GEER AND THE POLITICIANS.

Under the above caption the Astoria Evening News publishes a lengthy editorial, from which we clip the following:

"There are several reasons why Mr. Geer should be satisfied with the decision of the delegation. It did the best thing it could under existing conditions. It showed no desire to turn him down. It gave him a place that is just as desirable in the eye of the public as the collectorship, and that will serve his political ambition far better. In the land office he would be free from many embarrassing and entangling political alliances that would disturb his peace of mind and employment, and he would only come in contact with the sturdy men with whom he has been associated all his life.

"Again, we are informed that when Mr. Geer took the stump for the Republican party last November he did so for a stipulated compensation for his services; and having been paid off, it is hardly probable that the delegation feels under obligations to tender him an appointment promised to another.

"There are some questions Mr. Geer should ask himself. Who are they who are so eager to have him decline and snub the delegation? Are they his friends? What purpose have they in view—his benefit or his injury?

"It is plain those who are eager to have him decline are not his friends, nor the friends of the delegation, and they care not what becomes of Mr. Geer if they can use him to embarrass the delegation. They are simply using him as a tool, and his honest nature as a trap for his undoing. Because he is in a formidable position as a presidential elector, they have singled him out as the proper person to defy, gracefully bulldoze and dictate to the delegation. He may learn later that this is a dangerous thing to do.

"We are to have an election next June. The men who have the say on federal appointments are now organizing their forces, making their selections from the ablest timber in practical politics. It is to be Mitchell and McBride on one side and Simon and Scott on the other. These men understand practical politics. They know that the art of politics depends on the constant principles and motives of human self-interest. Its details they have learned from history and experience. They know that such material as they have must be used, and that power gained by certain ways must be maintained, if at all, by corresponding means. The battle is now on, and we must not be surprised if the scenes enacted at the primaries in Portland nearly two years ago are repeated.

"Oregon has been disgraced by dirty politics. It is time that the career of H. W. Scott in the role of Calaban should be ended. Simon, who has stood in with him, should be turned down. Governor Lord, who is deaf to the voice of reason and the people's burdens, must be made to know that there are more potent factors in the state than Simon, Scott and Corbett. In the next election these men will read the sequel of the late legislative crime. The people are anxious to show them Waterloo."

The latest reports from Skaguay are to the effect that a new trail has been completed to Lake Bennett and that the struggling hundreds are now arriving at the lakes. It is unfortunate that this is so, for while many are well supplied for the winter, the other many are not, and so provisions will give out and much suffering ensue. It is a misfortune that the Chilcoot pass did not remain an impassable barrier to the whole crowd. Hunger will soon take the place of the present hardships.

The last authentic report received from Professor Andree was brought by a stool pigeon from Skaguay. The bird carried a message done up in a quill and tied to its breast. It reads: "North Pole. Aug. 27th. Have found the pole and built a pigeon house on it. Supply of pigeons running short, so will send no more till the first hatching gets ripe. Shall live on pigeon pies and wait here for the relief party."

The dispatches state that many college graduates are among the crowds at Skaguay and Dyea. It is seldom the college graduate discovers what he is good for, hence we suggest that these young athletes, fresh from Virgil and Homer, should be able to translate anything they come across, especially a short passage like that from Skaguay to Lake Bennett.

Sick stomach means sick man (or woman).

Why not be well?
Sick stomach comes from poor food, poor nourishment; means poor health, poor comfort. Shaker Digestive Cordial means health and a well stomach.

If we could examine our stomach we would understand why it is that so little will put it out of order.

But, unless we are doctors, we never see our stomach. We don't feel it. We would feel it less if we took Shaker Digestive Cordial.

Shaker Digestive Cordial makes your stomach digest all the nourishing food you eat, relieves all the symptoms of indigestion, acts as a tonic and soon makes you feel well and strong again.

The more you take, the less you feel of your stomach.
