

PERSONAL MENTION.

Hugh Morehead of Dufur is attending the fair. William Cederson is up from Portland on business. Hon. W. R. Ellis, wife and son are in the city today. Dr. Sutherland went down to Portland this morning to remain a few days. Mr. Joseph Cooper of Douglas county is in the city today visiting friends. Mrs. A. K. Dufur and Mrs. H. S. Turner of Dufur are at the Umatilla today. Ex-Governor Moody came down from Huntington yesterday, and is visiting in the city. Dr. Logan went to Portland this morning to see Col. Sianott and attend to other business. Edward Clanton is down from Celilo today. He reports the run of salmon about over for this season. Mrs. G. C. Blakeley and Miss Rose Michell will leave tonight for Baker City to attend the meeting of the Press Association at that place. Miss Rose goes as the representative for THE CHRONICLE. Mr. Frank Fulton of Sherman county came up from Portland last night. He states that Mrs. Fulton, who had a very severe operation performed some time ago in St. Vincent's hospital at that place, is getting along as well as can be expected.

MARRIED.

At the Methodist parsonage in this city, Monday, Oct. 11th, by Rev. J. H. Wood, Mr. S. Richardson and Miss E. B. Hyre. The groom is a resident of Douglas county, Wash., while the home of the bride was near The Dalles.

Found Her Husband.

Mrs. E. M. Ayres, of Eugene, came to Walla Walla a few days ago to meet her husband, who had written to her to come here as he had secured employment. Mrs. Ayres was surprised on her arrival to find no one to welcome her, and as the days went by and she found no trace of her husband she became alarmed and informed the police of her trouble. Mrs. Ayres was almost distracted until today, when the mystery was cleared up. The woman made a mistake about the place, and instead of her husband writing from Walla Walla he wrote from Wallula, where he has been working for a Mr. Morgan. Mrs. Ayres left today with her little child for Wallula, greatly relieved that her troubles had been so quickly dispelled.

Baptist Convention.

The North Pacific Coast Baptist Convention covered this morning at 10 o'clock in the Calvary Baptist church in this city. A number of delegates are already in attendance, and many more are expected on the boat and trains this evening. The convention will hold over Sunday.

Among the delegates in attendance are: J. W. Osborne of Independence; Hon. A. F. Snelling and daughter, North Yakima; Elder Pewtherer, Balston, Southern Oregon; Elder Oliver, McMinnville; Deacon S. K. Crowley and wife; Prof. LeMasters, Monmouth State Normal School; Mr. N. Fulkerson, Elder Freidenburgh, Moro; Elder Jaeroux, Cedar Valley; Elder W. H. Shearman and wife, Monmouth.

A few weeks ago the editor was taken with a very severe cold that caused him to be in a most miserable condition. It was undoubtedly a bad case of la grippe and recognizing it as dangerous he took immediate steps to bring about a speedy cure. From the advertisement of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the many good recommendations included therein, we concluded to make a first trial of the medicine. To say that it was satisfactory in its results, is putting it very mildly, indeed. It acted like magic and the result was a speedy and permanent cure. We have no hesitancy in recommending this excellent Cough Remedy to anyone afflicted with a cough or cold in any form.—The Banner of Liberty, Libertytown, Maryland. Just as Good as Scott's and we sell it much cheaper," is a statement sometimes made by the druggist when Scott's Emulsion is called for. This shows that the druggists themselves regard of Cod-Liver Oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda as the standard, and the purchaser who desires to procure the "standard" because he knows it has been of untold benefit, should not for one instant think of taking the risk of using some untried preparation. The substitution of something said to be "just as good" for a standard preparation twenty-five years on the market, should not be permitted by the intelligent purchaser.

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are on the wrapper and $1.00, all druggists. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

A Ghastly Find.

J. P. Sullivan, who has spent many years upon the mountain ranges of this county, came into town early Sunday morning from Big Butter creek and reports having found the skeleton of a human being last Friday, not more than 300 yards from the ranch of James Nelson, and only about five feet from the road, says the Pendleton Tribune. The skeleton appeared in full sight as he rode along the road, and this is the strangest part because every foot of that country has been covered and recovered. Mr. Sullivan himself has been over the road many times, and as he is not accustomed to traveling with his eyes closed, he is still wondering how those bones got to the place in which they were found. Sullivan will return to Butter creek in a few days and has promised to pick up the skull and thigh bones, which are the only ones that will stand being moved, and bring them in to Dr. Smith who is anxious to make an examination of them. Mr. Sullivan is sure that they are the bones of some white person.
