The Greatest Discovery Yet. W. M. Repine, editor Tekilwa, Ill., "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. Experimented with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home, as in it we have a certain and sure cure for coughs, whooping cough, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Trial bottles free at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.

Tidal Wave on Clatsop Beach.

A special to the Astorian says of the recent tidal wave on Clatsop beach: "During the recent high tide Mr. and Mrs. Newman, M. J. Young, Mrs. Johanson and two children, Mrs. Babbidge and Virgil Noland were on the beach enjoying the grand and unusually high surf, and particularly one swell, which attracted their attention, when they were suddenly confronted with a wall of water which nearly engulfed them. The swell came higher and higher, and finally caught Mr. and Mrs. Newman and Mr. Young before they could escape, and rolled them over and over, and almost took them out to sea. Mrs. Johanson narrowly escaped by getting through the fence at the bathhouses, but was thoroughly soaked. Her two children had run on before, frightened by the appearance of the sea, but were caught in the grove at the Webb cottage, 1000 yards from the beach. They clamored on to a knoll and avoided rough treatment, though they received a ducking. The other grown people got off with a scare and a soaking. The water reached the Allen cottage on the shell road and the Estes cottage on the county road. All the high part of the beach is covered with driftwood, which knocked down the fence at the bathhouses."

SQUAW AS A LUMBER JACK.

Unique Position of "Spilke Shoe Mag" in Northern Wisconsin. One of the best log drivers and all-around lumber jacks in northern Wisconsin is a Chippewa Indian woman named Maggie Moon, better known in the woods and on the river as "Spilke Shoe Mag." She may now be seen every day running logs on the Nemadji river at Superior, and she has been seen at that same occupation every summer during the last five years, while in the winter season she has been employed as an ordinary lumber jack—to swing the ax, to skid logs, or to drive a tote linn.

Maggie is the wife of John Moon, a stalwart Chippewa Indian, whose occupation is also that of a lumber jack and log driver. Mr. Moon took a contract once to harvest some timber for the owner thereof, but he took the job at too low a price and was obliged to put his wife to work chopping and hauling in order to save a man's wages. Mrs. Moon seemed to take to the work as though she had been used to it all her life, and she made such a handy lumber jack that her husband could never see his way clear to dispense with her services. Three years ago John Moon went to work on the log drive and took his wife with him just to see if she could do the work, in case she had to. Mrs. Moon rigged herself out with a pair of bloomers, donned a slouch hat and a pair of spike shoes, and sallied forth with her lord and master to learn the log-driving business.

After experiencing all manner of hardships and disappointments, she finally mastered the business, and can now balance herself upon a floating log with the dexterity of an acrobat. The couple live during the driving season in an old log cabin on the bank of the Nemadji river, and in winter they make their abode in a small canvas tent, usually pitched a short distance from the mess camp.—N.
