OUR FOREIGN TRADE.

The September returns of our foreign commerce were remarkable. The total merchandise exports for the month were valued at $104,691,000, compared with $85,181,000 the same period last year. Our imports in September amounted to only $42,410,000 against $50,855,000 a year ago. These figures meant a favorable trade balance for the month of $62,281,000, or nearly double that of 1896, when the excess of merchandise exports amounted to $34,276,000. This is a phenomenal exhibit. How long it will continue, or whether it has reached its height or not, is impossible to determine. Our exports have been swelled by short crops elsewhere and the consequent foreign demand for our grain and other food products, the higher prices for wheat also being an important factor in the increase.

As the outward movement of grain is likely to continue heavy for some time to come and cotton must soon move outward more freely, the outlook is for continued large merchandise exports, especially as our exports of manufactures show no signs of diminution in spite of trade improvement here. Imports were of course much reduced by the anticipatory arrivals preceding the tariff. As these are worked off and as home trade improves, our purchases of foreign goods are likely to revive. Just at present, however, we are chiefly concerned regarding the effect of such an unusually unfavorable balance upon the foreign exchanges.

The situation warrants large gold imports, much larger than a year ago when Europe was practically a borrower in the United States. The Bank of England's stock of gold has, however, been so much reduced that efforts will undoubtedly be made to prevent any large flow in this direction; so that Europe will again be obliged to defer settlements for a period and be an even larger borrower of us than last year. The imports and exports of merchandise, silver and gold for the last three months were as follows:

Exports	$279,028,000	$252,188,000
Imports	155,028,000	199,630,000
Excess Expts.	$124,000,000	$52,549,000

NAVAL HEROES.

Anniversaries of the battle of Trafalgar and the launching of the frigate Constitution, one in England, the other in the great nation which sprang from her liberated colonies, recall deeds of valor on the seas which have had no equal for picturesque in the last few decades. Lord Nelson, who commanded at the battle of Trafalgar, ranked as an admiral in the same class as Wellington and Washington as generals. He was aggressive to the uttermost, but cautious when occasion required. His forte lay in the direction of a fleet.

The Constitution was an example of the career of a single ship. It is said that "Old Ironsides" was the foundation of the American navy. She was a solid rock of strength. The nerves of a patriotic American thrill with delight when he reads of the escape of the Constitution from the entire British squadron off Sandy Hook, the defeat of the crack British frigate Guerriere off Halifax and the conquest of the British frigate Java off the coast of Brazil.

Inventive genius of man has well nigh destroyed the romance of the naval engagement and the sea rover. The novelist and historian will find his occupation gone in a few years. The youth whose ambition it is to run away to sea and sail the Spanish main on a pirate bold will turn his attention to the construction of a flying machine, but the deeds of such ships as the Constitution will always stir him and prove an object lesson for bravery and patriotism.

The new currency law of Japan went into effect the first of October, and the consul of that country in New York has received advices from his government as follows: "In the week following October 1st the applications for gold currency in change for silver yen amounted to only $950,000, equal to about the same amount in United States dollars. The money market in the capital is quiet. An imperial decree has been issued prohibiting the circulation of silver yen after April, 1898. The adoption of the gold standard in Japan has caused an uneasiness to the general situation and shows that Japan refuses to be classed among those nations who seek an unstable currency system.

Food, undigested, is poison. Digested, it is life and strength. Millions of us suffer from indigestion, but we often don't know it. We think it is something else. Even doctors often mistake the symptoms.

Pale, thin people, who are overworked, who need strength, who seem in want of proper food, should take Shaker Digestive Cordial. It is astonishing what food will do, when properly digested.

It will make you strong, revive you, refresh you, sustain you, make you fat, restore your color, make muscle, brain fibre, courage, endurance, energy; increase your power to throw off disease and keep you healthy and happy. Indigestion does just the opposite, but indigestion can be cured and prevented with Shaker Digestive Cordial.

Stands at the Head.

Aug. J. Bogel, the leading druggist of Shreveport, La., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and it is the best seller I have." J. F. Campbell, merchant of Safford, Ariz., writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is all that is claimed for it; it never fails, and is a sure cure for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds. I cannot say enough for its merits." Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is not an experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and today stands at the head. It never disappoints. Free trial bottles at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store. 1

A few weeks ago the editor was taken with a very severe cold that caused him to be in a most miserable condition. It was undoubtedly a bad case of la grippe and recognizing it as dangerous he took immediate steps to bring about a speedy cure. From the advertisement of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the many good recommendations included therein, we concluded to make a first trial of the medicine. To say that it was satisfactory in its results, is putting it very mildly, indeed. It acted like magic and the result was a speedy and permanent cure. We have no hesitancy in recommending this excellent Cough Remedy to anyone afflicted with a cough or cold in any form.—The Banner of Liberty, Libertytown, Maryland. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by Blakeley & Houghton.
