WHEAT MARKET.

THE DALLES-Wheat market has stood tle wheat is changing hands.

PORTLAND-Local exporters have not been bidding very lively for wheat during the past few days, the "waiting attitude of the English market not being altogether satisfactory. As much of the wheat remaining unsold is in the hands of the growers who are financially fixed so that they can hold it for an indefinite length of time, and as their faith in the better market in the future is great, drove miles after he was taken sick, and buyers and sellers at present are apart. never came so near dying in his life. The Surprise of All. Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with La Grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians of Cowden and Pans could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into Hasty Consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Long Reigns.

According to the "Gotha Almanec." which has just been issued for 1894. the queen of England has reigned longer than any other ruler in the world, having ascended the throne in 1837. Next to her in point of time are Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria and Frederick, the grand duke of Baden. The monarchs who have reigned the shortest time are Prince Friederich of Waldeck and Duke Alfred of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha. The oldest monarch, according to the "Almanac," is the pope, who is more than eighty-three years of age. The grand duke of Luxembourg and the king of Denmark, respectively seventy-six and seventy-five years of age, stand next to him in this regard. Grand Duke Karl Alexander, who lives in Weimar, is fourth in point of age, and Queen Victoria, with her seventy-four years, is the fifth oldest monarch. The youngest crowned heads are the little queen of the Netherlands, who is thirteen, and the king of Spain, who is seven and a half years

A Clatter on the Stairs

A house in Cologne has two horses heads carved in wood affixed to it; the legend thereunto belonging being that a noble lady died of the plague and was hastily interred. The sexton noticed a costly ring on her finger, and went to the vault at night to rob the dead. But the lady was only in a trance, and the touch of the would-be thief aroused her. She arose from her coffin and found her way home, where her knocks aroused a servant, who rushed to tell his master who it was. "Impossible!" said the husband, who does not seem to have been too charmed at the idea; "I would as soon believe stalls and mount the stairs." Behold! a clatter and a trampling! and the horses were climbing steadily upward to the garret! Convinced at last, the husband descended, found it was indeed his wife, and brought her in: and one hopes they were both grateful to the good gray steeds.-Gentleman's Magazine.

FIRESIDE FRAGMENTS.

-Cocos Balls.-Before the fondant is very stiff, take out about a cupful. Knead into it as much grated cocosnut as possible, form into balls, brush with white of egg and roll in dry cocoanut. -Prairie Farmer.

-Polish for Floors.-Boil together one cup of strong beer, a piece of beeswax about the size of a nut, and a spoonful of sugar. First clean the floor by wiping it over with warm beer, and then apply the polish with a brush. Leave until dry, and then polish with a soft duster.

-Beef and Carrote.-Chop one pound of beet (not too fine). Cook slowly with three sliced carrots in water, enough to cover until well done. Season wth salt, pepper, tablespoonful of butter, one-half teaspoonful of onion juice. Cream one teaspoonful of flour in onehalf cup of milk, and add just before serving.-Chicago Record.

-Plain Custard.-The beaten yolks of five eggs and five teaspoonfuls of sugar. Pour over this one quart of hot milk, add flavoring and the whites of two eggs. Bake in cups set in a pan of boiling water. Cover with meringue and eat cold. Do not leave too long in the oven. Boil instead, if pre-ferred.—Farm, Field and Fireside.

-Cocoanut Creams.-These are made by dropping some grated cocoanut and a few drops of vanilla in some of the fondant; work like dough, roll out, cut in cubes and allow to harden. Melt a piece of fondant without choe- The Shasta Route olate, and dip the cubes in this. The dipping must be done expeditiously, as the creams will melt if left too long for dipping warm over hot water.-Orange Judd Farmer.

-Apple Butter .- Boil three gallons of eider down to one-fourth of the quantity. Pare and core as many ap ples as the cider will cover. Divide the eider and put equal parts in two ket tles on the fire. Place the apples in one kettle, and as they boil down pour over them the cider from the other ket tle, boil 12 hours until smooth, add ground cloves, allspice, cinnamon brown sugar. Then boil again, stirring constantly. When sufficiently done it will stick to the spoon when held up.—Boston Budget.

SNAG FOR HIGH BUILDINGS.

Pending the result of a movement to restrict the height of our tall buildings. there is one feature of the problem that has recently been called forcibly to the attention of the public by the accident to the elevators in the American Tract society building, the details of which were described in the Engineering Record of November 21, and that is the peril attending the occupancy of such structures where high-speed elevators and high-pressure plants are introduced. It is quite practicable to regulate this matter in anticipation of action on the larger question of the restriction of the height of buildings. The risks attending the operation of elevators designed to run at speeds of from 500 to 700 feet per minute are much greater than is generally supposed, yet they are fully appreciated by experts. The demand for excessive speeds like that required of the builders of the elevators of the Tract my two gray horses should leave their building was assumed to be necessary in order to make available for renting the ten upper stories of this 23-story building. To reach quickly these higher stories an excessive speed is called for, and with a view to economize the cost of operation and minimize space in the basement, high-pressure plants are designed, with the result that the record for safety of elevator travel so creditable to our elevator builders in the past is likely to be impaired. To obviate this it should be made illegal to operate passenger elevators at a speed greater than 400 feet a minute. This will permit the safety device to operate when the speed reached 500 to 600 feet per minute.-Engineering Record.

METAL OF THE STANDARDS. Nature Furnishes No Mineral Suttable for the Purpose

There are no products of human skill on which a greater degree of care is expended than the standards of weight and measure in use among the civilized particular have to be considered-accuracy and durability. Nature does not furnish any single metal, or mineral, which exactly answers the requirements for a standard of measure or weight that shall be, as nearly as possible, unalterable.

The best substance yet produced for this purpose is an alloy of ninety per American and English authors, cent. of platinum with ten per cent. of iridium. This is called iridio-platinum, and it is the substance of which the new metric standards prepared by the international committee of weights and measures are composed.

It is hard, it is less affected by heat than any pure metal, it is practically non-oxidizable, or not subject to rust, and it can be finely engraved. In fact the lines on the standard meters are they are smooth, even, sharp and accurate

If our civilization should ever be lost, and relies of it should be discovered in some brighter age in the remote future, there is nothing which would bear higher testimony to its character than these standard measures of iridio-platinum for the production and preservation of which the science of our day has done its very best.
