A GREAT LOAD LIFTED

Spain Rejoices Over McKinley's Attitude.

THE PRESIDENT'S PRAISES SUNG

Liberal Program May Now Be Carried Out Unrestricted—More British Comment.

New York, Dec. 8.—A Madrid special to the World says:

The first news received in Madrid concerning President McKinley's message came in the shape of telegram to General Woodford from the state department. Mr. Woodford immediately sent it to the minister for the colonies, Senor Morel. Minister Morel was at a banquet which his friends had offered him as a compliment for his colonial policy. He translated the telegram aloud, and all present expressed much satisfaction with the president's declaration touching Spain and Cuba.

The friendliness of the message surpassed the most sanguine expectations of the friends of the government. There is loud praise for President McKinley in official and political circles for having, as they say, thus cleared the way for a fair trial of the new colonial policy in the West Indies which will naturally require time.

Meanwhile the liberal government can unhesitatingly dissolve the old cortes, call a general election for the first week in February, and convoke a new parliament on March 8.

The Spanish liberals are greatly pleased with the president's argument against recognition of the belligerency of the Cubans, and the implicit repudiation of recognition of belligerency, annexation of the island or extreme interference with the rights of Spain in Cuba. They are equally delighted with that part of the message recognizing how quickly and completely they have reversed the Canovas-Weyler policy, and the sincerity of their own home-rule measures.

Outside of official circles satisfaction is visible in financial circles, and also on the part of the general public. Among statesmen the most pleased is Castelar, who compares the conduct of McKinley with that of Grant, and says that he believes firmly that all the sane and respectable elements of the commonwealth will follow it.

More British Comment.

New York, Dec. 8.—A London special to the World says:

Lord Revelstoke, head of the banking house of Baring Bros., was asked today for his opinion on the effect of President McKinley's message. Lord Revelstoke replied:

"The currency suggestions have been decidedly disappointing. We expected something more tangible than a scheme contingent upon conditions which the president gives no indication of any intention to bring about."

"Do you consider the pacific tone of the message calculated to improve the market for American securities over here?" he was asked.

"Yes," replied Lord Revelstoke. "It

I was troubled for a long time with a sore wrist; something the doctors termed an open vein. It would break and the blood would flow in a stream from it, and I could find nothing that would heal it until I tried your Happy Thought Salve. A small quantity healed it up nicely. In fact it has been well and showed no signs of breaking for over three months, so I feel it has done perfect work.

is certainly a relief to find nothing aggressive in the message. I anticipate that business with the United States will be very brisk after the new year. They are having prosperous times over there, and confidence is being gradually restored."

Mr. Gordon, who succeeded the late Walter Burns in the directing of the London branch of J. P. Morgan & Co., said:

"Several stock exchange men who have been in here this morning tell me there is general disappointment at the wishywashy color of the president's currency paragraph, and that American stocks are weaker in sympathy with that feeling."

H. J. McNeil, secretary of the bimetallic league, said:

"Bimetallists regard the president's reference to the Wolcott mission with considerable satisfaction. We did not consider the reply of the British government as in any way closing negotiations finally. The fact that the Wolcott commission has not yet reported, together with the president's expressions, encourages the hope that the United States and the French government contemplate further action early."

UNION PACIFIC SALE NOT VALID.

Government Informed That the Committee Violated Its Trust.

New York, Dec. 8.—The following telegram has been sent to the attorney-general at Washington by Robinson & Leslie, a firm of London accountants, acting for a group of holders of Union Pacific reorganization committee certificates for Union Pacific stock:

"We notify the government that the committee's bid involves a departure from the terms of the trust under the agreement declared January 26, pursuant to which stockholders paid nearly $9,000,000. The committee was not permitted to issue more than $75,000,000 in bonds for the purchase of the Union Pacific and Kansas Pacific. Under the bid for the Union Pacific alone, that purchasing issue is practically exhausted, thus violating the trust to the stockholders.

"This substantial deviation from the conditions of the purchase invalidates the business. Therefore the government is notified to hold the moneys received or receivable as trustees under the committee's trust, and not as the property of the government."

This notice, with the accompanying document, has been lodged with the United States consul-general in London.

How to Prevent Pneumonia.

At this time of the year a cold is very easily contracted, and if left to run its course without the aid of some reliable cough medicine is liable to result in that dread disease, pneumonia. We know of no better remedy to cure a cough or cold than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. We have used it quite extensively and it has always given entire satisfaction—Olajah, Ind. Ter. Chief.

This is the only remedy that is known to be a certain preventive of pneumonia. Among the many thousands who have used it for colds and la grippe, we have not yet learned of a single case having resulted in pneumonia. Persons who have weak lungs or have reason to fear an attack of pneumonia, should keep the remedy at hand. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

German Official Report.

BERLIN, Dec. 8.—The official account of the collection of the indemnity from Hayti, accompanied by a salute of the German flag at Port au Prince on Monday last, owing to the alleged illegal arrest of Herr Lueders, says that after the ultimatum of Germany had been delivered to the Haytian government the German cruiser Stein cleared for action and took up a position near the Haytian war vessels. Diplomatic requests for delay in execution of the ultimatum was refused and an hour before the expiration of time stipulated the demands of Germany were conceded.

The Greatest Discovery Yet.

W. M. Repine, editor Tiskilwa, Ill., "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. Experimented with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home, as in it we have a certain and sure cure for coughs, whooping cough, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Trial bottles free at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.

Fusillade at Port au Prince.

PORT AU PRINCE, Dec. 8.—There was a lively fusillade here at 11 o'clock last night. No damage was done.

Nearing the End.

CANTON, Dec. 7.—At 3 o'clock Mrs. McKinley is still living, but seems to be weakening steadily. There has been no rally since the last collapse, which has now continued longer than any of the earlier ones. Mrs. Duncan, her daughter, says she is growing weaker every moment, and scarcely dares to hope that dawn will find the breath of life in her mother. The aged woman's rest continues to be unbroken, and the evidence of weakening is in her pulse and respiration.

Don't be persuaded into buying liniments without reputation or merit—Chamberlain's Pain Balm costs no more, and its merits have been proven by a test of many years. Such letters as the following, from L. G. Bagley, Hueneme, Cal., are constantly being received: "The best remedy for pain I have ever used is Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and I say so after having used it in my family for several years." It cures rheumatism lame back, sprains and swellings. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.
