UNDER WHICH FLAG.

Mr. John Hall of Portland has been appointed United States district attorney for Oregon. He was recommended for the position by the Oregon delegation, and the Oregonian says, by Mr. Mitchell. The Oregonian comments upon the appointment in a style so different from its usual handling of such subjects as to provoke, or at least suggest, comment thereon. It seems to realize that the Mitchell Republicans are in the ascendant in this state, and while deprecating that fact, lays the foundation of its editorial comment upon the basis of monetary principles, instead of Mr. Mitchell's connection with Oregon's politics. It goes back to the monetary standard, and bases its objections to the federal appointees, not on the ground that they were recommended by Mr. Mitchell, but on the broader ground that they are not sound upon the money question, and incidentally attacks ex-Senator Mitchell, Mr. Hermann and Congressman Ellis because they have heretofore been friends of silver.

The Oregonian never has, and probably never will, admit that while the Oregon delegation were advocating the free coinage of silver, they were obeying the commands of the party in the state as given them in the state platforms. It has never admitted, and will probably never admit that the Oregon state platforms since 1890 have been free silver platforms, and that the delegation were in duty bound to obey the commands of the party or to resign. It has dodged this matter in a masterly manner in order to be in a position to attack ex-Senator Mitchell. It has pretended at all times since and during the last campaign that ex-Senator Mitchell's repeated public declarations that he stood firmly by the national platform of the party as promulgated by the St. Louis convention, were not sufficient; that Mitchell, having been a free silver advocate, could not possibly be an advocate of the principals laid down in the national platform. It has persistently asserted that the St. Louis platform was a gold standard platform, when the most violent construction of the language could not possibly be tortured into any such meaning.

It has declared itself dissatisfied with Mr. Mitchell's position, has made a platform of its own, upon which it demands he shall stand, and condemns him and all his friends for preferring to follow the St. Louis platform rather than the Oregonian platform. It pinned its faith to Corbett, and is sore at the result.

The Oregon legislature was held up largely through the influence of the Oregonian for the purpose of downing Mitchell, and Corbett was simply the shovel used for the purpose of drawing the chestnuts from the fire.

President McKinley has taken the only course open to him. He has heeded the suggestions of the delegation as it is, not as it may hereafter be, and has wisely appointed the men who fought the battles of the party; who stood by the St. Louis platform, and who dared to run counter to the Corbett-Oregonian Republicans, who built a platform of their own, and ignored that of the party.

Henry George, the great single-tax advocate is dead. In the heat and front of a great political battle, the leader of one of the factions, he passed away. History will deal kindly with Henry George, for he was honest in his convictions, and earnest in their advocacy. We do not believe in his theories, but we have always had that admiration for the man that is born of the knowledge that however visionary we may think his ideas, we know that behind them is an extraordinary intelligence and an honest conviction. George was a deep thinker, a logical reasoner, firm in his convictions and fearless in their expression. He was a typical American, and his life's work has left an impression on American politics and American literature that will last. He was a good man, and in many respects a great one, whose death is a national loss.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address:

Food, undigested, is poison. Digested, it is life and strength. Millions of us suffer from indigestion, but we often don't know it. We think it is something else. Even doctors often mistake the symptoms.

Pale, thin people, who are overworked, who need strength, who seem in want of proper food, should take Shaker Digestive Cordial. It is astonishing what food will do, when properly digested.

It will make you strong, revive you, refresh you, sustain you, make you fat, restore your color, make muscle, brain fibre, courage, endurance, energy; increase your power to throw off disease and keep you healthy and happy.

Indigestion does just the opposite, but indigestion can be cured and prevented with Shaker Digestive Cordial.

Sold by druggists. Trial bottle 10cts.

A few weeks ago the editor was taken with a very severe cold that caused him to be in a most miserable condition. It was undoubtedly a bad case of la grippe and recognizing it as dangerous he took immediate steps to bring about a speedy cure. From the advertisement of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the many good recommendations included therein, we concluded to make a first trial of the medicine. To say that it was satisfactory in its results, is putting it very mildly, indeed. It acted like magic and the result was a speedy and permanent cure. We have no hesitancy in recommending this excellent Cough Remedy to anyone afflicted with a cough or cold in any form.—The Banner of Liberty, Libertytown, Maryland. Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c and $1.00 per bottle at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.

Croup Quickly Cured.

MOUNTAIN GLEN, Ark.—Our children were suffering with croup when we received a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It afforded almost instant relief.—F. A. Thornton. This celebrated remedy is for sale by Blakeley & Houghton.
