A MOURNFUL DEATH.

Legend and history tell us of the Review. rise and fall of empires and of races. Persia commanded the world, yet today it is but a province. Macedonia absorbed the territory surrounding her like a mortgage, until her conquering hosts swept across Asia, and Alexander was master of the world. Rome sent her legions to the confines of the earth. The Saracens swept up from the South, across the Bosphorus, and planted the banner Mr. Geer. . Both of the gentlemen of Mahomet, not only where it floats today, but in the heart of Spain. At- the Oregon legislature, but Mr. tilla showed Europe the strength of Moores has not been a presidential the barbarian hordes of Hungary, as elector. The truth is that Mr. Geer, did Alaric. Spain ruled the seas, as England does today.

Upon the decadence of one people, another became virile. Upon the fall of one nation, another gathered and bound up the shattered remnants for itself. Yet one by one each in turn went down, and of them it may be said, as thousands of years ago it was said of the ancient city, "Troy was!" Greece rose to the zenith as a comet, and fell almost as quickly as it rose, when its head, Alexander, died. Persia died of fatty degeneration of the heart. Rome lived to a ripe old age, continuing her life as long as she was able to digest what she swallowed, but finally perished from over-eating. Turkey's power waned, because her religion prevented her keeping pace with the strides of modern civiliza-Attilla and Alarie were leadtion. ers of savages, and savages cannot exist in the fight with advancement. Atlantis, the fabled, died gloriously in the height of her power, a victim of a terrific convulsion of nature, and Spain is moribund, toothless, decrepit, querulous, senile, quarrel ing with her children and with her neighbors over them.

The last is the most mournful, and will put it out of order. at the same time the most trying to the patience, of any end that could come to her. But a few years and Digestive Cordial.

than in America there was a steady decline that was only checked by the over-selling by bears. Heavy carrying charges were paid, and the bull was handicapped in such a way that EASTERN OFFICE-230 to 234 Temple he was unable to overcome it.

Now conditions have changed. Countries south of the equator have no surplus and are buying In America 2 25 to supply their wants until the first 1 75 of the year. Even Russia gives 2 00 promise of having less surplus wheat for export than in many years. This leaves the condition of American holders for the next four months the strongest ever known .-- Commercial

> Hon. C. B. Moores of Salem was yesterday appointed register of the land office at Oregon City in place of Hon. T. T. Geer, who declined the appointment as being several sizes too small for him. Mr. Moores will probably accept the place, and do it gladly, and yet Mr. Moores is perhaps as great a man, as good a man, and as good a Republican as have been speaker of the house, in had he been left to his cwn judgment, would have been satisfied with the appointment; but Mephistopheles perched on his left shoulder and whispered things into his sea shell ears that he should not have listened to, and he has formed a too exalted opinion of himself therefrom. There are other pebbles on the beach, other dumplings in the stew.
