MRS. NOLAN DEAD.
She Passed Away Peacefully Christmas Morning.

Mrs. Margaret Nolan, widow of Richard Nolan, passed peacefully away at 6 o'clock Christmas morning. She came to The Dalles in 1851, making this place her home ever since, and must consequently be recognized as one of our early pioneers. She had been failing for some time, but did not seem to be suffering from any malady, and her death must be attributed principally to old age.

She leaves one son, Lawrence, to mourn her loss. She joined the Catholic church and has been a faithful member ever since.

Her funeral was conducted from the Catholic church Sunday and was attended by many friends and acquaintances of the deceased, who paid their last respects to a kind mother, a charitable friend and a respected neighbor.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Tonight
"Ticket of Leave Man."

Weather—Tonight rain; Tuesday occasional rain; Tuesday night cooler.

Two daring footpads were captured in Portland last night after an exciting chase.

During the holidays four pounds of candy for 25 cents at Jacobsen Book and Music Co.'s, Vogt block.

John Lindsay of Olympia arrived from Dawson City yesterday. He says there will be starvation there this winter.

Be up to date in whatever you do. Therefore, when you smoke try Founts' Prize Medal, the best cigar money can buy.

Thomas A. Davis, one of Portland's pioneer druggists, died at his home at 380 1/2 Morrison street, at 2:30 Saturday morning.

Last night twelve hobos were given lodging in the city jail by Nightwatchman Wiley, and discharged this morning with the understanding that they move on at once.

Passers-by on Second street have been attracted by the neat and cleanly manner in which the Prize Medal, Guarantee and Rose Queen cigars are being made by S. F. Fouts.

Fred Van Norden has the agency for hand-painted portrait buttons. Call and see his samples, they are elegantly finished and are guaranteed to be satisfactory in every regard.

The four boxes of cigars given at the Umatilla House alleys on Christmas day for the four highest scores, were won by John Bonn, William Birgfeld, Louis Comini, and Wm. Murphy.

Few persons realize the fact that two-thirds of the cigars manufactured are made in dirty Chinese pest holes and filthy tenement house factories. Protect yourself by smoking Fouts' cigars.

The scores at the club alleys for the week ending yesterday, were as follows: Monday, N J Sinnott 59; Tuesday, O. Birgfeld 52; Wednesday, N J Sinnott 60; Thursday, C Johnston 65; Friday, C Johnston 55; Saturday, Flemming 63; Sunday, Chas Frank 54.

The Oregonian announces the engagement of Miss Laura Knowles and Mr. Frank Somerville. Miss Knowles is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Knowles, and is widely known in Portland. Mr. Somerville is a son of Hon. John Somerville of Hay Creek, and has many friends in The Dalles.

Following were the high scores at the Umatilla House bowling alleys last week: Monday, W. Birgfeld 56; Tuesday, Sid Kelly 68; Wednesday, F. Fundt 55; Thursday, H. Zirka 63; Friday, Chas. Dell 52; Saturday, John Bonn 63; Sunday, J. Fleming 58.

Friday night the watchman's attention was called to some trouble in front of Frank's saloon, and when he arrived on the scene he found two lads of about 16 years of age, fighting for dear life. He arrested the two combatants and they were released on bail to appear before the city recorder today.

A pugilistic combat occurred Saturday night between a couple of bloods who seemed to have had too much Christmas. They were brought before Recorder Sinnott this morning and the one who started the row was fined $10, while the other, who it seems was rather roughly handled, and who did nothing more than defend himself to the best of his ability, was discharged.

The Excelsior Dramatic Company will give their last performance at Vogt opera house this evening, the play chosen for representation being the popular and stirring melodrama, "Ticket of Leave Man." The piece is staged under the supervision of P. J. Duggan, of Morocco's grand opera house, San Francisco, and we understand the company is seen to better advantage in it than any play in their repertoire.

John Duffey, an employe of the O. R. & N. at this place, got into an encounter with one of the waiters at the Columbia Hotel, named Story, last night, and today he is confined to his room with a bad cut in the back of his head, which he says Story inflicted with a hatchet. Dr. Hollister sewed up the gash and the patient is doing nicely. He seemed intent on having his assailant pushed to the full extent of the law, but as yet no arrest has been made.

On January 21st Joseph and Gus Bonn, two enterprising young business men of this city, will enter into a partnership with Peter Stadelman, the present proprietor of The Dalles Commission Co. Shelving is being put in the commission house today, which will be filled with a stock of groceries that will rank second to none in the city, either in the quantity or quality. As the Bonn brothers have established a reputation for being able, honest and reliable business men, it is a foregone conclusion that they will meet with their share of success in this venture.

Harry Martell's "South Before the War" drew one of the largest houses of any entertainment that has been in the city for a considerable time, and had it been given on any other occasion than Christmas Eve, there would not have been standing room. Many who would have gone on any other evening, did not care to leave their homes and families on the eve of Christmas to attend an entertainment. The musicians, singers and comedians were masters in their respective lines, while the contortionist was simply marvelous and did everything but tie himself into a knot.

The same old story of how a Chinaman got the worst of it in an encounter with a mischievous youth was repeated this afternoon. The encounter occurred on the club corner. Some trouble arose, and the Chinaman, in order to scare the lad, who was a stout chap of about 17, made a motion as if he would draw a knife, when he received a stinging blow on the nose, and the blood on the wall near by and sidewalk told too plainly how effectual it was. The lad made a hasty retreat down Front street, followed by the marshal and the injured Celestial, and according to latest reports, made good his escape.

The first four games of the tournament between the club men and the outside bowlers were played Saturday afternoon at the club, and resulted in a victory for the outsiders of thirty-six points. Much interest was taken by everyone, and while it was going on the club rooms were crowded with spectators, who were anxious to see the result of each game. Judge Bradshaw has the honor of making the highest average of any bowler who took part in the tournament, it being 41 1/2. Tonight four more games will be played on the club alleys, while the last eight games will be played on the Umatilla House alleys Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

A Serious Fall.

At about 3 o'clock yesterday morning James Lowery, an old man who chops wood for a living, was walking over the Mill creek trestle, when he fell off at a point where it was about thirty feet high and broke his hip bone, dislocating the joint. After falling he lay about three hours before he was discovered by one of the railroad boys who was passing that way. He was taken to the Umatilla House and Dr. Hollister called to attend to his injuries. He found his patient in a critical condition, as he is about 70 years old, and the shock and exposure proved almost fatal to him. As he has not sufficient money to pay his expenses, he was taken to the poor house today.

No one being on the spot at the time of the accident, little can be said about it more than that he was intoxicated and probably wandered aimlessly across the trestle to the place where he fell.
