The Degree of Honor held an interesting meeting Wednesday evening at which the following officers were duly elected for the ensuing year: O. of H. W., Miss Lizzie Simonson.

The man who stole W. H. Wilson's typewriter, sold the same to the Northern furniture store for $3.00. It must have been stolen about supper time Wednesday evening, as he sold it at 7 o'clock. From the time that he sold the machine until the robbery was reported to the authorities yesterday noon, he had a chance to get out on a number of trains, and there is little hope that he will be captured for his crime.

It is with reluctance that we find fault with the workings of our city government; but there is one thing certain, and that is that we have a number of defective crosswalks in our city, some of which are on the principal streets, and it would be a very commendable act to have them repaired before the winter sets in. Besides the danger of injury to persons who continually use those walks, the city is running a risk of a damage suit by such criminal carelessness, and they should, by all means, have the same repaired immediately, and probably in this way save much expense.

Receipts of the Catholic Fair.

The ladies who had charge of the different booths at the Catholic fair, after having paid all expenses, handed in the following report of the different amounts taken in:

Table No. 1, conducted by Mrs. Theodore Seufert and Mrs. Judd Fish—$1172.50.

Table No. 2, conducted by Mrs. Henry Herbring and Mrs. M. T. Nolan—$1108.25.

Paper booth, conducted by Miss Alma Schanno—$99.90.

Candy booth, conducted by Miss Katie Kelly and Miss Grace Lauer—$35.80.

Refreshment table, conducted by Mrs. A. Sandrock—$37.10.

Door receipts—$160.90.

Making a total of $2614.35, which is a very creditable showing and speaks well for the labor and interest which everyone of the ladies put into the fair.

The committee takes this means of expressing their appreciation and thanks to all the ladies, old and young, who so kindly assisted them; to the orchestra, and all whose talents and good will made the programs so acceptable, as well as to the general public for their generous patronage during the time that preparations were being made for the fair, and also when it was in progress.

KILLED ON THE PILE-DRIVER.

H. A. Baker Fell Five Feet and Was Killed Instantly.

At about 1 o'clock today a remarkable and fatal accident occurred to one of the men who worked on the O. R. & N. pile-driver in Mill creek basin.

The man, whose name was H. A. Baker, was standing on one of the cribs on which the pile-driver is placed, when the foreman told him to step aside, as they were going to move the machine ahead. In getting out of the way he stepped over the edge of the crib and fell a distance of about five feet, striking on his head and receiving injuries from which he died almost instantly. Dr. Logan was called, but when he arrived the man was beyond all aid.

His body was taken to Crandall & Burgett's undertaking parlors, where an inquest will be held. The strangest part of the matter was that he fell in the soft mud, and there seemed to be nothing on which he could have struck that would have injured him. In all probability he broke his neck when he struck the ground head foremost.

The deceased is a widower about 65 years old, and, so far as could be found out, has a daughter in Portland, who was immediately telegraphed for. He was a civil engineer, and was engaged in that position when the accident occurred.

A Pleasant Party.

The dancing party given by the Rathbone Sisters last night was a very enjoyable affair, there being just enough present to comfortably fill the floor. Someone turned the clock back an hour, but the time passed so pleasantly that no one noticed the change, and at 12 o'clock, so rapidly had the time flown, that the majority of the dancers thought the clock was right and that it could not be later than 11. When the last dance was announced everyone betrayed the fact that they were reluctant to have such an enjoyable affair come to an end.

Those present were: Mr and Mrs Seufert, Mr and Mrs Geiger, Mr and Mrs Kuick, Mr and Mrs Donnell, Mr and Mrs Groat, Mr and Mrs Kelsay, Prof and Mrs Gayn, Mr and Mrs Phillips, Mr and Mrs Varney, Judge and Mrs Bradshaw, Mr and Mrs Douthit, Mr and Mrs Garretson, Misses Mary Lay, Alice Lyle, Lena and Lillian Snell, Clara Davis, Elizabeth Schooling, Georgia Sampson, Clara Sampson, Cassie Cheese, Ethel Riddell, Annie Sandrock, Virginia Marden, and Misses Henderson and Ricks; Messrs L Heppner, J Hampshire, J Bonn, A McCully, R Gorman, C Clarke, F Sandrock, F Snipes, T Purdy, Max Vogt, Chas Burchdorf, Victor Sampson, H H Riddell, C Frank and Dr. Logan.
