ly Drug Co. DeWitt's Little Early Risers, WAKE AGAIN AFTER 24 YEARS. Mr. McCielland Knows How Rip Van

Winkle Felt When He Woke Up. The village of Graysville has developed a strange case as viewed from a medical standpoint—that of a man who had lain upon his bed for 24 years. during a great part of which time he was blind and speechless, and sometimes unable to hear, but can now walk about with the aid of crutches, and his eyesight, voice and hearing all restored. This man is Asa McCielland. He was a soldier in the late war, being a member of company C. Eighteenth Pennsylvania eavalry, and will be remembered by many of his old comrades.

In the early part of the '70s he was taken ill and became bedfast. He lost the use of his body, and finally sank into a half-conscious state, during which he lost both evesight and power to speak, and for a time could not hear. Some time before his illness his mind became temporarily affected, and he attempted to take his life by shooting. The ball struck him near the base of the brain, but failed to penetrate the skull. But little injury was done, apparently, by the wound, and he went about for several months afterward. After he became ill his case baffled the aid of physicians.

Much of the time he would lie upon his bed with his head and entire body under covers. He would show no sign of recognition, and his food was frequently pushed under the covers within his reach, and thus he are enough to sustain life. This lasted during a period of 24 years. After the first few years old acquaintances coased their visits. and he almost dropped out of their remembrance. He now relates the following strange story:

A short time ago he felt strength sudimpulse to rise. He tried to do so and found that he could get up. About the same time he found his eyesight restored. He had not uttered a sound for years, but the thought occurred to him to speak, and he found his voice re-

His first attempt to walk was by rest- ton. ing his hands upon the tack of a chair and pushing it along, but he now use Mrs. D. Lucey went to Portland to- crutches. He had forgotten many words, and those were taught him just as a little child is instructed. In the same way he was taught to read again. Everything was new to him. He, however, remembered the names and faces of former acquaintances. An old as C. B. Buckley, the Grass Valley sheep | quaintance who had not seen him for many years met him at the start at Graysville, and was quickly recognized by McClelland. The latter rafers to the F. C. Sexton was among the Regula- period of his life prior to his lilness as one who has been away in anothe part of the country for many years and has just returned. He speaks of places about the village as "when I was here before they looked so and so." He says there were but two or three bouses in Hon. A. S. Bennett went to Portland Graysville when he was there then.

Like Rip Van Winkle, he seems to have awakened from a long dream. He says that during his illness he wa many times able to hear what was said. but had not the power to whisper even a reply. He has an interest in a pieceof land, and draws a small pension, and says he now is able to conduct his own business. Humanity Always Seeking Equality.

Perhaps it is because we know soequality that so many society people Grocery Co. regard a real equality as impossible, and are content to remain in the make-tially faise as that; and the superior, Co. when he takes thought, is as distinctly aware of the fact as the inferior. Humanity is always seeking equality. The patrician wishes to be with his equals because his inferiors make him uneasy; the plebeian wishes to be with his equals because his superiors make him unhappy. This fact accounts for inequality itself, for classes. Inferiority and superiority were intolerable to men, and so they formed themselves into classes, that inside of these classes they might have the peace, the comfort, of equality; and each kept himself to nis own class for that reason.-W. D. Howells, in Century.
