- E They are safe and have a catch to hold the cover while putting in fuel.
- E You have a fire every morning.
- E Our hot blast draft furnishes a hot air feed, not cold air, and saves fuel.
- E They are easily moved and set up.
- E Our wood stoves are made with either sheet iron or cast iron tops in all sizes, for all purposes.
- E They are jointless the connections being so made that the greater expansion of the lining don't affect the body.
- E There are no bolts exposed to the fire to burn off or draw or open up a joint.
- E Our coal stove will burn slack and makes a ton of soft coal equal to a ton of hard coal.

BEWARE of infringers and inferior imitations, they never equal the original and cost as much.

MONDAY OCTOBER 25, 1897

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Random Observations and Local Events of Lesser Magnitude.

Commencing this evening the Good Templars will meet in Fraternity Hall, over Harris' store.

There will be a hot time in old town tonight when M. B. Curtis and his company give "Sam'l of Posen" at the Vogt.

Lost—Between the O. R. & N. ticket office and the Congregational church, a black ostrich feather collar. Finder will receive suitable reward by returning the same to above ticket office.

Tickets for "Sam'l of Posen" can be secured at the Snipes-Kinerly drug-store until 7 o'clock this evening, and after that they can be purchased at the entrance to the opera house.

The dance at the Baldwin Saturday night was quite an enjoyable event, a number of young people taking part in the same. Another will be held at the same place next Saturday night.

You will laugh if you hear Miss Lottie Tillotson in her comic recitations to-night at the Methodist church; but you would be hard-hearted were you not touched with the pathetic readings which the young lady gives so well.

Columbia Chapter No. 33, O. E. S., of this city, having extended an invitation to Golden Sheaf Chapter No. 46, of Waco, to visit them Tuesday evening, October 26th, it is hoped that all the members will be present. The Worthy Grand Matron is expected to be present.

The following is the bowling score at the Umatilla House alleys for the week ending last night: Monday, Maetz 54; Tuesday, M. T. Nolan 59; Wednesday, Maetz 56; Thursday, C. Lowe 51; Friday, F. W. Wilson 60; Saturday, E. Schanno 57; Sunday, Murphy 55.

A grain chute has been put in on the Washington side, and last night after the Dalles City returned from the locks, a large cargo was put aboard in this way. Since there is at present free ferryage, it is hardly possible that there will be much grain left on the Washington side.

A boy by the name of Greening escaped from the state reform school Saturday noon and late reports say he has not been captured. He was working at the barn on the school farm and deliberately ran away. His age was about 15 years, and he was considered as among the most reliable and faithful inmates of the institution.

The M. B. Curtis Co. of fourteen acting members arrived in the city last night and are at the Umatilla. In an interview with Mr. Curtis today, the reporter asked him if it was his intention to take a company to Alaska in the spring. Mr. Curtis said: "I intend sending a company of about twelve all-around actors, with everything necessary to fit out a first-class theater, to Dawson City in the spring, as soon as it is possible for them to get in, and will run a theater in whatever style the people of that place appreciate most, and I have every reason to believe that my venture will be successful."

Last Saturday Marshal Lauer and Sheriff Driver went down the river with the intention of tracing up the two men who robbed the Regulator. The boat that they stole was found on the Washington side, across from Crate's Point, and the officers tracked the two men from that place to a point below Lyle. Here the trail was lost, and the officers were forced to give up the search.

J. C. Harth, who at present is awaiting a hearing before this grand jury, has another charge to answer. He is wanted in Grant county for horse stealing, and Saturday a deputy sheriff from that place came down with the intention of taking him there. As he is under bonds in this county, the sheriff could not take him until after he had his hearing here, and was forced to return without him.

Last Wednesday at Watsburg Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Keiser's baby, aged 16 months, was badly poisoned by eating paint. The paint was on a shelf, where it had been for weeks, and how the child got to it is a mystery, but probably other children, who were playing about the house, removed the can and put it in reach of the baby. Mrs. Keiser was down town at the time. How much the baby ate is not known, but the result came near being fatal.

Death of Mrs. Isabel Miller.

Died, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. J. Kelly, in this city Monday, Oct. 25th, Mrs. Isabel Miller, aged 65 years.

Isabel Francis Miller was born in Louisville, Ken., in November, 1832, and afterward moved to Lexington, Ken., where she was married to John W. Gilbert, and where after many years of happy married life, he died. In 1883 she came to The Dalles, and the year following was married to Thos. W. Miller, when they moved to Portland. After the death of her husband about eight years ago, Mrs. Miller came to The Dalles, where she has since made her home with her daughter, Mrs. T. J. Kelly.

Mrs. Miller was a true Christian woman, and possessed a kindly, lovable disposition which shown in her countenance and made her beloved by all. She has been a constant sufferer for the past six years, but not a complaining one; thoughtful of others, and anxious to make them happy. She leaves four children, two sons and two daughters, only one of whom resides in The Dalles.

The funeral will take place from the residence of Mr. T. J. Kelly, on Fourth street, tomorrow at 2 p. m. Friends of the family are invited.

Funeral of Nicholas B. Sinnott.

The funeral of the late Nicholas B. Sinnott took place from the family residence, on Fourth street, yesterday. The remains were taken to the Catholic church, where Rev. Father Hogan of Portland delivered the funeral address.

After the services the procession wound slowly out to the Catholic cemetery, where all that was mortal of Colonel Sinnott was laid to rest. Never before in the history of The Dalles has such a large funeral been witnessed. The hearse had already reached the cemetery before all the carriages were across the Mill creek bridge, so that the procession was not less than a mile in length, the number of vehicles which followed the remains to the cemetery being by actual count over one hundred. Beside this, many were forced to walk since carriages could not be procured by all who desired to go.

The decorations and floral offerings were beautiful, and showed by their large number the high esteem in which the deceased was held by so many friends.

Among those who attended Mr. Sinnott's funeral were numerous friends from the surrounding country, as well as from Portland, Salem and other Oregon towns.

The pall bearers were selected from his old associates, they being Dr. Shackelford, J. P. McInerney, J. Doherty, Ex-Governor Moody, Mayor Nolan and Geo. Young of Bakeoven.

On account of Mr. Sinnott's long connection with the Umatilla House, he seemed to form a part of the same, and it almost seems impossible to picture the hotel without his genial presence. Those of his friends who are accustomed to frequent the hotel, as well as the traveling public, will certainly miss the kindly hospitality of the Colonel.

A Lamp Exploded.

Last Saturday evening when Arthur Clarke was closing up his jewelry store in the East End, he was attempting to put out a large hanging lamp which was suspended over the show case, when, as he went to lower the wick, the lamp broke loose from the ceiling and fell through the case, setting fire to the inside of the same. Mr. Clarke picked the lamp up and was just about to throw it out the door when it exploded, the flame shooting out of the top of the lamp and striking him on the side of the face, severely burning one of his ears and at the same time set fire to his clothes. Vic Marden was on the spot at the time and succeeded in quenching the burning clothing, after which the fire in the store was put out.

Arthur's ear is severely burned, and painful. Otherwise no very serious damage was done, as at the time the accident occurred he had all his valuables the case contained in the safe.

Change of Collection Day.

Realizing that the day set apart for general collections (the second of each month) does not allow many of our merchants sufficient time for the proper settlement of their books and checking up of accounts; also that the second of the month, in many instances, falls on Saturday or Sunday, thereby necessitating the postponement of collections till the following day, we, the undersigned, hereby agree that we will hereafter collect on the third of each month, and when the third of the month shall fall on Sunday or a holiday, we will collect on the following day:

About Cattle.

W. H. Daughtrey, buyer for the Pacific Meat Company, has been making large purchases in Eastern Oregon, lately. Mr. Dougherty has gone to Ellensburg, Wash., where he will ship a trainload of cattle driven to that city from the Okanogan country. On October 15 last Mr. Dougherty shipped out of Athena 415 head of cattle bought in Wallawa county and driven across the mountains.

There will be no shipments out of Pendleton until the tenth of next month. Then a herd of 250 head, under contract for delivery, will arrive from the Jahn Day country, and will make up a trainload shipment over the W. & C. R. R. to Tacoma. They were bought from J. W. Bakke, of Condon, Gillam county.

Mr. Dougherty was asked about the cattle situation, and said:

"I buy nothing but good beef cattle, which are now in better supply than a month ago. Then they were held for better prices, and are now more freely offered because holders do not want to winter them. Not many stock cattle are for sale, I suppose."

"Can you tell me about prices?" inquired a reporter.

"What I myself am paying is no secret. I have been buying strictly fat cattle at $2.75 per 100 for steers, and $2.25 for cows."
