ongs to the White Star line and makes daily trips on the lower river at present, he said: "We are going to put the Hattie Belle on the upper river to run between the Cascades and The Dalles, and the Ione will run on the lower river, connecting with it at the locks daily." This will give this line a daily boat which is badly needed.

Last evening the Royal Arch Masons held a meeting for the election of officers for the ensuing year, in the Masonic hall, with the following results: Chas. Hilton, H. P.; F. Gibbins, king; Dr. Siddall, scribe; Geo. A. Liebe, Treas.; Dr. Logan, Secy.; Geo. C. Blakeley, C. of H.; A. Larsen, P. S.; John M. Carden, R. A. C.; Ed. C. Phirman, G. M. 3d V.; W. E. Garretson, G. M. 2d V.; E. Shanno, G. M. 1st V.; W. S. Myers, sentinel. The installation of officers will take place the first Wednesday in January, and will be for members of the chapter only.

This morning Mr. Gardner, assisted by Sheriff Driver, took charge of the two Hawthorne children, Etta and Sula, and will take them to the Boys and Girls Aid Society tomorrow. The hearing of the case will be before Judge Bradshaw on the 29th inst, and there is no doubt that abundant evidence will be brought forward to prove that the children should be removed from the mothers charge. Their father is in the insane asylum, and one brother is now serving a term in the penitentiary for the murder of an Indian policeman on the Warm Springs reservation. They were living in a deplorable condition, and it is certainly a charitable act to remove the poor unfortunates to a more suitable place for human beings.

The John Day river, last week, came very near adding three more to its annual roll of victims. Alonzo and James McWillis, assisted by T. N. Fields, were crossing their sheep at the private ferry on their ranch, when the cable broke and the ferryboat was capsized, dumping its load of men and sheep into the middle of the river. Old Mr. Fields, although 76 years of age, was the first to reach land, and James soon followed him there, almost exhausted. Meanwhile, Alonzo, who has caught the broken cable and was trying to stay with the boat, in some manner became entangled with the rope in the midst of the bunch of sheep, which forced him under the water several times before he could extricate himself from the rope. Once free, by almost superhuman efforts he managed to surprise his watching relative by emerging from the angry waters a living man.

Notice.

HENRY SMITH'S CASE ON TRIAL.

He Endeavors to Recover $35,000 from Day Bros.

Judge Bennett of this place is at present trying the case of Henry Smith vs Day Bros., in Judge Bellinger's court in Portland.

The injuries sustained by Smith were received while he was engaged in a game of cards in the cabin of a steamer, tied up to the dock below the government works. A rock crashed through the roof of the cabin striking him on the head and rendering him unconscious. Smith claims he has been incapacitated for work since receiving the injury, and alleges that the accident was due to the carelessness of the men employed by the Days in discharging the blasts while a steamer was tied up in the vicinity. The defense is that the steamer had no business there at the time.

The case was first brought in the state court, but owing to the fact that some of the parties drawn into the issue are residents of other states, a writ of removal to the federal court was granted the defendants.

Judge Bennett is assisted in the case by Attorney F. W. Allen, while Attorneys Gerin, Boise, and Scott appear for the defendant. The damages which Smith is endeavoring to recover is $25,000.

Degree of Honor.

The Degree of Honor held an interesting session last night, and the hall was well filled with members. Two candidates were initiated and matters of importance discussed, after which a short program was rendered. Mrs. Stephens and Mrs. Young sang a duet entitled "Like the Lark." Mrs. Fillmore gave a humorous reading, and Mesdames Jayne and Groat sang a duet, "The Flight of the Swallows." After the program lodge closed and refreshments were served, and a good social time followed. Music, conversation, dancing and hypnotism were indulged in, the latter creating much amusement.
