The Cuban version of the battle fought at Yacta ford, on the Cauto river, December 14th last, has been received at New York through the mails by Captain Alfredo Rodriguez, a Cuban in urgent officer, who is invalided in that city. It tells of a crushing defeat inflicted npon the Spanish general, Pando.

At Havana yesterday it was announced from the palace that during the past ten days the insurgents have lost 303 men killed, and that in addition the Spanish troops have captured "seventeen prisoners and that sixty-nine srmed insurgents have surrendered. The troops, it is further announced, have captured ninety-five stands of firearms during this time. Among the killed, the state- made by a Boston newspaper that no ment continues, are three insurgent policemen are ever stationed on Boston leaders and three officers of the insur- common except on Sundays and holigent forces. Death of Mrs. Perry Morgan.

This morning about 7:30 o'clock Mrs. Alice Morgan, wife of Perry Morgan, died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Taylor, on Dry Hollow.

Mrs. Morgan has been ailing for some time, growing steadily worse since the death of her child in August of last year. She was 26 years of age, and has lived in The Dalles since her sixth year. Among those who knew her she was a great favorite, being of that sweet, gentle disposition calculated to make friends and to keep them.

Nothing definite has been decided as to the funeral, relatives being expected from the valley; but will probably be held on Saturday.

NOTICE.

Commencing Monday, December 20, the steamers of the Regulator Line will leave Portland at 6 o'clohk a. m., and The Dalles at 6:30 a. m.

Don't be persuaded into buying liniments without reputation or merit-Chamberlain's Pain Balm costs no more, and its merits have been proven by a test of many years. Such letters as the following, from L. G. Bagley, Hueneme, Cal., are constantly being received: "The best remedy for pain I have ever used is Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and I say so after having used it in my family for several years." It cores rheumatism lame back, sprains and swellings. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

What is

It is a strengthening food and tonic, remarkable in its flesh-forming properties. It contains Cod-100 Liver Oil emulsified or partially digested, combined with the wellknown and highly prized Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, so that their potency is materially increased.

What Will It Do?

It will arrest loss of flesh and restore to a normal condition the infant, the child and the adult. It will enrich the blood of the anemic: will stop the cough, heal the irritation of the throat and lungs, and cure incipient consumption. make this statement because the experience of twenty-five years has proven it in tens of thousands of Cases. INDIA SHAWLS.

Very Good Imitations Are Made in France.

Since the introduction of the Tibet goat into France the cashmere shawl has been imitated with such wonderful exactness that it is hard to detect the imitation from the original, says the Chautauquan. Experts say, however, that the genuine India shawl, can be detected from its having a less evenly woven web and also from its brighter colors. It is likewise said that the border of the real India cashmere shawl is invariably woven in small pieces, which are sewed together and the whole border is afterward sewed onto the center. It is a mistake to think that the shawls are manufactured in India in the form in which they are sold here. Generally the borders and centers come out separately and are put together in sizes and often in patterns to suit the cus-

A number of shawls sold as "real India" are actually manufactured in France. Persons familiar with both articles say that the original is softer than the imitation and that this softness arises from the way the thread is spun and partly also because the Tibet goat deteriorates when removed from its native hills.
