

DUTCH SUGAR BOUNTY

Its Interpretation a Puzzle to Treasury Officials.

IMPORTANT INTERESTS AT STAKE

Question of Levying Extra Duty Upon Sugar From Holland Depends on the Decision.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—The question of whether beet sugars exported from Holland to the United States should all be practically excluded from this country by the imposition of an additional duty equivalent to the bounty paid by the Dutch government, is one which the treasury department will have to decide in the near future. At present sugars are allowed to come in on payment of the duty fixed by the sugar schedule in the tariff bill, with the understanding that if it is found that the additional duty stands it shall be paid.

Section 5 of the Dingley act provides that when any country shall pay either directly or indirectly, any bounty or grant a bounty upon the exportation of any article of merchandise it shall be subject, when imported into the United States to an additional duty equal to the export bounty. This is aimed especially at sugars, and the treasury department has called upon the state department to secure through consuls and ministers detailed information as to export paid by foreign governments.

It has been assumed that the new Dutch sugar law which went into effect recently, provided for an export bounty, but this seems to be open to considerable doubt. A draft of this law has been forwarded by the minister at The Hague. The treasury officials have not yet examined it carefully enough to decide whether it provides in any direct way for a bounty on exportation. The draft for the new law shows that premiums are allowed on beet sugars produced and withdrawn from the sugar factories, but this does not seem to be an export bounty, as it is the same on sugars withdrawn for home consumption as on those shipped abroad. It is doubtful whether this can be construed to be a bounty or grant upon the exportation of the sugar, and this may lead to a decision that no additional duties can be levied on Dutch sugar on account of the bounty.

The effect of such a decision would be to give Dutch beet sugars an advantage in the American market over German, Austrian and French sugars, as those countries pay bounties on the exportation of their sugars, and when they are imported into the United States they must pay additional duties equivalent to the bounties.

Vasquez Was Deported.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3.—The steamer Acapulco brought information of another political earthquake in Guatemala. When the vessel reached Acajutla it was met by a telegram from President Barrios and held until 11 o'clock at night when a special train arrived with General Vasquez, ex-president of Honduras, under guard.

It was ascertained that Vasquez, who had taken refuge in San Jose de Guatemala after his expulsion from Honduras, had been ordered deported by Barrios. The refugee was put on board the steamer and landed at Acapulco. It is said he was detected in fomenting a revolution against Barrios.

Japan Not Trying to Take the Canal.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—A dispatch to the Herald from Managua, says:

Your correspondent interviewed President Zelaya as to the statement that were badly sunburned. I used Garland's Happy Thought Salve, and it cured them in short order."

"My Ears"

EDWIN TERRELL, Sunnydale, Wash.

"It is a grand thing for sunburn and tan. I never used anything better."

MRS. POTTS, Tacoma, Wash.

"One jar of Garland's Happy Thought Salve cured me entirely of the severest case of sunburn I ever had. I have recommended it to my friends, who have all been benefited by it."

Japan is secretly negotiating with the the diet of the Greater Republic of Central America to take the Nicaragua canal project out of the hands of the United States, setting aside the treaty rights of the United States. The president declares that the statement is absolutely false. He says that while he ardently desires to have the canal completed as soon as possible, Japan has never offered to take any hand in the matter.

President Zelaya's wish, according to his statement, is for the work to be done either by the United States or by a private company.

Rockefeller's Generosity.

BOSTON, Sept. 3.—John D. Rockefeller, in pursuance of a promise to the American Baptist Missionary Union and the American Baptist Home Missionary Society, has sent his check for the balance of the $250,000 to be given by him on condition that the two societies should raise $236,000.

On August 1st the American Baptist Missionary Union, with headquarters in Fremont Temple, this city, received Mr. Rockefeller's check for $121,267. Now the American Baptist Home Missionary Society, the headquarters of which are in New York, has received a check for the amount necessary to cancel its indebtedness. This contribution is the largest gift ever made to the missionary cause.

No mystery about it. When the Shakers offered some time ago to give away a bottle of their Digestive Cordial to any one who might call at their New York office, there was a great rush and a great many people thought they were crazy.

Subsequent events proved to have been a very clever advertising transaction, for although they gave away thousands of bottles, it was in the end profitable; nearly every one that took a free bottle came back for more and paid for it with pleasure, saying they had derived better results from its use than from any other medicine they had ever used.

There is nothing so uniformly successful in the treatment of stomach troubles as the Shaker Digestive Cordial, and what is better than all, it relieves at once.

Laxol, the new form of Castor Oil is so palatable that children lick the spoon clean.

This Seems to Confirm It.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3.—H. Russell Ward, of Santa Monica, Cal., the Englishman whose sensational elopement with Mrs. John Bradbury, of Los Angeles, to this city in July last led to their arrest for adultery, was discharged on Thursday, August 26th, and left here for New York Monday evening, presumably to join his wife and family in England. Under ordinary circumstances he should have reached Chicago at 7:45 o'clock this morning.

SIN, SHAME, THEN DEATH.

H. Russel Ward Killed by Plunging From a Train.

CHICAGO, Sept. 3.—A man of the name of Ward, of San Francisco, a passenger on the Chicago & Northwestern overland flyer, which arrived today, and who is believed to be the man who eloped last summer with the wife of Millionaire Bradbury, of Los Angeles, leaped from the window of a Pullman car while the train was rushing through Iowa last night and was killed.

A telegram was received from Wheatlands almost at the same time the train pulled into Chicago which said Ward's body, clad only in night robes, had been found near that station. It is believed he was demented.

It is not known at what hour Ward jumped from the train. His absence was discovered by Conductor Roudny, when the train was between Geneva and Chicago. All of the suicide's clothing and effects were found in the berth he occupied.

The police of Chicago are mystified over the case. Yesterday afternoon a telegram was received at the central station as follows: "Please send a good man to drawing-room B, car No. 2, of the east-bound overland Northwestern in Chicago at 7:30."

The telegram was sent from Fremont, Neb., yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. It bore no signature. Detective Broderick met the train at the depot and on investigation found that the drawing-room B was the room the suicide had occupied. A detective was informed by Conductor Roudny that the telegram the police had received had been sent by Ward, who left the train at Fremont long enough to send it. C. F. Godman, conductor, and C. M. Calloway, porter of the Pullman car, occupied by Ward, said that prior to his retiring last night he exhibited no signs of insanity.

Cloudburst at Needles.

NEEDLES, Cal., Sept. 3.—A cloudburst has converted the streets of Needles into veritable rivers. The water is fully three feet deep in the business streets. Monaghan & Murphy's cellar is filled with water and goods to the amount of $3000 have been destroyed. Phelan's meat market has tumbled down and an adobe lodging-house has been wrecked. Every house in town has suffered more or less damage. The tracks of the Santa Fe road are washed out in several places.

The Reconciled Bradburys.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3.—By the arrival of the Acapulco it is learned that Colonel J. R. Bradbury and his wife, formerly Miss Banning of Los Angeles, whose escapade with Russell Ward made several days' talk of two continents, came up on that vessel from Panama to Mazatlan. They came from New York by steamer and were on their way from Mazatlan to the Tajo mines near Mazatlan in which Colonel Bradbury is interested.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alternative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c and $1.00 per bottle at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.
