Elks' Greeting.

To Those to Whom This Greeting May Come:
 Prof. McEwen has, during the week just past, given a series of hypnotic entertainments in The Dalles. His appearance has been the cause of large attendances, and those who witnessed his exhibitions express themselves as satisfied that Prof. McEwen is an acknowledged master in the art to which he has given much study and attention.

On last Saturday night Prof. McEwen, who is a member of the Salem lodge of Elks, was invited to attend the regular meeting of Cascade Lodge in The Dalles, and while there gave an informal entertainment before the members, which was surprising to a remarkable degree. His feats of legardemain and mind-reading interested and edified those present till all were willing to declare that as an artist he is surpassed by none. His entertainment was so remarkable that it was the consensus of opinion of the Elks present that a testimonial should be prepared and presented to Bro. McEwen expressing to him their pleasure and obligation for so kindly contributing to the enjoyment of the evening, and to that intent these words are written. In their acquaintance with Bro. McEwen the Elks of Cascade Lodge have found him a gentleman in every respect, honest in his statements and sincere in his devotion to what is undoubtedly a marvelous problem of science.

This statement is a spontaneous expression of the part of Cascade Lodge, and is done without Bro. McEwen's knowledge or consent. He has made a pleasant impression on those whom he has met, and the Elks do not believe they are hypnotized when they make this voluntary testimonial. Whenever Bro. McEwen returns to The Dalles he may be assured of a hearty reception by the Elks of this city.

By order of Cascade Lodge, B. P. O. E. Judd S. Fish, Exalted Ruler.
 Fred W. Wilson, Secretary.

The Greatest Discovery Yet.

W. M. Repine, editor Tiskilwa, Ill., "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. Experimented with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home, as in it we have a certain and sure cure for coughs, whooping cough, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Trial bottles free at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.

Did You Ever Think.

That a kind word put out at interest brings back an enormous percentage of love and appreciation?
 That though a loving thought may not seem to be appreciated, it has yet made you better and braver because of it?
 That the little acts of kindness and thoughtfulness day by day are really greater than one immense act of goodness once a year?
 That to be always polite to the people at home is not only more ladylike, but more refined than having "company manners"?

That to judge anybody by his personal appearance stamps you as not only ignorant but ill-bred?
 That to talk and talk and talk about yourself and your belongings is very tiresome for the people who listen?
 Detroit Free Press.

Rice Meringue Pudding.

Four tablespoonfuls rice, wash, add one quart of milk; let it stand to soak half an hour, then put on to boil. When it begins to boil, set back on the range and simmer two hours or until well cooked. Then drop in one at a time and stir well the yolks of four eggs, the grated rind and half the juice of one lemon, piece of butter about the size of a walnut, a little nutmeg or any preferred spice; sweeten to taste and add a pinch of salt. Put in the pudding dish, beat the whites of the eggs to a stiff froth, add two teaspoonfuls of powdered sugar, spread over the pudding and brown. Serve either cold or hot.—Ladies' World.

Brothers in Adversity.

"I discovered a gold mine," said the forty-niner.
 "I invented a torpedo boat," replied the genius.
 Then they shook hands like brothers and pooled their capital to buy a cheap dinner.—Detroit Free Press.
