THE

NEW YORK WORLD

THREE-A-WEEK EDITION.

18 Pages a Week. 156 Papers a Year

It stands first among "weekly" papers in size, frequency of publication, freshness, variety and reliability of contents. It is practically a daily at the low price of a weekly; and its vast list of subscribers, extending to every state and territory of the Union and foreign countries, will vouch for the accuracy and fairness of its news columns.

It is splendidly illustrated, and among its special features are a fine humor page, exhaustive market reports, all the latest fashions for women and a long series of stories by the greatest living American and English authors.

Conan Doyle, Jerome K. Jerome, Stanley Weyman, Mary E. Wilkins, Anthony Hope, Bret Harte, Brander Matthews, etc.

We offer this unequalled newspaper and The Dalles Twice-a-Week Chronicle together one year for $2.00. The regular price of the two papers is $3.00.

NOVEL WORK FOR WOMEN

Odd Occupations Followed by the Fair Sex in London.

There Are Dog Walkers and Portresses and Female Cabbies Are Looked for Next — New Fields of Labor.

It has been left to London to organize an institution that will give the new woman a decidedly new field.

The women's institute promises to be the most unique institution that ever was created for the gentler sex. Among the chief occupations which those who place themselves under its protecting wings will be trained in are those of dog walker and hotel portress.

The first of these callings is as novel as it is surprising. Certain families have dogs which need exercise. There are no grounds attached to the homes of these dog owners, and therefore the only way for the pets to enjoy fresh air is to be walked up and down the sidewalk, after the fashion of the dogs belonging to the flat dwellers in New York.

Now, the dog walker knows all about dogs. She calls at houses where she has learned canines are kept and presents a card, on which is printed in neat script: "Miss Dolly Periwinkle, Walker of Dogs."

To the person who receives the card the lady states that for so much per month she will guarantee to take a dog and trot him about the streets twice a day, each trip to consume 30 minutes. This gives the dog an outing of an hour a day, and as the charges rarely exceed three shillings a week it is believed the dog walker will find her occupation both profitable and pleasant, provided the dog permits it.

Some of the feminine dog walkers whom the women's institute has already placed have been bitten by ill-tempered charges. Such cases are all the more sorrowful, because the dog walker makes an agreement that if the dog bites her she will make no fuss about it, but accept the bite in the spirit in which it is offered.

The dog walker is required to give security for the animal she takes temporarily under her care, and this difficulty has been remedied by a bond given by the women's institute and indorsed by one or another of the patronesses, whose name is as good as gold. The pleasant-faced dog walkers have met with very good success, but those with apparently unkind dispositions have found their new profession very unprofitable.

Experience as hotel portresses on the part of the proteges of the women's institute have not as yet produced any great results. About the only class of women who can handle big trunks and matters of that sort never heard of the women's institute and were not particularly anxious to make its acquaintance. Where women have only found it necessary to carry hand baggage they have succeeded very well.

Other lines in which the proteges of the institute have begun to engage are billposting and paperhanging, in each of which they have achieved fairly excellent success.

It is the aim of the institute to furnish to women new fields to occupy. The members believe that woman should invade the domain of man to a far greater extent than heretofore, and that there are very many callings at which that type of woman with more strength than brains could make excellent livings, where now they are quite likely to lack the necessities of life.

The institute members claim that woman has proved to be a good farmer, and that being the case, there is no reason why she should not succeed in those lighter occupations of man in the cities which call for no greater degree of strength in manual labor than is exercised by the women who farm.

The next step that the institute proposes to take is to secure a number of cabs and have them driven by women. The drivers are to wear divided skirts and must in every instance be young, strong and rather inclined to worldly wisdom.—N. Y. Herald.
