ing warm, dry and beautiful. This had the good result of drying up the roads to a great extent, so that travel is much easier over them now than a week ago.

A crew of men are at work on Second street under the supervision of Marshal Lauer, and they are putting it in first-class shape. We only hope that the snow will stay away long enough for the workmen to finish this needed improvement.

The ladies wish to impress upon the minds of the children who take part in the entertainment Saturday, that the final practice will be held Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. Every child should be present dressed in costume, and carrying her doll.

Burglars entered the Spa at Astoria Monday night, forced open the cash drawer and secured $8. They also took several boxes of candy. The same burglars entered the Columbia shoe store and attempted to open a vault, but failed. They took several pairs of shoes. The police are working on a clue.

About noon snow began falling, and at the time of going to press it looked as if it might continue all night. On account of the muddy condition of the streets, it melts as soon as it falls; but if it turns a few degrees colder, we had better get our cutters in running order, as everything but Pague's forecast indicates a fall of snow.

Fred Burchdorf has completed one of the most beautiful things in the shape of a work-box we have ever had the pleasure to look upon. The outside is constructed solely of hard wood, beautifully inlaid with mother of pearl nicely polished, and is without doubt a wonderful piece of work. The friend whom he favors with this beautiful Christmas gift should certainly appreciate it highly.

Everything is exceptionally quiet around the stockyards the last few days.

No shipping of any importance is being done, and from indications the stock shipments from The Dalles for this year are about ended. Since early last spring, up to a short time ago, scarcely a day passed that more or less stock was not shipped from this place, and the question in the minds of many was where do they all come from.

Snow began to fall about 6 o'clock last evening, and continued falling lightly during the greater part of the night, so that by morning our city, and more especially the surrounding country, had a decidedly wintry appearance. About a half inch of snow remained on the ground during the day, and at the time of going to press it was snowing. At Dufur and other places of higher altitude there is over an inch of snow.

NEWS NOTES.
