about 6 o'clock with 130 passengers and 400 tons of freight.

Among the people stricken with the Klondike fever going North are R. C. Waaburn, editor of the Post-Intelligencer, and W. H. Snell, a Tacoma politician, and at one time prosecuting attorney of Pierce county.

Mayor Woods believes he will land the passengers at Dawson City before the river freezes, and have 15 days to spare. If this is true, the mayor will get back down the river himself this season and not be compelled to come overland.

Tacoma's Rush About Over.

TACOMA, Aug. 16.—The sailing of the City of Seattle for Alaska tomorrow with 400 passengers, large cargo of freight and horses, is expected to end the rush of gold-seekers to the Klondike till next spring. The principal inquiries for passage at local shipping offices now come from the Eastern points.

RICH STRIKE IN GOLDEN STATE.

Morrison Gulch Discovery Rivalled at the Elna Mine.

CARRVILLE, Cal., Aug. 16.—Well-authenticated reports of new strikes in the gold fields of Trinity county continue to be received here. Ernest Wagner, superintendent of the Tiben Placer Mining Company, reports that a rich strike was made at Elna mine last Thursday afternoon. The ore and gold is of the same nature as that found on Morrison gulch. Wagner believes the ore found will assay several hundred dollars to the ton. He also reports a strike on the Black Warrior of ore that will mill $3000 to the ton.

This morning T. G. Cook, superintendent for G. L. Carr, of the Forget-Me-Not mine, cut into a small vein of quartz at the bottom of a winze 45 feet from the lower level. The vein had pitched above, but gives every indication of widening and is of good grade. Above the ore the body of the vein is from six to eight feet wide, and will mill $20 to the ton. One hundred and ten feet above the lower level is an ore body that mills $100 to the ton.

When a person begins to grow thin there is something wrong. The waste is greater than the supply and it is only a question of time when the end must come.

In nine cases out of ten the trouble is with the digestive organs. If you can restore them to a healthy condition you will stop the waste, put on new flesh and cause them to feel better in every way. The food they eat will be digested and appropriated to the needs of the system, and a normal appetite will appear.

Consumption frequently follows a wasting of bodily tissue because nearly all consumptives have indigestion. The Shaker Digestive Cordial will restore the stomach to a healthy condition in a vast majority of cases. Get one of their books from your druggist and learn about this new and valuable remedy.

When the children need Castor Oil, give them Laxol; it is palatable.

Prince Henry Out of Danger.

PARIS, Aug. 16.—12:30 p. m.—Prince Henry of Orleans, who was wounded in the abdomen yesterday morning in a duel fought with Count of Turin, passed a quiet night. His condition is now considered to be satisfactory. General Albertone, the Italian officer who had challenged Prince Henry, but who gave way to the Count of Turin, has withdrawn his challenge.

To Garrote Canovas' Sayer.

MADRID, Aug. 16.—Michael Angiolillo, the anarchist assassin of Premier Canovas de Castillo, who was tried by court-martial yesterday at Vergara, was found guilty and sentenced to death. Upon hearing his sentence Angiolillo turned deathly pale and had to be assisted from the courtroom. He will be garroted within the prison.

THE WAGES OF SIN.

James H. Parsons, of Hartford is at Death's Door.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—A dispatch to the Herald from Hartford, Conn., says: James S. Parsons, the fugitive president of the Continental Life Insurance Company, has returned after ten years, a penniless man, to pay his debt to nature. It is said that he has an incurable disease of the stomach, and can live but a short time. He has been living in Canada since the wrecking of the company, but for a year or so intimate friends have known that he was in Massachusetts, latterly in a Boston hospital.

He was hunted out of the United States by officers of the law, and returns in the hope that he may breathe his last in his own home.

State Insurance Commissioner Fyler began the prosecution against him in 1877. It was believed that Parsons' defalcation amounted to between $100,000 and $150,000, though what he had done with the money was a mystery. Four indictments for making false returns to the insurance commissioner were made out against him and against the company's bookkeeper.

Something to Depend On.

Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with LaGrippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into Hasty Consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from the first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial bottles at Blakeley & Houghton's Drug Store.

MAY SOON BE A STATE.

President McKinley Said to Favor Her Admission.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—The Herald's Washington correspondent wires:

In all probability one state will be added to the American galaxy during McKinley's administration. The president, it is understood, looks with favor upon the admission of New Mexico, and it is likely that the territory will be the next to join the Union.

The bill for admission will be introduced in the house in the next session by Mr. Ferguson, who is himself a Democrat with silver sympathies, and the eagerness with which the sound-money Republicans will rally to the support of the bill is an open question.

Arizona will make in the house renewed pleas for admission through her delegate, Marcpas A. Smith, of Tucson, and Senator Carter is expected to add his efforts in the senate.

The Penalty For Dueling.

LONDON, Aug. 16.—A special from Rome says it is reported the pope will ex-communicate Prince Henry of Orleans and the Count of Turin, as dueling is forbidden by the Roman Catholic church.

DIMINISHING STATURE.

One of the Chief Causes is the Military Service Exacted.

This relation between stature and health is brought to concrete expression in the armies of Europe through a rejection of all recruits for service who fall below a certain minimum standard of height, generally about five feet. The result of this, says Popular Science Monthly, is to preclude the possibility of marriage for all the fully developed men during their three years in the barracks, while the undersized individuals, exempted from service on this account, are left free to propagate the species meanwhile. Is it not apparent that the effect of this artificial selection is to put a distinct premium upon inferiority of stature in so far as the future generations are concerned? This enforced postponement of marriage for the normal man implies not merely that the children of normal families are born later in life—that would not be of great moment in itself—it means far more than this. The majority of children are more often born in the earlier half of married life, before the age of 35. Hence a postponement of matrimony means not only later children, but fewer children. Herein lies the great significance of the problem for us. Standing armies tend in this respect to overload succeeding generations with inferior types of men.

Safely Hid $100,000,000.

The discussion in connection with the renewal of the charter of the Bank of France, which has just been prolonged by the national legislature until the end of 1920, has brought to light the measures that were adopted during the war of 1870 for the preservation of the specie and valuables confided to the care of the institution to the extent of over $100,000,000. It seems that the whole of this treasure was packed into some 25,000 cases, marked "explosive projectiles," and was shipped by rail to Brest, where it was "cached" in such a manner in the arsenal that, even had the Germans captured the port, they would never have discovered the hiding place.—Chicago Journal.
