

THE DALLES, - - - OREGON

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Jess Danbar of Goldendale is in the city today.

Mrs. D. Allen and daughter, Rowena, returned to their home in Portland today, after a short visit with friends here.

Mr. Charles Cleary, special agent of the treasury department, engaged in examining into the affairs of national banks, arrived from Portland last night, and will remain for a few days.

A Fine School.

St. Mary's academy for ladies, located in this city and under the direction of the Sisters, is one of the best educational institutions on the coast. The building is of brick, large and well ventilated. Besides the regular studies, especial effort is made to instill into the minds of the pupils a desire to form their hearts to virtue, and to fit them to be true and noble women. Gratuitous lessons are given in all kinds of plain and fancy needle work, knitting, embroidery, etc. Pupils will receive the same watchful care that would be given them by conscientious parents. It is in fact an ideal school and a pleasant home. Those who have girls to send to school should write to St. Mary's academy for terms. ti.

A Rich Treat is Promised.

To the Oregon State Fair for 1897, - September 30th to October 8th - the O. R. & N. Co. will sell tickets at one fare rates for round trip from all points on their lines in Oregon.

You will be entertained from morning until night. No time to rest. Liberal prizes offered for all kinds of sports, such as baseball, tug-of-war, chopping contests, foot races, hammer throw, shot put, and various other sports in charge of a competent committee. Don't overlook the date and the cheap railroad rate of on fare for the round trip. Popular admission of 25 cents.

American Beauty Roses.

The discoverer of the American beauty rose was a man named Field, who had charge of the white house conservatories in the time of President Grant. One day Field went in the greenhouse attached to the residence of Bancroft the historian, where he saw a rose of unusual beauty and size, which the man in charge said had sprung from a German cutting. Field bought the bush for five dollars, and a few years later sold all the cuttings and plants from the bush for $5,000 and bought real estate near Washington that ten years ago was sold for $50,000, and is now probably worth a good deal more than then.

Telling Time Without a Watch.

The following clever device is the way in which the natives of Liberia, in West Africa, who have no clocks, tell the time: They take the kernels from the nuts of the candle tree and wash and string them on the rib of a palm leaf. The first, or top, kernel is then lighted. All of the kernels are of the same size and substance, and each will burn a certain number of minutes, and then set fire to the one next below.

Big Subscription.

Shortly after the Paris fire the Figaro of that city opened a subscription for the benefit of the sufferers. This subscription in a short time amounted to the sum of $222,800.

Justification.

"Hub!" snorted the husband who had been inveigled into attending the rendition of a sermon. "Call him a boy preacher! He's 40 if he's a day." "He does look that way," said the wife; "but," she continued, in her anxiety to plead, "don't you think he has the mind of a boy?" - Typographical Journal.

How America Was Named

Vespucci himself must not be held responsible for the usurpation. The unconscious criminal was a certain Martin Waldseemuller, of Fribourg, an eminent cosmographer patronized by Rene, duke of Lorraine. The duke probably showed a letter of Vespucci's to his geographical friend, who incorporated its contents with the treatise which he was issuing under the assumed name of "Hylacomylas," and, as these publications had a wide circulation, the use of the name America thus became propagated throughout the world. - Scribner's.

A Valuable Prescription.

Editor Morrison of Worthington, Ind., "Sun," writes: "You have a valuable prescription in Electric Bitters, and I can cheerfully recommend it for Constipation and Sick Headache, and as a general system tonic it has no equal." Mrs. Annie Stehle, 2025 Cottage Grove Ave., Chicago, was all run down, could not eat nor digest food, had a backache which never left her and felt tired and weary, but six bottles of Electric Bitters restored her health and renewed strength. Prices 50 cents and $1.00. Get a Bottle at Blakeley and Houghton's Drug Store. (6)

With the close of the Presidential Campaign THE TRIBUNE recognizes the fact that the American people are now anxious to give their attention to home and business interests. To meet this condition, politics will have far less space and prominence, until another State or National occasion demands a renewal of the fight for the principles for which THE TRIBUNE has labored from its inception to the present day, and won its greatest victories.

Every possible effort will be put forth, and money freely spent, to make THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE pre-eminently a National Family Newspaper, interesting, instructive, entertaining and indispensable to each member of the family.
