On Saturday, New Year's day, a shooting match for beef, chickens and turkeys will be held on the beach. A. Y. Marsh will have charge of the shooting, which will commence at 10 o'clock. 29-3t

Daniel Barclay, who had his hearing before Justice Filloon yesterday charged with having hit John Duffey with a hammer, was bound over to appear before the next grand jury. His bonds were fixed at $200.

Yesterday evening Constable Hill brought in the Wickham children and at present they are held as county charges. Their case will be heard tomorrow and they will in all probability be sent to the Boy's and Girl's Aid Society.

Although we are not champions of the Chinese element in this city, still in behalf of humanity we must say that there are a number of boys and young men who are, in their own estimation, making heroes of themselves by beating Chinese; but in reality are nothing but brutes. Laying aside all opinions on the Chinese question, these men go about their business without annoying anyone, and consequently are the last people in the world who deserve maltreatment. Only the other day one of the most peaceable Chinamen in the city was severely beaten by a young bully, without the least reason more than to satisfy his brutal nature. Parents who know their boys do such things as this, and do not endeavor to put a stop to it, are without doubt worse than their offspring, and deserve punishment in proportion.

The firms of A. M. Williams & Co., Mays & Crowe and Pease & Mays wish to announce that they will collect and pay bills on Tuesday, Jan. 4th, owing to the fact that Monday, the 3d, comes after a holiday, and for that reason they will not be able to get their accounts straightened in time for this the regular collection day.

We have quite a number of the last issue of the New York Weekly Tribune, containing supplement entitled "Fifty Years Improvements in Farming." Any of our former friends who will call, can have a copy. Come early, as there is only a limited number. The supplement is a very interesting and instructive publication.

Harley Fern, infant son of Chas. and Amber Alden, died this morning at their home, on Sixth street. The babe was but seven weeks old last Saturday, but had been with them long enough to attach itself so firmly, not only to his parents, but to the members of the family of its grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joles, that the little child will be greatly missed.

Mr. W. T. Gardner, superintendent of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society, is in the city today. He came up to be present at the trial of the Hawthorne case, but as Mrs. Hawthorne, mother of the children who were sent below a few weeks ago, failed to appear, the case was dismissed in default. Mr. Gardner says a beautiful boy baby, 6 months old, was brought to the home yesterday, and he is very anxious to have some family adopt it and raise it as their own child. Anyone wanting the same should apply at once.

The "Pulse of New York."

"Built to Amuse," is the catch line of this season's version of the "Pulse of New York," which is to be at the Vogt opera house Monday, January 3rd.

The play has always been a great favorite with theater-goers, and this, its seventh consecutive year, promises to be as great a hit as it was its first. To keep abreast with the demands of the times, the entire play has been liberally amended, and the second act, the "Bowery dive," is entirely devoted to high-class vaudeville features. In this act twelve specialties are introduced, prominent among which are:

Wm. H. Lang, singing and dancing comedian, last year principal comedian of Hanlon's "Superba"; Stella Mahew, mimic and story teller; the wonderful Thompson tote, Lilian 5 years, Ethel 3 1/2 years; Madge Matland, phenomenal female baritone singer; H. V. Band, Hey Rube; Edgar Way, comedy sketch artist; Gotham quartette and others.

THE FOOTBALL GAME.

Merrill's Ramblers to Meet the Dalles Team on the Gridiron Saturday

Arrangements have been made by the Dalles football team to play a matched game on next Saturday, New Year's day, with Fred Merrill's Ramblers of Portland. Our boys are practicing all they possibly can, and as they have a good team, an interesting game will be put up. The only thing that is against them is the number of new players that they have in their team, which, owing to the fact that they have not had sufficient time for practice, will somewhat weaken the Dalles line up.

The game will be held at the fair grounds about 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, and as it is but seldom that such an interesting one can be witnessed at this place, there is little doubt that everyone who possibly can will attend.

Death of W. L. Ward.

Yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock W. L. Ward, better known as "Long" Ward, died at his home on 10-Mile, in this county. For over seven weeks he has been afflicted with a complication of heart and kidney troubles, and death came as a mild relief to his suffering.

Mr. Ward ranks among the old settlers of Oregon, having been here over thirty years. In the '60s he ran a saw mill at Hood River, and afterwards built what is known as Ward's mill, in the mountains west of Dufur.

He leaves a wife, one daughter, Mrs. V. Kelly, and four sons, Joseph, Fred, Victor and Samuel, all of whom were engaged with him in farming, mill and stock business.

He was about 77 years old, and was probably as well known as any man in the county. As none of his family are in the city, full particulars could not be obtained concerning him.

He was a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and he will be buried at 2 o'clock tomorrow under the auspices of that order in their cemetery near Dufur.

Campbell-Norshrup.

EDITOR CHRONICLE:

On last Wednesday afternoon, December 23d, Mr. W. A. Bart Campbell and Miss Mary Northrup were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's parents at Shady Brook, Rev. Lester F. Clark of the United Brethren church, officiating. The attendants on the bridal couple were Mr. Albert Hall and Miss Florence Stevens. The bride was attired in a most becoming gown of dove-colored silk and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. Miss Florence Stephens looked pretty in an old-rose gown.

The wedding march was rendered by Mrs. Retta Clark, and after the brief but impressive ceremony, the bride and groom received the congratulations and best wishes for their future happiness from their assembled friends. The dining room was next sought, where a bountiful dinner was served.

The afternoon was spent in social converse, interrupted at times by songs and instrumental music. A. FRIEND.

One thousand styles and sizes. For cooking and heating. Price from $10 to $70.

Often imitated. Never equalled.

Michigan Stoves and Ranges - next in quality to "Garlands."

MAIER & BENTON

DIED.
At Dufur, Or., on December 18, 1897, Timothy Brown, aged about 55 years. He leaves a wife and one daughter about 15 years old. He came to this country some ten years ago, and was well and favorably known in the vicinity of his home. He has been suffering from consumption for several years, and as is usually the case, this dreaded disease claimed its victim yesterday.

Business Announcement.
I take pleasure in announcing to my friends and patrons that George H. Dufur has this day associated himself with me in the business heretofore conducted by me. The new firm will hereafter be known as Dufur & Dufur, and transact all business under said name. Our aim will be in the future, as it has been mine in the past, to give entire satisfaction in all matters brought to us, and to treat each and everyone alike. I desire to thank my many friends and customers for their liberal patronage in the past, and solicit a continuance of the same with the new firm in the future.
Dated this 27th of December, 1897.
Respectfully,
D. S. DUFUR
