Lutheran services in the basement of the new church tomorrow as follows: Morning service at 11 a. m., Sunday school at 12:05. There will be no evening service.

The Woodmen's Circle had a pleasant social last night. Mr. Parkins managed a fish pond, much to the amusement of all, and the catch was abnormal and surprising. Mrs. Varney presided at the piano and dancing was indulged in until midnight.

Mrs. Alma Howe, who for the past two years has been confined to her bed from the effects of a bruised ankle, caused by a stick of cord wood falling upon it, we are glad to note is able to be up and to get around with the aid of crutches.—Glacier.

Miss Mollie Bottorff, whose charming creations in the millinery art have delighted The Dalles ladies for the past two or three years, is now in San Francisco studying the latest things in color and form that go to make up literally the crowning piece in a ladies wardrobe. She has had the privilege of studying the very latest importations from Paris, and will in a short time return to The Dalles to assist Mrs. Briggs in preparing for the grand opening of millinery this fall.

The members of the Methodist church gave a reception last night to their pastor, J. H. Wood, and his family; also to the presiding elder, J. K. Warner, and his wife. Although the rules have been so modified that a minister may remain in one place five years, it is seldom they are returned the fourth year, as is the case with Mr. Wood, which speaks eloquently for the good he has accomplished here and the esteem in which he is held by his congregation. The church is particularly fortunate in having Rev. Warner and wife choose this as their home, for though a presiding elder spends little time in one place, yet his energetic, talented wife is an acquisition to the membership which is appreciated.

At the Congregational church, corner of Court and Fifth streets, Sunday services as follows: At 11 a. m. a short sermon, followed by the administration of the Lord's Supper. At 7:30 evening worship and a sermon by the pastor, W. C. Curtis. Sunday School immediately after the morning service. Meeting of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. Topic, Our gift from God; our gifts to God; Rom. viii:26-39. All persons not worshipping elsewhere are cordially invited.

Master Ralph Ordway, a 13-year-old son of Mrs. Wm. Kennedy, was seriously hurt Monday morning, says the Glacier. He was on his way to Sherman county with Sherman Young and Dan Smith, who were hauling fruit. The brake on the wagon gave way and the wagon was precipitated on to the horses, and in upsetting, the boy was thrown under the load. His leg was broken in two places above the knee and he received other serious injuries. Dr. Brocius was called and the injured boy is reported doing well as could be expected.

Hood River Fruit Fair.

Hood River is going to have a fruit fair Wednesday and Thursday, October 6th and 7th. Committees have been appointed, arrangements made for reduced fares on the boat and railway lines, and it is going to be a success. The fruit fair in Hood River some four or five years ago was a surprise even to the people of Hood River, and we believe that the finest exhibit, of the size, of apples ever made in the world was made there and then. The fair this fall should show at least as fine a selection and we advise all fruit growers of Hood River valley to take an interest in the matter. It is bread thrown upon the waters in the shape of advertising, and it will return ere many days.

"Didn't you say you've got a new writing machine?" "Yes" "Well, I couldn't see anything but a very stupid young man in your office when I stopped in there this morning." "That's it. He's the machine."—Philadelphia North American.

Council Meeting.

City council met last night with mayor Nolan in the chair. Councilmen present were Thompson, Wood, Saltmarsh, Kuck, Stephens, Johnston, Johns and Champlin.

Minutes were read and approved. Petition of Col. Patterson for permission to shoot at target inside of city limits by the O. N. G. was granted. Kuck and Stephens made a verbal report with regard to street lights, giving prices, etc., and were instructed to consult with Mr. French in regard to incandescent lights, and report at special meeting.

Reports of officers were read and placed on file. All bills audited by finance committee were allowed and ordered paid.

On motion the three men hired by the chief of the fire department to watch the Brittain building after the fire, were paid $1.50 each.

Action on bills of W. H. Butts and Chas. Newberger, was postponed. Council adjourned.

A Hold-Up.

Last night near the Mill creek bridge a couple of boys got into a fight about a pair of spurs. Mr. Horn, brother-in-law of Rev. L. Grey, parted them. In the meanwhile a telephone message had been sent for the marshal to come up that there was a bloody murder, or something of that kind, being perpetrated. The marshal and night-watchman went out, and on the road met Mr. Horn coming in. Being a stranger, the marshal called to him to "hold up," and Horn, thinking he was being held up, took leg ball. Marshal Lauer fired his pistol to scare the man into stopping, but he didn't scare, or at least stop, worth a cent.

Later the marshal tracked the fleeing man to Rev. Grey's house, and upon rattling the door that gentleman thought burglars were about, or something of that kind, and belonging to the church militant, he loaded his revolver and stepped out on the upper front porch. Explanations followed, the marshal went home, the other people went to bed, and the matter of spurs is not yet settled.

PERSONAL MENTION.

T. W. Badder of Cascade Locks is in the city.

A. B. Craft, Biggs' popular merchant, is in the city.

Miss Maybel Mack left this morning for San Francisco.

J. G. Griffith arrived home from Heppner this morning.

Clyde F. Bonnell and C. B. Hinrichs are up from Hood River.

Miss Anna Thompson left today for Enderby, where she is to take charge of the school.

C. M. Cartwright and wife came up from Portland yesterday and left for Hay Creek this morning.

Mr. George A. Sheppard is up from Portland on business connected with the re-modeling of the Commercial Club rooms.

W. E. Jones went to Portland yesterday, but will return to assist in purchasing the balance of the wool in the warehouses here.

Mr. H. J. Brooks came up from Sellwood yesterday to see his son, who is quite ill at the home of his uncle, Mr. S. L. Brooks.

Charles Butler and son, who have been buying cattle in the southern part of the county, left for Port Townsend this morning.

Mrs. T. A. Hudson and family and Mrs. C. N. Thornbury came home yesterday from Portland, where they have spent some time.

Mr. Charles Lord, who went to Chillicothe, Ohio, about four weeks ago, on account of the illness of his father, returned this morning.

Hon. W. H. Wilson, accompanied by his wife and daughter, who have been spending the summer at Seaview, returned home last night.

Miss Ada Cowan, who has been visiting in the Willamette valley, came up last night. She was met here by her father, and they left today for the Warm Springs.

Judge W. L. Bradshaw and family and Miss Clara Davis returned yesterday from Seaside. They have spent the entire summer at the beach, and report the best time they have yet had there.

W. S. Lytle went to Biggs this morning to take charge of the office of the Columbia Southern Railroad. He is a very clever gentleman, whom the people of Sherman county will find it a pleasure to do business with.

Mrs. Pendleton, daughter of A. T. Higby of Lytle, Wash., accompanied by her four children, arrived on the morning train from the East. They were met here by Mr. Higby, and will remain with him for a month or two.

W. E. Niles, M. J. Bissell, F. A. Menzies, A. MacCorquodale, J. W. Casey and E. B. Duffey, all freight solicitors for different railroads, are in the city. This gives an idea of the importance of The Dalles as a shipping point.

Dr. Lannerberg arrived home last night from an extended trip through the southern portion of the county. He was accompanied by Mrs. Lannerberg and her niece, Miss Berg. The party had a fine time camping, fishing and hunting; but, of course, are glad to get back to The Dalles.

"Have you any modern engines of war?" asked the visitor.

"Yes," replied the Spanish general; "we quit running our printing presses by hand long ago."—Washington Star.

IN the United States now enjoying food cooked in the MAJESTIC affirm that the half has not been said in its praise. The manufacturers of this Range pledge themselves that all parts of the MAJESTIC except the firebox and the new series Nos. 201 to 212, are made of steel and malleable iron, and purchasers are assured that it is as good and as honest as skilled labor and money can produce. If the parts now in malleable iron were (as in other so-called steel ranges) made of cast iron, the price could be greatly reduced; but the MAJESTIC is not made with a view to furnishing extra parts for repairs.
