PERSONAL MENTION.

J. C. Ward is in from Kingsley.

Hon. C. M. Cartwright went to Portland this morning.

Sheriff Driver, who has been in Port-land for a few days, arrived home last land on last night's train, and is visiting relatives and friends here. Mr. George Abbott, the wool buyer

Miss Clara Grimes came up from Portwho has been in Arlington for several days, returned this morning. Captain Waud, who has been spending his vacation on the Sound, arrived home Taesday night, and yesterday again took command of the good old Hon. and Mrs. F. P. Mays and family, who have spent some time at the Mays ranch, near Dufur, returned yesterday. Mrs. Mays and children vill visit her sister at Wallula, and Mr. Mays will return to Portland.

Miss Caughran, elecutionist, the Mises Joslyn and the Misses Manning, composing the University Clef Club, left this morning for Tacoma. While in the city the Misses Joslyn we've guests of Mrs. W. E. Sylvester, who was former ly an intimate friend of their mother.

BORN.

In Portland, Monday, Aug. 30th, to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Davis, a son.

DIED.

At Mosier, Wednesday afternoon, September 1st, at 5:45, Mrs. Mary C. Bills, Deceased was born in Germany, and was 87 years of age. She came to Oregon in 1880, and has resided here ever since that time. She leaves two children in the East, but her only relatives make the play, till, having seen some on the coast are grandchildren, who are Mrs. A. C. Wyndham and Mrs. E. A. Halt, both residing in California, Mrs. Brittain, Mrs. J. B. Crate, Henry and Chris Bills, all of The Dalles, and Jacob Bills, who is in Idaho.

The body will be brought here on the Regulator tonight, and the funeral will take place tomorrow at 10 o'clock from the residence of Mrs. J. B. Crate, on Blank Bound Over.

W. M. Blank, the man who in his sleep heat his companion, Butcheck, so badly, an account of which we printed yesterday, was arrested last night and this morning had his preliminary examination before Recorder Sinnott, he being charged with assault with a deadly zled features show the intensity of their weapon. He was bound over to await the action of the grand jury, with bonds fixed at $200. Butcheck seems to stand the terrible beating he got without any complaint, remarking to our reporter this morning that his head "felt much better." As we looked at the pulpy mass Dr. Sutherland was working on a German countess who denied the yesterday, when he was dressing Butcheck's scalp, we were forced to the conclusion that that same scalp was stuffed with a cannon ball.

A Fine School.

in this city and under the direction of the Sisters, is one of the best educational institutions on the coast. The building is of brick, large and well ventilated. Besides the regular studies, especial effort is made to instil into the minds of the pupils a desire to form their hearts grow. And then, as if nature had to virtue, and to fit them to be true and seemed to mock the haughty infidel, noble women. Gratuitous lessons are she quietly extended the delicate root given in all kinds of plain and fancy needle word, knitting, embroidery, etc. Pupils will receive the same watchful care that would be given them by conscientious parents. It is in fact an ideal shood and a pleasant home. Those who have girls to send to school should write to St. Mary's academy for terms. tf.

Caprice of Fashion. A tan pique is certainly "chie" with a deep, scant and stiff apron flounce on the skirt, edged by two rows of narrow black velvet ribbon and a boxplaited blouse, held by a black velvet

Some lace-trimmed gowns have lace sashes tying behind on one side, with long ends, making a pretty effect over a colored bodice. Unlined lace sleeves are another novelty belonging to the summer, and are fastened to both silk and cotton gowns.

The long lace line in front is liked now, and the pointed manner of arranging a belt carries out this idea.

Tailor-made jacket suits are plainer in regard to trimming than they were during the winter. They often have no garniture at all, save the widestraps on the seams, although the severely plain suits are generally built of mottled or checked cloths. Outside of tailor-made suits it is a bit original to wear an untrimmed gown.-Chicago Record.

For more than twenty years we have been telling how Scott's Emulsion overcomes the excessive waste of the system. puts on flesh, nourishes and builds up the body, making it the remedy for all wasting diseases of adults and children, but it isn't possible for us to tell the story in a mere stickful of newspaper type.

We have had prepared for us by a physician a little book, telling in easy words how and why Scott's Emulsion benefits. and a postal card request will be enough to have it sent to you free. To-day would be a good time to send for it.

GAMBLING IN CRIPPLE CREEK

Layouts in Every Saloon, and Miners Who Have Stacks of Wealth. Out in Cripple Creek the gambling houses are running in every saloon says the Nebraska State Journal They are huge, gilded affairs, where the hard-working miners, after coming from their eight-hour shifts, go to while away their time and money instead of hinking of home and mother and fillng their socks with money to pay of the mortgages on the farms back home The men stand five and six deep be hind the wheels watching the players as they risk their money, the less adventurous hardly having the ecurage to man get a winner, they, too, step up and bet on the black or the red. On the tables are stacked piles of silver coin and gold eagles, and the operators of the machines every little while take occasion to show that the game is backed by much more than the thousand or so that is in sight by displaying a stack of bills in a recentacle behind the table where the notes are thrown when paid in, with a kind of reckless abandon that is quite taking.

At other tables a policy wheel will be running, with so many drawings a day. In another corner of the room a crowd of men will be shooting eraps. a large and intensely absorbed crowd witnessing the play at each place. Off at one side a stud poker game is running. The old miners seem to favor this game particularly, and their grizinterest as the chips come and go.

CHALLENGED GOD.

Seedling Forced Open the Walled Tomb of an Infidel Countess.

"In the town of Hanover, in Germany," Evangelist Moody writes in Ladies' Home Journal, "there is buried existence of God and ridiculed the idea of the resurrection. To further show her contempt for Christianity she ordered that on her death her grave should be built up of solid masonry and covered by large stones bound to-St. Mary's academy for ladies, located gether by iron clamps. On this tomb was engraved her defiant challenge that through eternity this tomb should never be disturbed. But one day the seed from some tree, either blown by the wind or carried by a bird, became lodged in a small crevice of the tomb, where soon it sprouted and began to of that seedling under the massive blocks of stone, and slowly raised them from their place. And now, although scarce four generations are passed since that tomb was sealed that insignificant seedling has accomplished what God Himself was challenged to accom-

> Penurious War Department. Live heroes, when they serve in the ranks, can always count on shabby treatment from the British authorities. When the transport ship Warren Hastings, with 1,246 souls on board, went ashore on the rocks of the island of Reunion last January, in a pitch dark night, with a heavy sea running. all England rang with the praise of the bravery and discipline of the troops, who stood drawn up in companies on the deck till the women and children were saved and then went ashore as they were told off. Many of the officers were then mentioned in orders and After six months the war department allows each man six dollars to renew, his kit and each family $2.50 as compensation for lost property.
