

IS BAD FOR ENGLAND

Czar's Government will Concede Nothing.

HAS THROWN DOWN THE GAUNTLET

England Must Either Acquiesce in Russia's Policy in the Far East, or Fight.

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—A Herald dispatch from London says:

There is a startling dispatch in the Daily Telegram today from St. Petersburg. This paper's correspondent there has had interviews with a Russian admiral, now chief of the squadron, and with an eminent Russian diplomatist. Their declarations, therefore, if true, have semi-official weight. Practically the declarations it contained amount to a menace on the part of Russia toward England, and unless England chooses to acquiesce in the policy being pursued by Russia in the far east, war is inevitable. If this dispatch is not a fake, Russia has thrown down the gauntlet. The dispatch reads as follows:

"St. Petersburg, Saturday.—I have had a conversation with a Russian admiral who has been appointed to the post of chief of the squadron, concerning the situation in the far east. This officer, in the course of his remarks, said: 'Nearly the whole of the marine forces of Russia will be dispatched to the far east, for it is necessary for Russia to place herself in a position of naval strength in Chinese waters equal to that of Great Britain.'

"Russia will not permit the opening of a new port, either at Port Arthur or at Tientsin. We will soon see that Germany will say the same thing with regard to Kaio Chon and the bay of Samsah, while France will prevent the opening of the Siam gulf and Nanking as free ports. Russia, France and Germany will permit no European power to carry out any such attempt upon their interests upon the pretext of encouraging Chinese European trade, for under that condition the power in question will become the mistress of China, directing both her politics and finances."

"I also called on the celebrated Russian diplomatist, who said: 'The conditions of the loan of £2,000,000 which England has offered to the Chinese government are directed principally against the interests of Russia and France, and for this reason our ambassador at Peking will, together with his French colleague, struggle to prevent China from accepting the British overtures. By the opening of Tientsin as a free port, the value of Port Arthur as a naval station would be diminished. In the spring Great Britain will no longer engage herself with the Chinese question, and will certainly not take the offensive, finding as she will, the necessity of devoting her strength and energy to India, as a revolt infinitely more serious than the Sepoy mutiny is about to break out. Then Russia will be able to penetrate without difficulty through Afghanistan to the Indian possessions of Great Britain, to whom she will dictate terms. We have enough troops and well fortified frontiers with outposts in the rear reserves, by railways and telegraphs, and we could in the course of a few days place on the Afghan frontier an army of 100,000 men. You perceive that all the chances are on our side and we do not fear the threats of England.'"

point in the Chinese loan negotiations was Great Britain's insistence that the British shall always remain at the head of the Yang-tse-Kiang valley customs and assume their full administration in case of default. The dispatch adds that several thousand Russian troops which have been guarding the trans-Siberian railroads have entered Manchuria with the consent of the Peking authorities.

More Demands by Germany.

PEKING, Feb. 1.—Germany has demanded further concessions in the shape of railways in the Shantung peninsula as compensation for the assassination of the sailor, Schultz, who was murdered by the Chinese mob, while on sentry duty.
