TOO BIG TO SPANK.

Some of the European powers do not like the idea of American interference in Cuban affairs, or the proposition to annex Hawaii. A few German papers intimate that this country will get a severe drubbing if it does not attend to its own business. They do not seem to realize that interfering in the Cuban affair is our business, and ours only. The same might be said of Hawaii. As for the drubbing, it only serves to amuse Americans to hear the loud noises the little fellows make. They might as well understand at once that a war with America is like an American duel, somebody gets killed in it. This country does not seek a war, but if forced into it, it will go at it as a business matter. We have no ocean commerce to lose, and outside of a few sea ports that might be bombarded, there is nothing a foreign enemy could hurt or take, and as for a foreign army coming here to fight us on our own soil, all the ships of the world could not bring them fast enough to keep the spectators interested. Besides, before our ports were blockaded a year the balance of the world would be starved to death, and England, Germany, France and the rest of the powers, except Austria and Russia, would have all they could do to suppress the food riots at home. Uncle Samuel will never be spanked by any foreign power. He is too old and too big.

George W. McCoy of Portland, known in this section as that Wapinitia ditch builder, and several other Portland gentlemen, have formed a corporation with headquarters at Portland. It is known as the Alaska-Klondike Mining & Exploration Co. It is capitalized at $5,000,000, its capital stock being divided into 5,000,000 shares of the par value of $1 each. The magnitude of the company is only exceeded by the range and scope of its objects. It will operate "anywhere in the world," and its objects, or some of them, are to "purchase, build and operate mines, railroads, telegraph and telephone lines, canals, ditches and airships, and to plant orchards." And all this, just think of it! is to be managed by Portland people. Surely Portland is awaking.

There has been much building at Skaguay, and the boomers have heralded to the world that it is soon to be a city of 20,000 inhabitants. The boom is over, the disgusted and disheartened visionaries who struggled vainly with the Skaguay trail, are returning to civilization to wait until spring before again attempting the trip. It is not possible that the Skaguay or Dyea trails are the best that can be made into the Yukon. The Stuckeen route, the Dalton trail, or some other, will be opened and will catch the main portion of such travel as does not take the cheap and easy way of getting in by way of St. Michaels. Skaguay has had its boom, and will retire from business.

The Duchess of Marlborough, daughter of W. K. Vanderbilt and his wife, now Mrs. Belmont, recently gave birth to an heir, a bouncing boy. The event caused quite a commotion in select circles, and the Prince of Wales himself volunteered by telegraph to stand godfather to the duklet. The dispatches state that the family were much worried at the coming event, but that the case took the normal course. It would seem from this that because the granddaughter of the old Harleem boatman had become, through purchase, instead of descent, a duchess, the usual order of events would be reversed and that there would be a Gargantua or a Pantagruel. Nit.

Austria thinks that in case the United States and Spain should go to war, she would stand in with Spain. This is startling news indeed. Austria is a back number, and as far as helping Spain is concerned could do nothing. Shut off from the ocean, she would have to use airships to get her soldiers out, and her money would be the only thing she could aid Spain with. The next thing the Associated Press will have joining forces against this country will be Sierra Leone or Liberia.
