PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. J. M. Huntington went to Portland on the early morning train.

A Monster Indian Basket.

Indian baskets two and a half feet in diameter and about the same size from top to bottom are sights which delight the eyes of those interested in baskets.
Though they are now very difficult to obtain, the leading collections on the coast and in the East all contain one or more such. But baskets beyond these dimensions would be very hard to obtain, for the reason that the weaver would most likely get tired of the work and give it up long before the basket was finished.

Fine reeds run through the basket from top to bottom, and around them are woven the strands of fibre of which the basket is composed. In among these are woven the different colored fibres which go to make up the pattern. Each of the fibre threads is put in its place as tight as the cotton in a piece of sheeting, and the pattern is as plainly marked as if it were painted.

The basket was made by a Poma Indian woman in the village near Ukiah, and the work consumed nearly two years. It was commenced in November, 1895, and finished only a few days ago. Poor woman! when she started to make the basket she intended to eclipse all the previous efforts of her tribe.

The board of equalization will meet the first Monday in October, at which time all who are dissatisfied with their assessment, will be given the opportunity to correct any error.

Do you want money? If so, catch on to this. A 7-year-old orchard, twenty acre tract, seventeen acres in choice fruits, bearing trees, new house of six rooms, barns, outbuildings, etc., all new; two horses and harness, two wagons, one road cart and one cow. Will sell at a bargain and on easy terms.

The Gun Goes Off

Instantly when you pull the trigger. So sickness may come on suddenly. But it takes time to load the gun, and it takes time to get ready for those explosions called diseases. Coughs, colds, any "attack," whatever the subject be, often means preceding weakness and poor blood.

HIGH BUILDINGS.

One Was Planned by a Student Thirty Years Ago.
An old graduate of the Troy Polytechnic institute was looking at the high Neave building a few days ago, reports the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune, and said:

"That high building makes me think of a graduate of my class who was a marvel. We thought he was crazy, and his mysterious end only deepens the conviction that our surmise was correct. He was everlastingly speculating upon the seemingly improbable. At one time he said that the day would come when they would build houses 100 stories high, and to show how it would be done he made a drawing of a bridge, as we called it, standing on end. Then he said all you have to do to finish the thing is to cut stones to fill the spaces, put in the joists and rafters, and there you are. And that was more than 30 years ago, before the high buildings had been thought of by any architect.

Taxpayers' Attention.

This is my last and final call to you, as the county court has issued an imperative order.
By virtue of a warrant to me directed, issued, by the clerk of the county court of the state of Oregon for the county of Wasco, commanding me to collect the delinquent county, state and other taxes, I will, on the 1st day of October, 1897, without further notice, levy upon and sell all property upon which taxes remain unpaid.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Blakely and Houghton, druggists.

Few realize that each squirrel destroys $1.50 worth of grain annually. Wakelee's Squirrel and Gopher Exterminator is the most effective and economical poison known. Price reduced to 30 cents. For sale by M. Z. Donnell, Agent.

All county warrants registered prior to March 12, 1893, will be paid at my office. Interest ceases after Sept. 7, 1897. C. L. PHILLIPS, County Treasurer.

New York Weekly Tribune

Farmers and Villagers, Fathers and Mothers, Sons and Daughters, All the Family.

With the close of the Presidential Campaign THE TRIBUNE recognizes the fact that the American people are now anxious to give their attention to home and business interests. To meet this condition, policies will have far less space and prominence, until another State or National occasion demands a renewal of the fight for the principles for which THE TRIBUNE has labored from its inception to the present day, and won its greatest victories.

Every possible effort will be put forth, and money freely spent, to make THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE pre-eminently a National Family Newspaper, interesting, instructive, entertaining and indispensable to each member of the family.

We furnish "The Chronicle" and N. Y. Weekly Tribune one year for only $1.75.

Write your name and address on a postal card, send it to Geo. W. Best, Tribune Office, New York City, and a sample copy of The New York Weekly Tribune will be mailed to you.
