ENGLAND IN THE GAME

American Annexation of Hawaii Will Be Protested.

BUT WILL NOT BE BELLIGERENT

She Merely Hopes to Persuade Uncle Sam to Give Up Necker Island-- Happenings in Hawaii.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—The steamship Australia arrived this morning from Honolulu with the following Hawaiian advices:

HONOLULU, Sept. 22.—When the question of annexation of the Hawaiian islands comes up before the United States senate, England will make a protest. This protest will not be of a belligerent nature, and will be only the forerunner of a scheme to obtain control of Necker island for cable purposes.

For some time past English war vessels have been besieging the islands in the Pacific, but have kept their hands off Hawaiian territory. In May, 1894, President Dole had reason to believe that England had her eyes on Necker island. He acted promptly, and on the 25th of May a vessel was chartered and sailed the same day for the island. Captain James A. King, a minister of the interior, was in charge of the expedition. The island was reached two days later, and the following proclamation was read:

"I, James A. King, minister of the interior of the provisional government of the Hawaiian islands, take possession of this island, known as Necker island, as a part of Hawaiian territory; having been claimed by the Hawaiian government since the year 1845, when an expedition under Captain Paty was sent to survey said island."

Both the United States and Hawaiian governments know positively that England does not object to annexation of the islands; but she must have a cable landing near Honolulu, and a landing must be on British soil. Necker island is practically worthless to Hawaii, and it is believed that the United States government will readily cede the barren rock to please England.

When Captain King visited Necker island it was found to be almost a sterile heap of volcanic rocks, nearly 300 feet high, with a few patches of coarse grass on the surface.

Representative J. G. Cannon, of Illinois; H. C. Landenslager, of New Jersey; A. S. Berry, of Kentucky, and J. A. Tawley, of Minnesota, and their families leave for San Francisco today, after a short stay in this country. Senator Morgan will remain several weeks longer. During the party's stay they have been conducted to the different points of interest, and have had everything pertaining to Hawaii explained to them. Many social functions have been given in their honor. On the evening of the 20th a public reception was tendered Senator Morgan. It took place at the United States legation, and was largely attended.

Senator Morgan and the congressmen visited Pearl harbor yesterday. The latest charts, together with a brief sketch of the work already accomplished by the Pennington survey party, were laid before the senator and his colleagues.

It has been claimed that representative Cannon is opposed to annexation. In an interview he said:

"You can rest assured that I have not committed myself against annexation. I do not care what you hear to the contrary, no man can say that I am pledged against the annexation of the islands. I dislike going into print on this question at the present time. I came here for pleasure and to see and learn all I possibly could during the short period of my stay. I can truthfully say that I am greatly impressed with my trip to Hawaii."

Congressman Cannon is chairman of the house appropriation committee. He has always opposed the allowance of any large appropriation for the improvement of Pearl harbor.

Congressman Berry talks freely. He said:

"I was favorable to a political union before I came here, and my visit has only strengthened me in my position. I feel confident that annexation will come during the next session of congress."

Congressman Landenslager was non-committal when interviewed. He said: "Not being on American soil, I would prefer not to talk on the subject. You will hear very shortly how I feel about the matter, for I intend to ventilate my views when I return home. I can say that I was favorably impressed with the American colony in Hawaii."

It is reached by road from Ortiz station on the Sonora railway, 215 miles south of Nogales, and 40 miles north of Guaymas. Captain Cox says the ground is very rich placer. The gold is coarse and heavy and is well washed. Captain Cox reports that in the vicinity are many quartz ledges, from six to ten feet of free milling ore.
