To Leave Us.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Reeves, who have had charge of the Mt. Hood hotel for the past year, will leave next week for their new home at Baker City, where they will take charge of the Hotel Sagamore. The hotel is four stories in height with a stone basement, and covers 80x100 feet of ground. It is being furnished first-class, and under the management of Mr. Reeves will be the best in the city. Mr. Reeves is known far and wide as a man who knows how to keep a hotel, and will easily capture the patronage of tourists and druggers on the road for his new hotel at Baker City. Our community will lose in Mr. and Mrs. Reeves most estimable members of society. Mrs. Reeves is known throughout the state as a leading member of the W. R. C., and will be missed by the corps here. She is a lady remarkably fitted for the duties of landlady of a first-class hotel. Mr. Reeves is an old soldier, having served throughout the war in the 21st infantry and 2d Maine cavalry, and is a prominent member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He is also a high Mason of the Knight Templar degree. During his residence in La Grande he served a term as mayor of that city. He is known throughout the Northwest as a model hotel man. The many friends this esteemed couple have made in Hood River wish them success in their new home.—Glacier.

Cattle Killed by Lightning.

On Monday evening eight head of cattle belonging to W. J. Edwards were killed by lightning in his pasture about one mile from the town of Mayville, and eight miles from Fossil. Seven head of the cattle, four cows and three calves, were found lying dead together, one in front of the other, alongside the barb wire fence that encloses the field. They had evidently been walking in single file as close to the fence as they could get when the thunderbolt struck them. Half a mile distant, one calf was found dead alone, also close to the fence. There were no outward marks on the cattle to indicate the cause of death, but for nearly a mile the fence showed the lightning's course, the wire being twisted and many of the posts being shattered and pulled out of the ground. Across the county road, which is sixty feet wide, Fred Moore's fence, which with Mr. Edwards' fence forms a lane, was also damaged in similar manner. Mr. Edwards' loss is estimated at about $125.

This unusual occurrence created a great deal of interest and surprise in Mayville and surrounding country, as fatalities from lightning were hitherto unknown in Gilliam county, and seldom occur in the state.—Fossil Journal.

A. L. Mohler is the President.

At the meeting of the new board of directors of the O. R. & N., held at Portland yesterday afternoon, A. S. Heidelbach, of New York, was elected chairman of the board.

A. L. Mohler was elected president. The executive board, as selected, consists of A. S. Heidelbach, William G. Bull, Edward D. Adams, Charles S. Coeter, W. G. Oakman and Samuel Carr.

One of the most satisfactory results of the meeting was the declaring of a dividend of one per cent on preferred stock, payable October 1st.

The new board of directors, as elected yesterday, has five new names on it that replace that number dropped. The old directors supplanted are E. McNeill, Charles S. Fairchild, John Crosby Brown, W. E. Glin and Francis S. Bangs, all of New York except Mr. McNeill.

A Fine School.

St. Mary's academy for ladies, located in this city and under the direction of the Sisters, is one of the best educational institutions on the coast. The building is of brick, large and well ventilated. Besides the regular studies, especial effort is made to instill into the minds of the pupils a desire to form their hearts to virtue, and to fit them to be true and noble women. Gratuitous lessons are given in all kinds of plain and fancy needle work, knitting, embroidery, etc. Pupils will receive the same watchful care that would be given them by conscientious parents. It is in fact an ideal school and a pleasant home. Those who have girls to send to school should write to St. Mary's academy for terms. tf.

Are You Thin?

Look about you! See for yourself! Who suffer most from sleeplessness, nervousness, nervous dyspepsia, neuralgia, despondency, general weakness? Who are on the edge of nervous prostration all the time? Those who are thin, Opium, chloral, bromides, headache powders, only make matters worse. Iron and biters are only stimulants. To be cured, and cured for good, you need a fat-making food. You want new blood, rich blood; and a strong nerve-tonic.

SCOTT'S EMULSION of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites is all this. It feeds the tissues, makes rich blood, and strengthens the nerves.

Book about it free for the asking. For sale by all druggists at 50c. and $1.00. SCOTT & BOWNE, New York.

ENERGY SADLY WASTED.

A Calculating Barber's Astonishing Figures of a Bicycle Century Run. Snyder, the calculating barber, was talking about cycling, and was holding forth upon the energy expended by women in making century runs, says the Philadelphia Record. "I have done a little figuring on the subject," he remarked, "and the result is most surprising."

"Take a woman who weighs 120 pounds and who rides a wheel weighing 20 pounds. In riding 100 miles I have calculated that a power of more than 3,000,000 pounds of energy, or about 100 horse-power, has been brought into play. And to think that all this has been expended in riding a bicycle."

"Had the woman directed this energy in running a sewing machine, where a force of two pounds will run a needle over a piece of cloth for a distance of a foot, she could have hemmed a piece of muslin about 1,500,000 feet, or nearly 300 miles long."

"The same amount of energy used to propel a baby carriage weighing 10 pounds, containing a baby weighing 12 pounds more, would send the youngster 500 miles. The same amount of energy expended in churning would produce 30 tons of butter, or would push a carpet sweeper over an area of 250,000 square feet."

"The woman also could have ironed, without any more fatigue, a strip of muslin one foot wide and 210 miles long. And if she had been shopping, just think of all the bargain counters she could have walked around. I tell you, it's astonishing. Bay rum or witch hazel, sir?"

A Wild Deer Blew in His Face.

A gentleman who was fishing on Seventh Lake, N. Y., a few days ago became tired and sleepy. So he anchored his boat near the shore in a shady spot and lay down in the bottom for a nap. After awhile he was awakened by something blowing upon his face, and when he opened his eyes he saw a big buck standing to his belly in the water beside the boat and with his nose close to the fisherman's face. The gentleman lay quite still, rather enjoying the situation. About that time another boat came around the corner into the little cove, and the buck with a bound disappeared in the woods.

Embarrasses No One.

For all her incomparable dignity of deportment there is something homely and gentle about the queen of England. "I don't know how it is," remarked one of her great officers not long ago, "I'm such a shy man, and really to chat with some princess embarrasses me. But as soon as I see the queen all shyness vanishes. Why, she's as easy to talk with as your own or anybody's mother! No one can feel shy of the queen, and what is more, it would vex her if they did."
