flowers. It was in charge of Miss Alma Shanno and Miss Lizzie Lauer. Everything here was made of paper, and nearly all was the handiwork of the young ladies who are in charge of it, who have been engaged since sometime in June in manufacturing the thousand beautiful things in it. There were lamp shades, the very daintiest in shape and tints, picture frames, glove and handkerchief boxes, mats for vases etc., artificial flowers, among which were some of the most beautiful pink and white roses we have ever seen, St. Joseph's lilies, poppies and others that had the queen of Sheba had them when she undertook to puzzle Solomon, that learned man would have certainly failed to get any assistance from the bees, and the queen would have carried her point, for between nature and art the lines of demarcation had been erased.

The next booth was in yellow and rose, presided over by Miss Grace Lauer, who dispensed candy and sweets and of course gathered around her the young folks.

Occupying a couple of rods along the left wall was a throwing arrangement in charge of Carl Gottfried. A stuffed figure, labeled "Aunt Sally," wore a calico dress and a clay pipe, which it was Carl's duty to see she kept in her mouth (that is the pipe) while the boys threw at it.

The last booth, in making the circuit of the hall, was in pink and green. This was the refreshment room, where, besides providing for the immediate wants of the hungry, pies, cakes, and nearly everything pertaining to a Thanksgiving dinner, could be purchased.

Near the door to the left is a voting booth in care of Miss Minnie Sandrock, where the most popular railroad man is being elected. The votes last night were as follows: Wm. Maher, 15; J. Gallagher, 7; M. Rice, 11; J. Egan, 30; Dod Harris, 2; G. Ferguson, 9; W. A. Coman, 5; Bennet, 5; Frank Jobson, 2. The prize is a handsome lantern.

Next and last is the poll for the most popular lodge, Mrs. Blakeley acting as "the judge." The prize here is a beautiful silk flag. The vote last night was as follows: A. O. U. W., 11; D. of H., 8; Elks, 23; Foresters, 3; Artisans, 2; Sons of Rest, 25; Masons, 1; Eastern Star 2; K. of P., 6; Co. G, none, but will be heard from tonight.

The program last night was well rendered, it being by pupils of St. Mary's school, one piece played by the St. Mary's orchestra being exceptionally fine.

Last night's winners were: Hugh Farmer, album; George Dufur, silver water pitcher; Mr. Herrick, lamp.

The program for tonight is music by Birgfeld's orchestra, and dancing, the latter to begin at 9 o'clock.

Joe Keir's Orphan Boy on Babies.

There is three kinds of babies. Babies that ain't borned yet, babies that is borned and babies that never o't to bin borned, and doll babies; but cats' babies is kittins and dog's babies is pups, but a cow's baby is a calf, and so forth.

Babies is bawled and baid. Good babies is the kind you read about. They are mostly dead, or else they belong to other fokes, and not to you.

A baby is a small pece of breathing skin, which is like a newspaper—read awl over (goak). Some fokes use them for cloaks, because a baby's insides is awl full of yells, and when he goes off it is nile and most parents knows it is time for them to get up. Some babies was invented by Mr. Edison and some by other men. Babies is divided into 2 kinds—boys and the kind that never o't to bin borned—girls. But twins and triplers is the other kind, which comes in grapes. They come too hi for most fambles. But I think its 2 bad about my ant mary, pa ses God won't never let her have no twins nor triplers, nor anything 'cause he's down on old mades. But a kitten can lick its own mother.

Babies ain't got no teeth; but they want to swaller than can sets and everything, the littal suckers! But there is too much babies in the world, anyho. If docturs would only mind there can bients and cure sick fokes more and not go round for so much new babies awl the time, the world wouldnt have haf so much trubbel. They could cure awl the collick and m-e-zles on erth by not findin no more babies, and littal boys like me would get 'sum attentshon too.

If other babies growed in eggs like a hen's, you could eat 'em and they woodnt get borned to squall and waist milk on. But a duck's babies is called goolins. Some babies is very tuif. You can drop them on the floor and nook thare heds on the wall and slam them awl over the house and they won't kick none nor cry. They don't have no hooping colf nor nothing. They never wake up and thare stummicks don't ake cause they are tuif of sawdust, and they are doll babies. Our baby makes me tired, she crows 2 much, gess she's stuck on herself. But a mouse ain't a rat's baby any more than a bullet is a cannon ball's little boy.

Lams is baby sheeps, with wool whiskers on thare outsides to make clothes out of for storekeepers to stick you with. But if babies could only stail little they would be hapy, for when they git growd up and havt to hump for a livin they find out what a hard, coaled spere this world is, you bet.

Jay babies is borned on farms and has one nerse, which is its mother; but city babies is brot up on a bottin and havt to be interdused to its mother 2 or 5 times a yere, cause city mothers has got to be swell. But it ain't swell to watch out for kids when you git 'em.

Dopted babies is the kind that grows on doorteps. An' once they was a good man which never had no children, an' so he went to sea for 6 years and left his wife to home. So when he come thare agin thare was two littal boys and two littal girl babies waitin for him, which was a hapy surprize.

So no more now. GEORGIE.

WON'T PAY DUTY CALLS.

Revolt of English Women in India Against a Form of Social Bondage.

The English women living in India put a sensible scheme into execution recently. They revolted against the social bondage of "duty calls" and organized an anti-calling union. Several hundred women joined and pledged themselves to abide by the rules, which are very simple.

Instead of paying calls in person cards are sent and calls are returned by post. A personal call is allowable only when a special compliment is intended. At home days are held by the members of the union when convenient, notices of these being printed in the papers several days beforehand. The fact that men are excluded from these privileges has caused no end of amusement among the women and no less talk among the lords of creation, particularly the crusty bachelors of society, who declare that calling did keep some women quiet; they go so far as to make wagers on what mischief their women friends will be up to now that there is no necessity for them to pay duty calls.

There is no union of this kind in this city, but the women members of the Barnard club long ago gave up calling for the mere name of the thing. They agreed that their club should be a kind of a social clearing house, and the plan has worked admirably. An informal reception is held in the beautiful club rooms every Saturday afternoon, and a little chat with one's friends there relieves everybody of all calling obligations. This even extends to party calls among most of the members. One of the most prominent women in the club says that the plan not only saves the club members a great deal of valuable time, which can be put to more profitable use, but strengthens the moral character as well, since nothing weakens it so much as obligatory duty calling. The membership of this club, which includes men, too, has run away up into the hundreds and the waiting list is very long.

"Just as Good" as Scott's and we sell it much cheaper." is a statement sometimes made by the druggist when Scott's Emulsion is called for. This shows that the druggists themselves regard of Cod-Liver Oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda as the standard, and the purchaser who desires to procure the "standard" because he knows it has been of untold benefit, should not for one instant think of taking the risk of using some untried preparation. The substitution of something said to be "just as good" for a standard preparation twenty-five years on the market, should not be permitted by the intelligent purchaser.

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are on the wrapper and that the name is on the wrapper.
