WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

McEwen tonight at the Vogt.

Weather—tonight and Tuesday rain or snow—cooler.

Don't fail to see McEwen tonight. His entertainments are interesting, instructive, laughable and clean.

Today Chas. Fraley and Archie Pugh, both of Kingsley, made final proof of their homesteads in that vicinity.

The Snipes-Kinners Drug Co. have just received a fine line of Japanese ware suitable for Christmas presents.

Berry-spoons, sugar shells, cream ladles, jelly ladies, teaspoons and pie-knives in solid silver at Van Norden's.

Tuesday evening, November 7th, being the time of the annual election of The Dalles Commercial & Athletic Club, the rooms will be open only to members.

Chas. Fraley of Kingsley made this office a pleasant call this morning. He reports more snow in that section than in our vicinity, but says that it is not so muddy as it is nearer The Dalles.

Today while shopping Mrs. Zirka was so unfortunate as to lose her purse, containing about $3 and some receipts. Anyone finding it will please leave it at this office, where Mrs. Zirka will call for it.

Yesterday John Crate brought in a bunch of over twenty head of fine beef cattle, which averaged over eleven hundred pounds. They were purchased of L. Davenport and will be shipped to the Union Meat Co.

Yesterday there was a wreck up the road which delayed the Portland express over seven hours. All we could learn about the wreck was that it was supposed to have been on the Alto Hill, but we could not learn the particulars.

The following bowling scores were made at the Umatilla House alleys during the week ending last night: Chas. Frank, Mon. 66; Tues. 73; W. Birgfeld, Wed. 56; Bradshaw, Thurs. 57; C. Johnson, Fri. 72; Esterbenett, Sat. 59, Sun. 56.

The bowling scores at the club alleys for last week were as follows: Monday, West Minor 54; Tuesday, Victor Sampson 56; Wednesday, Mrs. T. J. Seufert 61; Thursday, M. A. Robinson 58; Friday, Sampson and Dufur 49; Saturday, Bettingen 46; Sunday, P. Stadelman 56.

Charley Frank, of the Butchers and Farmers Exchange, keeps on draft the celebrated Columbia Beer, acknowledged the best beer in town, at the usual price. Try it and be convinced. Also the finest brands of Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Sandwiches of all kinds on hand.

Mr. Briggs was in the city yesterday, having returned from Chehalis, where his little son is sick. For a time the physicians would not let Mr. Briggs leave Neddie's bedside. The little fellow has so far recovered, however, that they have bright hopes for the little sufferer.

The special car of Knowlton's Big Four Dramatic Co., which indulges in comedy specialty and melodrama, is in the yard today waiting to get through to Portland. They seem to realize the fact that theatre goers will be engaged by McEwen this week and consequently will not remain over.

Prof. McEwen will put a man to sleep at the opera house tonight, and after so doing he will place him in the window of Harry C. Liebe's jewelry store, where he will be left until tomorrow night when he will be taken to the opera house and woke up by the professor at his entertainment.

A challenge has been sent in from 8-Mile, asking our boys to play a game of football on Christmas day. At the time the challenge was issued we had no team to put in the field, but during the past few days one has been organized, and there is no doubt that our boys will give their opponents a merry game.

Yesterday was an exceptionally bad day under foot. Most of the snow which had fallen during the week had not been shoveled off the sidewalks, and with the sleet and rain which fell on it and froze Saturday night, it was almost impossible to walk. There is a clause among our city ordinances which orders everyone to keep their sidewalks clear of snow, and it should be strictly enforced.

Saturday Mrs. Mamie Gage and Horace A. Jackson were tried in Justice Filloon's court for burglary. They were charged with having stolen $120. The money was that of W. H. Allen, a foreman of the bridge gang, and at the time of the robbery the car was standing in the yard near the round house. As sufficient evidence could not be found, Jackson and Mrs. Gage were acquitted.

The Foresters of America elected the following officers at their meeting Friday night: Chief ranger, Jim Fisher; sub chief ranger, D. D. Wilder; treasurer, F. Pickins; financial secretary, W. Birgfeld; recording secretary, Douglas Dufur; senior woodward, L. O. Hawn; junior woodward, M. A. Cashing; senior beadle, Dell Wilder; junior beadle, M. P. Gilmore; physician, Dr. O. C. Hollister; trustee, Chas. Frasier.

Mr. J. B. Condon received a telegram this morning announcing the death of Miss Fannie, daughter of Prof. Thomas Condon of Eugene, her death having just occurred at Oakland, California. Miss Fannie, whose early childhood was spent in this city, will be remembered by many Dalles people, whose friendship she renewed while visiting her uncle's family here over a year ago. Much sympathy will be felt for the afflicted family in their great loss.

Judge Mays made a trip into the interior last week and returned last night. He says that on Monday of last week, while a bad storm was raging in this section, a Chinook wind blew in the Antelope and Bakeoven country, and thawed the snow. He reports the roads in a terrible condition, and says it is next to impossible to do anything at this time of the year to improve them, in spite of the fact that the county court is willing to spend time and money in so doing.

The incendiary who set fire to eight Portland lodging-houses the night of November 27th, and who has had but little difficulty in eluding the efforts of the police to find him, made his presence known again Saturday morning by nearly accomplishing the destruction of Columbia dock No. 2, on the Albina water front. The rogue's plans were laid with all the cleverness which characterized his former attempts, but the flames he started were discovered before they had spread too far, and were extinguished before a great deal of damage had been done.

ELKS' MEMORIAL SERVICE.

The Ceremonies Well Attended and Appropriate.

The Elks' memorial services, which were held in their hall yesterday afternoon, were well attended, and everyone seemed deeply impressed with the beautiful and appropriate services of the order. The decoration of the hall was in keeping with the lodge of sorrow, each canopy being draped with the colors of the order, purple and white, entwined with black crepe, while on the pedestal in front of the exalted ruler's station was a bunch of snowy white chrysanthemums. There were also palms and evergreens at the stations of the other officers and scattered about the room.

The services were opened by the exalted ruler, Judd Fish, and after the opening ode had been sung, the invocation was delivered by Rev. Jos. DeForest.

At the calling of the roll the names of George H. Clackling and Owen Williams were unanswered to, save by the tolling of the bell, reminding all present of the sad service they were about to enter upon.

The Congregational choir then sang the beautiful anthem "The Nations Who Are Saved," after which Hon. J. M. Long delivered the address, which was interesting and appropriate. He commented on the origin of the society, its success during the past, as well as its prospects for the future, and its object in holding memorial service. From beginning to end he clearly showed the spirit of benevolence, charity and brotherly love that exists in the order.

The choir then sang a very pathetic selection, "He Giveth His Beloved Sleep," the solo being sung by Mrs. B. S. Huntington.

Hon. A. A. Jayne was to have given the eulogy, but being called away suddenly, Hon. John Michell took his place and recited "Thanatopsis."

Dr. O. D. Doane rendered the solo "The Singing in God's Acre," after which all joined the members of the order in singing the Doxology, the services being closed with the benediction by Rev. DeForest.

Sterling Silver Novelties.

Pease & Mays will have on display tomorrow, Tuesday, a collection of silver novelties for holiday gifts that is worthy of your attention.

Christmas Ideas.

There is more than artistic merit in our box papers for Christmas. They are beautiful and desirable, and have quality which makes them welcome gifts, and style which mark them above everything on the market. You get a better value and your friend gets a better gift.
