S. J. La France has purchased the notion store of M. H. Nickelsen at Hood River. Mr. Nickelsen is a brother of our fellow townsman, I. C. Nickelsen. Mr. LaFrance is well and favorably known in The Dalles and Eastern Oregon, where he has worked for a musical firm for many years.

The Vancouver, B. C., foot-ball team arrived in Portland last night for the big Rugby match against the Multnomah team today. So as to give everybody a chance the game was not to be called until 3 o'clock. The captain of the Vancouver team wrote the Multnomah Club that he had to draw on the Nanaimo and Victoria clubs rather than not bring a full team down with him, so this will make the visiting team much stronger than it otherwise would be, and should victory rest with the Multnomahs it will be all the more creditable.

W. S. Hubbard, who holds an office under Commissioner McGuire, and who has charge of the numerous fish hatcheries, was in the city last night. He came here from the new hatchery on the White Salmon, and states that about 8,000,000 eggs have been put in the hatching troughs on that river recently.

The all-day meeting at the Methodist church yesterday was, as had been hoped, a season of refreshing from the Lord. The afternoon attendance was very good, and a deep, consecrated, joyous feeling was experienced by all engaged in the services. Last evening's service was also interesting and profitable. There will be no service this evening.

Sheep Inspector C. S. Roberts, who has recently returned from a trip of inspection through the county, states that he found 154,000 head of sheep in Wasco county, free from any disease. This speaks well for the care which Wasco county sheep men give to their flocks, and at the same time is encouraging to those who are interested in this great industry.

An interesting meeting of the Odd Fellows was held in their hall last night. Claude Gash, of Salem, grand master of the state of Oregon, made an extended speech to the lodge, and addresses were also made by other members. Some important lodge business was attended to, and the pleasures of the evening came to a climax when the banquet was spread. All did justice to the same, after which the meeting closed.

The Oregon Lime, Plaster and Cement Company's works, on Burnt river, five miles west of Huntington, on the O. R. & N., which were destroyed by fire last year, are to be immediately reconstructed. The revival of business throughout the entire state, and the consequent re-occupation of building, carries with it the guarantee of a steady demand for the company's output and an assurance of reasonable dividends on the large investment involved.

According to yesterday's Telegram it is believed that the case of the United States vs. Seufert Bros, the action concerning a right of way for the Cello boat railway, will come up for trial Monday. This is the third time that the case has been tried, and it will undoubtedly be a hard-fought case by both parties. Judge Webster and A. S. Bennett will appear for the defendants, while United States Attorney Hall, with other assistants, will act on the part of the government.

The Bank of Goldendale went out of business Thursday, and posted conspicuously on the front door the following: "The management of this institution having decided to retire from the banking business, hereby gives notice to all local depositors to call at the side door and withdraw their deposits in full and without delay. Dated January 20, 1898." The First National bank was started about ten years ago, and in 1896 went into voluntary liquidation and was succeeded by the Bank of Goldendale. The retiring of the present bank leaves Kllickitat county without a bank, which is regretted by many business men.

A number of our townspeople who live in quiet neighborhoods where our city marshal and nightwatchman scarcely ever find it necessary to go, are complaining about tramps and beggars bothering them for eatables and clothing. When such nuisances come around, the city officials who attend to such matters should be at once informed by the parties molested, and through this means the town could be kept clear. It is impossible for an officer to see everything that goes on in the city, and it is the duty of every citizen to inform him as to anything of this kind, which we are sure he would not be slow in attending to.

The Dramatic Mirror says: "E. Alma Stutz, wife of the well-known actor and manager, J. G. Stutz, died at Manti, Utah, Jan 3d, from the effects of burns received while she and her husband were mixing up a patent red fire. The chemical exploded while she, her husband and daughter were in the room. The daughter escaped uninjured; but Mr. Stutz received burns which will compel him to keep his bed for several weeks, while Mrs. Stutz' injuries caused her death. She suffered untold agonies for five days, the accident occurring Dec. 30th." The Stutz company has played in The Dalles several times, and the victim of this accident was well known by many of our townspeople.

The Dufur Dispatch says: "J. P. Benton, The Dalles plumber, is an expert mechanic, and somewhat of a billiardist. Our local players are as yet mostly novices at the game. But being possessed of that commendable article called 'sand,' they tackled Jim one after another, then doubled up on him, then tribled, and quadrupled. Finally five of the local player—C. P. Balch, Waldo Brigham, A. J. Douglass, Harry Temple and J. A. Stevens, challenged Mr. Benton, the latter making 58 points, while the five home players only rolled up 22. But then, they were satisfied, for if they didn't make points, they got pointers." The Dalles foot-ball players have confidence enough in themselves to think that they can also give Dufur's football team a few pointers in that manly sport. We hope they will have the "sand" to give us a trial in this line also.

In Olden Times.

People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects, and were satisfied with transient action; but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently overcome habitual constipations, well informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system. Buy the genuine made by the California Fig Syrup Co.

NEWS NOTES.

Epping, who was found guilty of attempting to rob the registry department of the Portland postoffice, was fined $1,000 and one day in jail.

The new Democratic congressional committee last night elected as chairman Senator White, of California. The election of secretary, which had been expected, was postponed to await action by an organization of seven, which will be appointed by the new chairman.

A horrible accident occurred in East Portland yesterday. It was caused by the explosion of escaping gas while an excavation was being made for a new cess pool. At present one man is dead and another dying from the effects of the explosion, while two more had a narrow escape.

The opening session of the national conference on practical reform of primary elections was called to order at New York yesterday in the rooms of the New York board of trade and transportation, by John E. Millholland, chairman of the temporary organization. The conference will last two days.

Secretary Bliss has dismissed the appeal of the Portland water committee in the case against John H. Bunyard, involving a quarter section of land in the Bull Run watershed. The secretary says that, a patent having been issued to Bunyard, he has no authority to set it aside, and has no jurisdiction, even if the patent was wrongfully obtained, as alleged.
