The questions for the county teachers' examination, which has just been held, are considered less difficult than usual, the most tedious branches being Grammar and Written Arithmetic.

Rev. A. Bronsgeest went to Cascade Locks this morning, and will hold services in the Catholic church at that place tomorrow. There will be no services in the Catholic church in this city.

The Whitman county commissioners have offered a reward of $500 for the apprehension and conviction of the lynchers of Chadwick Marshall, alias "Blacky," who was taken from the Colfax jail and hanged by a mob.

Yesterday D. J. Cooper came in from his 10-mile ranch. He says farmers in that section are busily engaged in preparing their soil to receive the grain, and if the fine weather continues they will commence seeding in a few weeks.

A bowling tournament between the Oregon Road Club and The Dalles Commercial and Athletic Club's teams will be held on the club alleys in this city on Thursday evening. Those playing in The Dalles team will be: Judge Bradshaw, A. J. Tolmie, J. M. Filloon, Carey

A dozen years ago the pack train of an immigrant's outfit, consisting of Mexican burros, was turned loose into Wallowa valley. From their ancestors 1000 head were recently sold at $3.50 a head to be shipped, the majority to Japan and a few to the Klondike.

J. B. Burgraff & Co. will open the American market, on Second street, Monday with a full supply of fruit, vegetables and fish. This market has always been a popular stand, and the new proprietor hopes to have all the old patrons of the place give him a trial.

James LeDuc of Dufur is in the city. He says while the winter is remarkably mild in his section of the country, still the frost is a little too hard to allow the farmers to do any great amount of plowing. Fall grain is looking well and is not injured much by the frost.

An election of officers for the Columbia Hose Co. was held Thursday night, which resulted as follows: President, Hal French; foreman, Grant Mays; first assistant, W. A. Johnston; second assistant, E. Yesterday Mrs. C. L. Phillips left for San Francisco to select millinery goods for the spring and summer seasons. It has ever been Mrs. Phillips' earnest endeavor to give satisfaction to her patrons, and at present she is making more strenuous efforts than ever to carry a stock that will please the ladies in style and price.

A letter was received today from the costumer who will furnish the costumes for the theatrical performance which the young men of the Commercial and Athletic Club intend putting on in the near future. From the prices quoted it will take at least $200 for costumes alone; but the boys are determined to put on a show that will surpass anything that has ever before been staged in this city and they have no hesitancy about paying that amount. The costumer will be here Monday night to take measures, so that the costumes will be here in good time.

D. C. Blandy, wife and 4-year-old son, who left Brainerd, Minn., August 27th, to go to Puget sound in a "prairie schooner" drawn by dogs, arrived in Tacoma at noon Thursday, after traveling all night. Blandy lost ninety-three days' time en route. His team of eight dogs averaged from forty to fifty miles travel in the ten hours of each day that they were kept going. In the snow belt runners were affixed to the schooner, but they were discarded on this side of the mountains, and the schooner was on wheels again. Blandy denies that he is en route to Alaska. He intends to settle here.

Jack Dalton, who blazed the trail to the Klondike country, and after whom the famous Dalton trail is named, was a famous character in the Harney country some fifteen or twenty years ago, under the name of Jack Miller, and married a sister of the present postmistress at Burns, says the Malheur Gazette, which paper adds: "Jack is a head game scrapper, and has a private graveyard in more than one western town. Like Jim Bludsoe, he never flunked nor he never lied—I reckon he never knew how; and for that reason, coupled with his daredevil bravery and uerring six shootership, he has numerous admirers in Eastern Oregon."

Certificates Received.

Below we give the result of the teachers' quarterly examination held at the courthouse February 9th, 10th and 11th. There were eleven applicants for county certificates, with the following results:

DALLES CITY GOING NORTH.

Steamer to Run Between Juneau and Skaguay and Dyea.

We glean the following from The Oregonian of yesterday:

"W. E. Seabee, of New York City, who is operating in Alaska, has purchased the steamer Dalles City from The Dalles, Portland & Astoria Navigation Company, with the purpose in view of putting the steamer on the route north from Juneau to Skaguay and Dyea. She is now on the Regulator Line between Portland and The Dalles, and will remain on that run until about the middle of March, when she will be delivered to her new owner and sent north. The boat is of 296 tons net, and is a good steamer for inside waters.

"The Regulator Line has nearly completed arrangements for a new steamer to take the place of the Dalles City on The Dalles run. She will be a bigger and better boat, and will be built especially for speed. The machinery will be built at the Willamette iron works, but the contract for the hull has not yet been let. The new craft will be named the Reliance. She will not be ready for service when the Dalles City shall leave, and arrangements for another boat to fill the gap will have to be made."

ITS RICHNESS UNDIMINISHED.

Canyon City's Klondike Proves Richer Than the First Discovery.

Canyon City News.

Gold, buckets of gold! And not only buckets of gold, but bushels of gold are in sight at the new Great Northern claim on the mountain back of town. The display amounting to seven or eight hundred dollars which Mr. Guker had on exhibit last Sunday, could be duplicated by the washing of a few pans of the decomposed quartz which he finds in a deeper pocket, or extension of the same pocket in his Great Northern ledge.

Mr. Guker has three men employed, and for the past few days they have been busy making secure the walls of the shaft where the gold is found, in order to guard against accidents.

All the ledges and spurs on Guker's claim will prospect well, and he has done sufficient development work to establish their permanency. On the mother lode he will run a crosscut sixty-five feet below the surface at the upper end, and has fully demonstrated by tunnels and shafts that the lodes are there. He and all other miners are of the opinion that when the ledges unite, as they must inevitably at no great depth, there will be the richest quartz claim that the world has ever produced.

At the present time all the gold has been washed out with water produced by melting snow in the vessels. By this slow process Guker says they can take out ore and average twenty pans a day. The best pan in the last few days contained $84.75. Unless it grows better, as it has been in the habit of doing, it will probably not average this much.

However, should the average be only $25 to the pan, four men can take out $500 a day, which is pretty fair wages even now.

NEWS NOTES.

The steamer Oregon arrived in Portland last night.

During the entire session of the senate Thursday the Indian appropriation bill was under consideration. The reading of the bill was completed and all the committee amendments were adopted, and subsequently several amendments of a minor character were attached to the bill.
