FRIDAY JANUARY 21, 1898

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Sturgeon hooks, cotton and sisal rope at Maier & Benton's. 13

Weather—Tonight and Saturday, occasional snow and cooler. 17-18

Go to the Columbia Candy Factory for fresh oysters in every style. 14

Mr. James Connelly, a prominent sheepman from Burnt Ranch, is in the city. 15

Choice plain, mixed and dill pickles, olives and pigs' feet in bulk at Commission Co.'s. 17-18

Out-of-town dealers in cigars are invited to call and examine the choice line sold by S. F. Fouts. 20

King Cole brand Baltimore oysters, the best on the market; Medium, Standard and Extra Select. Try them. At Varney & Co.'s. 11-12

All members of Court The Dalles, No. 12, F. of A., are requested to attend the meeting of the lodge this evening, as a good time is promised. 11-12

Persons having trouble with their eyes should call and have them examined by Dr. A. B. Richmond. Office, second door from corner of Court and Second streets. 12-14

We understand that Winans Bros. have sold out their property on the Washington side of the river, to The Dalles Packing Co. and intend leaving for Klondike in the near future. 15

A consignment of beef cattle are in the stock yards today waiting shipment to the Union Meat Co. in Portland. They were brought from the country south of here, but we could not learn the name of the consignor. 15

Yesterday at the residence of Mr. Hollett, on Eighth street, in this city, William D. Norton and Darcie M. Hollett were united in the bonds of matrimony. Justice Filoon officiated, and did his best towards making the couple one. 15

It was expected that the remains of Daniel DeWolfe would arrive last night. However, on account of some delay, they will not reach here before this evening, and it is impossible to say at present when the funeral will take place. 15

At the Christian church this evening the pastor will take for his subject "The Ordinary and Extraordinary Parts in Conversion. Tomorrow night the subject will be "Seeming Safety." There have been seven additions to the church thus far this week. 15

The Rathbone Sisters had an interesting session last night. An entertaining program was rendered, and the guessing contest furnished an abundance of amusement for all. Mrs. E. E. Lytle won the first prize, a box of bon bons, while J. B. Crossen got the booby. Afterwards all repaired to the dining hall, where the time was spent most pleasantly, and on leaving all voted that they knew of no place better than such a meeting in which to spend a pleasant evening. 15

A class in the rudiments of music will be organized by Prof. A. W. Lundell at 7:30 next Saturday evening in the basement of the Lutheran church. Terms, $1.50 for ten lessons. Anyone who desires to learn to read music should take advantage of this excellent opportunity. 18-22

Yesterday was China New Year, and, as is always the case, the Chinese are having an extended celebration. The same boys, too, are having all kinds of fun shooting off fire-crackers, which the Celestials are liberal enough to give them in large quantities, while the Chinamen increase the hilarity of the occasion by punishing an abundance of China gin and rice whiskey. 15

At the club meeting held last night, the principal subject to be considered was the meeting of the Northwest Sheep Growers' Association. It was decided that it would be held in this city on the first Tuesday in March. A committee of five club members will be appointed to arrange for the meeting, and it is expected that sheepmen from Montana, Idaho and Washington, as well as our own state will be present. The best speakers that can be found will address the sheepmen of this section, and an interesting and profitable meeting will certainly be held. 15

A. O. U. W. Entertainment.
Tomorrow evening Past Supreme Master Tate will deliver an address in the Vogt opera house in the interest of the A. O. U. W. In all cities he is greeted with crowded houses. Come out and hear this eloquent speaker, whether you are interested in his subject or not. The following musical program will be rendered:
Overture—Piano duet
Misses Alma Schanno and Georgia Sampson
Vocal Solo—"I Cannot Help Loving Thee"
Miss Myrtle Mitchell
Cornet Solo—"In Palm Branches"
L. Dawson
Vocal Solo—"Your Voice"
Mrs. A. N. Varney
Exercises will begin promptly at 8 o'clock. A cordial invitation to the public. No admission. 15

Beginning Classes.
In the first primary departments of Union St., East Hill Primary and Academy Park schools beginning classes will be organized on Monday, January 24, 1898. Parents and guardians will take notice that all beginners for the spring term are expected to enter school on the above date.
JOHN GAVIN,
Principal. 15

Columbia Lodge, No. 5, I. O. O. F., at their regular meeting this evening will receive an official visit from Claud Gatch, grand master I. O. O. F. of Oregon. All members and visiting brothers are urgently requested to be present. 15

The war in Cuba has not prevented S. F. Fouts from securing a choice lot of Havana tobacco, which he manufactures into Prize Medal and Guarantee cigars. 20-11

NEWS NOTES.

A daring attempt was made shortly after 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon to rob the Citizens bank in East Portland. The robber was shot at, but escaped on a horse. 15

Latest advices state that the United States is preparing for trouble with Spain. The gunboats are kept in readiness, where they can be reached by telegraph. 15

The merchants of Jackson county have effected a combination to bring suit against the state board of equalization to prevent the entering up of the 50 per cent increase of assessment on merchandise and stock in trade in that county. A. E. Reames of Jacksonville left for Salem last night, where the action will be begun, with White & Jacobs of Jacksonville as plaintiffs. 15

Efforts are being made at Washington to have the pension list published, but it is not known that it will be successful. Commissioner Evans has recommended such publication, and some members of congress believe in it, but it is probable that the great majority will oppose any action of this kind. The average congressman does not like to go contrary to the pensioners and old soldiers of his district. 15

All day Wednesday the question of granting belligerent rights to the Cuban insurgents was argued in the house; but as on Tuesday, the minority hurled itself against a stone wall. On the only vote taken, a motion designed to overrule the decision of the speaker and direct the committee on foreign affairs to report without further delay the Cuban resolution passed by the senate at the last session, the Republicans stood solid and voted to sustain the chair. 15
