

Where's That Boy

Of yours going for his new outfit? We have not forgotten about him and his Winter needs. He will want a new suit to wear to school; he must have good, warm clothes for the cold weather, and a neat Sunday Suit, perhaps.

Our Boys' Department

Is full of interest to parents. The clothes are stylish and good and made of dependable cloth, and so strongly sewed that they will keep the small fellows busy to wear them out. We believe you will acknowledge that THE PRICES ARE LOWER HERE THAN EVER BEFORE. There certainly never was a time when you could dress a boy so well for so little money.

Our Furnishing Goods Department

Is displaying the latest things in Neckwear, Shirts, Underwear, Hosiery and the like—everything a man needs at right prices.

ALL GOODS MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES.

IN the United States now enjoying food cooked in the MAJESTIC affirm that the half has not been said in its praise. The manufacturers of this Range pledge themselves that all parts of the MAJESTIC except the firebox and the new series Nos. 201 to 212, are made of steel and malleable iron, and purchasers are assured that it is as good and as honest as skilled labor and money can produce. If the parts now in malleable iron were (as in other so-called steel ranges) made of cast iron, the price could be greatly reduced; but the MAJESTIC is not made with a view to furnishing extra parts for repairs.

Fern Lodge, Degree of Honor, is going to have some kind of "doins" on Halloween.

The Regulator this morning carried away 1600 sacks of wheat, or something more than a hundred tons.

The Ione, after her regular trip yesterday, went down to Lyle and brought up fifteen or twenty tons of baled hay.

Dr. Mullinnix will remain at the Columbia hotel with his nitrogene remedies until October 5th. Consultation free. s30-3t

The crosswalk on Second street, east of Court, needs fixing, and should be attended to before an accident is caused by it.

Mrs. Mary Pepper, who was so severely burned near Walla Walla Monday morning, died the afternoon of the same day.

The O. R. & N. is having bad luck recently. Yesterday a broken axle on a freight train tied traffic up near Bonneville for a short time.

Frank Pickett, the man hurt recently on the Columbia Southern, is at the Umatilla House under the care of Dr. Logan, and will soon be entirely recovered.

The recorder's court for the month of September had only three drunks to deal with. This indicates that everybody is busy, and that the fellows who occasionally slop over are at work in the harvest fields.

Messrs. Walter Pugh and Charles Gray, who had the contract for putting in the water system at the Warm Springs, arrived here yesterday, having completed their work. They say the agency has the finest water system in the country.

A dispatch from Independence, this state, dated Sept. 25th, says: "The attendance at the normal school is now greater than that at the same time last year. Miss Ellen Chamberlain, of Seattle, will take charge of the music department next Monday, and will also be preceptress."

The funeral of the late William Hockman took place from the Methodist church this morning, Rev. J. H. Wood preaching the funeral sermon. After the services at the church the body was taken in charge by the Knights of Pythias and buried with the usual ceremonies of the order. The church was filled with the dead man's friends, the casket being covered with flowers. He was a member of the Hook and Ladder Company, the members of which were present, as were all his fellow employees on the railroad who were in the city, and the boys from the shops.

W. E. Kahler arrived from Hardman a few days ago, and has shipped the stock of groceries he had stored here to Sumpter, Baker county, where he will open a store. He goes as far as the Willows this evening, meeting his family there, and catching the overland tomorrow morning.

The Columbia Southern it was expected would be completed to Wasco tomorrow. While this will probably not be done, it will be finished within a day or two. The road would have been finished some time ago, but was delayed because the rails for the curves had to be bent by hand, which, of course, is a slow process.

The Simmons and Forest Queen groups of mines in Union county were sold Tuesday to Eastern capitalists. The price paid is not known, but for the Simmons group alone $100,000 was offered and refused. The mines will be developed and will soon be adding their million or two a year to that $25,000,000 a year product which we have predicted for Eastern Oregon.

C. W. Wing of Wamic, in driving across the railroad track yesterday afternoon, was thrown from his wagon by the seat giving way. He fell on his face and head, and was unconscious for quite a while. Dr. Logan was called to attend him, and he tells us Mr. Wing has suffered no serious injuries, but will be all right in a day or so. His face was scratched and his head cut slightly.

At the state insane asylum Monday, Drs. W. T. Williamson and L. F. Griffith, assisted by Dr. Carl, of Oregon City, trephined the frontal bone of Robert Bettie, the expectation being that the region of the man will be restored. Mr. Bettie was sent to the asylum a few weeks ago from Clackamas county. His brain trouble was caused by a hurt received on his head by the explosion of a shotgun in his hands several years ago, and physicians were of the opinion that his insanity was caused by an abnormal growth on the inside of his skull, making an unnatural pressure on the brain. The operation is said to have been successful.

A yellow dog, the property of a Chinaman, has been trying to die all over town this afternoon. The unfortunate animal evidently got hold of something to eat that had strychnine on it. His owner fed him a setting of eggs, and it may be that they saved his life, for at 1 o'clock when the Chinaman was doctoring him he was having terrible convulsions that indicated there was a rumpus going on inside of him that must have made him feel like a sheep-herder drunk on a mixture of tobacco-juice, aqua fortis and embalming fluid. He attracted quite a crowd of idle people, who were apparently moved only by curiosity or a desire to note the toxic effects of the drug instead of pleasure at his sufferings. Even as we write this we learn that the dog is dead, someone having come to the assistance of the poison with an ax.

Mrs. Briggs' millinery parlors were crowded this afternoon with ladies who had gathered to see the very latest in feminine head gear, and when one after another blonde, brown and brunette placed those handsome creations on top of the still handsomer heads, there were visions of loveliness that would make an anchorite let go his anchor in the sea matrimonial. There were dreams in blue, poems in brown, visions in green, and idyls in purple, each upborne in turn by the prettiest women in Oregon, and therefore in the world. There will be another crowd this evening when the electric lights are turned on, and then, indeed, art and beauty meet. Just peep in the windows this evening and see if the old man isn't right.

A feature of the Spokane fruit fair which will prove both interesting and instructive to a great many farmers will be that of the daily lectures on subjects of interest. The large basement of the Auditorium building, adjoining the fruit fair building, has been secured for that purpose. Robert Graham, of the Armour Packing Company, will deliver a couple of lectures, one on "How to Pack and Ship Fruit," and the other on "What Fruit to Select for the Eastern Market." Mr. Graham for years has been with the Armour company, and is one of the best informed men on that subject in America. Prof. Leckenby, who will have in charge the Northern Pacific exhibit, will speak to the farmers on what grasses are best adapted to arid lands. Mr. Leckenby has just come from Kern county, Cal., where he has been engaging in experiments along this line. Professors from the Pullman college and university of Idaho will also be among the lecturers. Through the courtesy of Congressman Jones several thousand government bulletins along the line of the lectures will be secured and given to those attending, thus making the whole a decided feature for the fair.

Ten Dollars a Week for Eight.

It does not seem possible that the table for eight people can be provided for $10 a week. But Mrs. Rorer, the most famous cook in America, says it can be done. She has tried it and knows. She proves her case in The Ladies' Home Journal for October. She gives twenty-one menus covering a week's meals, and gives full, practical directions by which any woman can make as attractive meals as Mrs. Rorer explains, for this small sum of $10.

DIED.

In the city, Thursday, September 30th, Wilson H. L. Brooks, aged 26 years.

Deceased was the son of Henry Brooks of Sellwood, this state, and a nephew of Mr. S. L. Brooks of this city, at whose house he died. He was born and grew to manhood at Chehalis, Washington, and was an exceptionally bright young man. He came here for his health about the middle of June, but was then so far gone with consumption that his death was only a question of months. He bore up bravely and uncomplainingly to the last, surrounded by every comfort that loving hearts and abundant means could furnish, and shortly before noon today passed quietly to the other side. His father was at once notified, and will arrive tonight.

The funeral will take place from Mr. S. L. Brooks' residence tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Taxpayers' Attention.

This is my last and final call to you, as the county court has issued an imperative order.

By virtue of a warrant to me directed, issued by the clerk of the county court of the state of Oregon for the county of Wasco, commanding me to collect the delinquent, county, state and other taxes, I will, on the 1st day of October, 1897, without further notice, levy upon and sell all property upon which taxes remain unpaid.
