

Cutaway Frock Suits.

A Cutaway Suit should be a dressy Suit; if it isn't, the maker has missed the mark altogether (a good many makers do). Our perfect fitting cutaways are as stylish as they are good. They are made of fine Clay worsteds, soft finished Diagonals, durable Cheviots and Cassimeres—Hart, Schaffner & Marx' make—you know the label—"H. S. & M." It means fine workmanship and every suit warranted. We have other styles, of course—sack suits, Prince Alberts, etc.

Cole's Air Tight and Hot Blast

HEATERS

ARE THE BEST

- B They heat a room in five minutes.
- E They save enough fuel the first year to pay for the stove.
- C 4 cents a day is the average cost of heating a large room with our stoves.
- A They burn anything and everything combustible.
- U A cord of wood equals a ton of hard coal in any of our wood heaters.
- S It is only necessary to remove ashes once in six weeks from our wood stoves.
- E They are safe and have a catch to hold the cover while putting in fuel.
- E You have a fire every morning.
- E Our hot blast draft furnishes a hot air feed, not cold air, and saves fuel.
- E They are easily moved and set up.
- E Our wood stoves are made with either sheet iron or cast iron tops in all sizes, for all purposes.
- E They are jointless the connections being so made that the greater expansion of the lining don't affect the body.
- E There are no bolts exposed to the fire to burn off or draw or open up a joint.
- E Our coal stove will burn slack and makes a ton of soft coal equal to a ton of hard coal.

BEWARE of infringers and inferior imitations, they never equal the original and cost as much.

ONLY A MORPHINE FIEND.

But Lottie Wilcox Was Once a Happy Wife.

The police arrested a woman named Lottie Wilcox, Thursday, on a charge of vagrancy and today she had a trial and was sentenced to the full extent of the law, says the Walla Walla Statesman.

Lottie Wilcox is yet a young woman, being about thirty years of age, but the extremes of sadness, sorrow, degradation and shame have been crowded into that short period. It was only a few years ago that she was the happy wife of a telegraph operator on the Southern Pacific railroad. Her health failed and the family physician was called in, who battled with the disease. To ease the pain he prescribed morphine, unknown to the patient or her husband. The sick woman soon found that a certain prescription the physician had given her, was absolutely necessary to deaden the pain with which she was distressed, and it was only after the habit had become fastened, that she and her husband awoke to the awful truth.

Under threat of death at the hands of the irate husband, the physician agreed to pay all expenses of the wife at a Keeley institute in Portland. She went to that institution and was within a month or two of being discharged as cured, when the news came that her husband had eloped with another woman. About the same time the doctor stopped paying for her treatment.

Alone in the world, the woman of misfortune abandoned all hope, and turned to her old habit of morphine, only to sink to lower depths. She is now a wreck, and cries constantly for morphine, making the jail hideous by her screams. "She is only a morphine fiend."

Pointed Shoes Out of Style. Pointed shoes are decidedly out of style. It is a wonder that women allowed the fashion for even so short a time. They were ugly! They looked well enough when just the point tipped out under the skirt, but said point was always creasing and turning up. The very boxy toes now offered are not much better, and it is well to rush to the natural round toe whenever the fashion is sufficiently elastic to allow a choice. For summer outing the genuine gymnasium shoe, in soft leather, laced well down to the toes, without heel, and with ribbed rubber sole, is being called for more than ever before. Such a shoe meets all wear except the requirements of swimming. It is the best shoe for the wheel and for walking.—Chicago Chronicle.

Pineapple Cake. One cupful of sugar, one-half cupful butter, whites of three eggs, one-half cupful of new milk, two cupfuls of flour, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, the butter and sugar, add the milk, then the flour and baking powder sifted twice, lastly the whites of eggs beaten to a froth. Bake in layers and spread between each layer grated pineapple sweetened to taste and mixed with the white of an egg which has been previously beaten to a froth.—Ladies' World.

deal of interest is manifested by the people of Walla Walla. It states further that the track is in perfect shape and the weather is very favorable, and under such conditions it would be hard for the fair to be a failure. The tickets for "Sam'l of Posen," which is to be given at the Vogt next Monday night, are selling fast, and in order to get good seats for this play, "which will undoubtedly prove to be one of the best that has ever been in The Dalles, you should purchase your tickets immediately. They are on sale at the Snipes-Kinersly drugstore. Since the rain has set in our people are beginning to feel the want of stone pavements or some other contrivance on the principal streets to keep down the mud, which is continually covering the crosswalks and making it next to impossible for ladies to travel around town. Besides, when it is this bad at present, what will it be before the winter is over? Smaller towns than this can afford good streets, why should we not be able to do the same? So many horses have been affected by what is commonly known as pink-eye in Sherman county, that O. P. Hulse, who is an expert on such cases, has given the matter some consideration. He thinks the disease is not pink-eye, but is caused from overfeeding. The hay this fall contains about twice as much wheat as usual, hence overfeeding is easily done. Hot and dusty drives with irregular watering, has much to do with bringing on the disease. The grand jury at Pendleton Thursday afternoon exploded a bomb that has been in preparation for some time, and has been awaited with more or less anxiety. Frank X. Schempp, a saloon-keeper in Pendleton, and Thomas J. Means, formerly city marshal, were indicted for gambling. Poker caused the trouble in each instance. Means is indicted for playing the game himself, and Schempp for allowing gambling on his premises. William Wells and John Estes, of Athena, were also indicted. More indictments for the same offense are expected tomorrow. Next Monday, October 25th, Miss Lottie Tiltonson of St. Paul, Minn., will give a very fine entertainment in the Methodist church. She comes well recommended as a teacher of elocution and Delsarte movements. But few can equal her recitations, and her ability to teach the art equals that which she possesses as an artist. Her lecture on the Delsarte exercises is very instructive and enjoyable. The nominal admission of 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children will be charged. The public is invited to attend, and all are assured that they will have an intellectual treat and get more than the worth of their money. Music will be furnished by the best talent in the city. At about 12:30 yesterday, John W. Backus, a well-known resident of Portland, killed himself by jumping from the sixth story of the Worcester building on to the stone pavement sixty feet below. It was evidently a determined attempt to end his life, and it proved successful. There were no outward evidences of the terrible fall he had sustained, not a blood stain or scar on his body, but when the morgue attaches arrived to take charge of the remains it was found that nearly every bone in his body was broken. At a late hour that afternoon Coroner Koehler, in looking over a package of papers that Backus had in his pocket at the time of the tragedy, found a letter addressed to his wife which confirmed the theory that he committed suicide. It was a long communication and referred principally to his personal affairs, particularly to his life insurance. It was first dated October 11, and a postscript was added October 22. This indicates that for some time Backus had been contemplating suicide. The letter which was written in German, concluded with the words, "Good bye, loving wife, for the last time."

THE CHURCHES.

Elder Wilbur will deliver another of his interesting and instructive sermons at the Calvary Baptist church tonight, and will also occupy the pulpit tomorrow. An invitation is extended to all to attend.

The Congregational church, corner of Court and Fifth streets—At 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. worship, and a sermon by Rev. J. H. Hershner of Hood River. Sunday school immediately after the morning service. Meeting of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. Topic, Confessing Christ before men; John xii:35-43; Rom x:8-11. All persons not worshipping elsewhere are cordially invited.

Circles Entertain.

The Harvest Festival given by the Circle at Fraternity hall last night was a success, financially and socially. The hall was well filled, and everyone present seemed to enjoy the program. The piano duet by Madge Varney and Loto Kelsay was well received. Walter Reavis recited, and the male quartet gave a number in the good style usual with Prof. Landers, Dr. Lannerberg, Dr. Eshelman and Mr. Sydney Young as vocalists. Miss Neva Dawson recited Eugene Fields' "Gingham Dog and Calico Cat," and Miss May Cushing rendered a solo in costume, "Darby and Joan," which received an encore and was responded to with a song in Negro dialect, and then came luncheon, which consisted of coffee, doughnuts and pumpkin pie. The room was decorated with autumn leaves and vines and the fruits and vegetables found at this season. Even the festive jack o' lanterns were in evidence from roof and hall. The evening finished with an hour's dancing.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Random Observations and Local Events of Lesser Magnitude.

Two more carloads of cattle were shipped last night to the Union Meat Co. at Troutdale.

A number of persons will be baptized tomorrow morning after service at the Calvary Baptist church.

The steamer Dalles City will leave tomorrow morning at 6, making connections with the Regulator at the locks and transferring both freight and passengers.

The Seufert & Condon Telephone Co. are at present erecting a handsome and commodious (?) workshop and storehouse on Third street, across from the Masonic building.

The funeral of the late N. B. Sinnott will take place at 2 o'clock tomorrow. The remains will be taken from the family residence to the Catholic church, where the services will be held. All friends of the family are invited to attend.

There will be no Lutheran service tomorrow, as Mr. Grey will officiate at the dedication of a Lutheran church at Gooseberry, near Heppner. Sunday school will be held at the regular time, under the direction of the superintendent, Dr. S. H. Frazier.

"Chip" Mulkey was arrested last night by order of Spokane authorities, for having pilfered a $40 overcoat, and is at present in the bastille awaiting the arrival of the authorities from that place. As Marshal Lauter is out of town on business today, further particulars cannot be obtained.

The Dalles Public Library is now a permanent organization, a meeting being held last night and the following officers elected: President, Mrs. A. R. Thompson; secretary, Mrs. F. Houghton; treasurer, Mrs. Chas. Bilton. Various committees were appointed, and the Dalles can soon boast of a first-class library.

Mr. Frank Clarke this morning opened his large and finely-finished drugstore, next door to the postoffice, and it is one of which we may feel proud. It is nicely arranged, has beautiful oak fixtures, and Mr. Clarke intends in a short time to have a complete stock of drugs, so that his establishment will be second to none in the city.

The workmen who are preparing the ground over which the new railroad bridge across Mill creek is to be built, have turned the creek into the new channel and made other changes which alter the appearances of things in that vicinity considerably. In a short time everything will be in readiness to begin putting the timbers in place.

The Walla Walla Statesman informs us that the races at that place are unusually fine this year, and that a great
