SPECTACLE AT WESTMINSTER.

House of Lords During the Hearing of an Appeal.

The house of lords presents a very quaint appearance during the hearing of the important trade union appeal, Allen vs. Food, in which for the first time in 17 years the judges of the high court have been summoned to give their opinion and advice.

At the conclusion of the arguments their lordships will be invited to express their opinion upon the points submitted to them, but they have no effective order or voice in the matter. The judges summoned to attend are supreme within its own domain, it must be something of a trial to play second fiddle, or, rather, to play no fiddle at all, but merely to be called in to say whether the strings are in tune.

How to Serve Potatoes.

Old potatoes boiled whole, peeled and covered with a sauce made by cooking together half a pint of milk, a table-spoonful of butter and one of flour, are better thus prepared than when served in any other fashion.

Thoughtful.

"Didn't she seem at all affected when you told her how her refusal had wrecked your hopes?"

"No."

"Not even when you told her that you had become desperate and were going on an expedition to the north pole?"

"Not a bit."

"Didn't she offer you any little parting tokens; any little memento of the past?"

"Yes. She did that. She said that if I wanted her to she'd work my monogram on a pair of ear-muffs."—Washington Star.

Stands at the Head.

Aug. J. Bogel, the leading druggist of Shreveport, La., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and it is the best seller I have." J. F. Campbell, merchant of Safford, Ariz., writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is all that is claimed for it; it never fails, and is a sure cure for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds. I cannot say enough for its merits." Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is not an experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and today stands at the head. It never disappoints. Free trial bottles at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.

"The worst cold I ever had in my life was cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes W. H. Norton, of Sutter Creek, Cal. "This cold left me with a cough and I was expectorating all the time. The remedy cured me and I want all my friends when troubled with a cough or cold to use it, for it will do them good. Sold by Blakeley & Houghton."
