WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

We have cigars to burn at Foutz'.
Hypnotism at the Vogt tonight. Laugh.
Use Clarke & Falk's Floral Lotion for hopped hands and rough skin. 1m
Dressed chickens to order; choice cauliflower and cabbage at W. A. Kirby's. 23-3t
In future copies of the Morning Tribune can be secured at the Smpes-Kinnersly Drug Co.'s. 24-3t
Clarke & Falk's Rosefoam tooth wash is the best to keep the teeth and gums clean and healthy. 9-1m
Did it ever strike you that Foutz' Prize Medal and Guarantee cigars are the best cigars on earth. 1t
The best specific for dandruff and to prevent baldness is Clarke & Falk's compound quinine hair tonic. 9-1m
One day last week some lady left a black silk umbrella, with a cherry handle and porcelain knob, at this office. She may have the same by calling for it.
The addition to Mrs. Smith's hotel is being put in shape as rapidly as possible, and when completed will furnish ample room for the patrons of that place.
The recent conviction and execution of Gus Wachline of Hillsboro for the murder of John D. Ledrick cost the county, inclusive of reward and incidentals, $1244.
A death watch has been placed over John Leonard, the ex-convict, who was on Monday sentenced to be hanged March 25th for the murder of Jacob Malquist at Colfax.
The property of the J. G. Miller printing office is being sold at sheriff's sale this afternoon to satisfy the chattel mortgage held on the same by J. G. Mallock of Goldendale.
Look out for breakers ahead. Butts, the real estate and insurance broker, wrote two new insurance policies yesterday and sold a piece of real estate. What's the matter with The Dalles?
The mud is being cleared off Second street toward the East End, and owing to the pleasant weather we have enjoyed during the last week, the streets are getting in pretty good shape again.
The rock crusher was brought from its location on the brewery hill, and is being repaired by Gunning & Hockman. As soon as it is in good shape it will be used to crush rock for repairing the streets.
All the ladies will be pleased to know that the members of the Good Intent Society will have on sale, Saturday in the Vogt building, next door to the postoffice, all kinds of pastry—pies, cakes, doughnuts, etc.
Maier & Benton's steel range drawing will come off on the evening of March 1st at 8 p. m., instead of February 28th as advertised. On account of the early closing the change has been made.

Those who haven't a chance on the steel range had better avail themselves of the opportunity and buy one dollar's worth of goods, which entitles them to a chance on the steel range. MAIER & BENTON.
During the last few days club wheat has raised from 70 to 75 cents, while first-class bluestem is selling for 77 cts. Those who held their wheat over winter for higher prices are beginning to think they did not act so foolishly after all.
Parties from the interior say that the Tygh Valley and Canyon City roads from 10-Mile out are in splendid shape, but out to that point they are terrible. It seems to be the opinion of everyone that they could be repaired with but little cost, and the matter should be looked into.
Get on to your job and place your insurance with Butts, the insurance broker, who has access to five of the best companies in the world and is connected with the only live and progressive agency in The Dalles. He handles real estate, loans, etc., and dad can't be beat in his line.
The D. C. & A. C. bowling team went to Portland this morning and this evening will roll a return game with the Oregon Road club's team. Those who went down were Judge Bradshaw, Fred Houghton, John Filloon, A. J. Tolmie, Carey Ballard and George Dufur. We are informed that the following gentlemen accompanied them as coaches, P. DeHuff, W. Darch, W. Lord and Dr. Siddall.
Yesterday James and Jack Black were brought up from Cascade Locks by Deputy Thomas King and placed in the county jail to serve out a sentence of thirty days. It seems that James Black was found guilty of larceny, while the other figured as an accomplice. For a few days Jailor Fitzgerald was complaining himself upon the fact that there were no prisoners in the county jail, but it looks as if it were on a fair way to fill up again.
A fair-sized audience attended Prof. Ben Dillou's hypnotic entertainment at the Vogt last night. The professor had a class of twelve subjects, ten of whom were very good. Two of the twelve attempted to mislead the professor, but he discovered them and expelled them from the class. Considering that it was the first night, the class was put to numerous difficult tests, and the entertainment throughout was amusing and very laughable. In the work that Prof. Dillou has done so far, he has proven himself to be McEwen's equal.
All that was immortal of old Indian Joe, a familia: character around town, who for a number of years has depended on the charity of some of our townspeople for an existence, left for the happy hunting grounds last night, and today his friends are constructing a rude board coffin in which to lay him. This morning an Indian wake was held, and the usual amount of wailing gone through. It is a merciful act of Providence to end Joe's existence, since he was sick, lame and almost blind, and if life ever was a burden to anyone, it must have been to him. He was an honest old character, and might have been classed among the good Indians, even before the little incident of last night.

PERSONAL MENTION.
J. A. Welch is in the city from Antelope.
J. J. Gibbons is in the city from Hood River today.
W. E. Woodcock of Wamic is a guest at the Umatilla.
Mr. W. Darch went to Portland on the morning train.
Dr. D. Siddall went to Portland today to spend a few days.
W. H. McAtee is in the city from his home in Tygh Valley.
Mr. W. Lord left on the Spokane train for Portland this morning.
J. Nelson, of the Agriculturist, was over from Goldendale yesterday.
Thomas Farmer left for New York today, where he will make his future home.
P. DeHuff was among the passengers who went to Portland on the Spokane flyer today.
Mrs. Pilkington of Antelope arrived in this city yesterday and went to Portland on the morning train today.
James Kelly, one of the enterprising fillers of the soil from the Kingsley neighborhood, is in the city today.
Judge J. J. Balleray, of Pendleton, who was recently stricken by paralysis, was able to leave his bed last Sunday, and to walk alone.
Mrs. N. B. Speer of Warm Springs came in from her home yesterday, and went to Portland this morning to visit her son, who is seriously ill.
R. R. Hinton and family came in from Bake Oven yesterday, and will remain in the city until after the meeting of the Wool-Growers' Association.
Degree of Honor Washington Social.
The public social given by the Degree of Honor last night was well attended and the program was very interesting. The following numbers were rendered: Piano overture by Mrs. Varney. Remarks on the life of Washington by Mr. Cradlebaugh.
Vocal trio by Messrs. Will Frank, Bert Barrett and Fred Snipes.
Solo, Miss Hattie Cram.
Recitation by Master Neil McNamara, who, in response to an encore, delighted the audience with "One Little Hatchet."
Vocal Solo, Prof. Lundell.
Tableau "George and Martha Washington."
Select reading by Mr. Douthit.
Vocal Solo, Mrs. Varney.
Especially fine was the tableau in which Mr. Gifford made a good substitute for George Washington supporting the American flag, while Mrs. Varney did well as Martha; and with Hazel Wand hovering over them as guardian angel, the effect was very pretty.
The program was followed by dancing, and altogether the affair was a decided success.
Cash in Your Checks.
All county warrants registered prior to Nov. 22, 1893, will be paid at my office. Interest ceases after Feb. 16th, 1898.
C. L. PHILLIPS,
County Treasurer.

NEWS NOTES.
Today's bulletin contained nothing new concerning the Maine disaster.
It is reported that fourteen thousand people in Montanza province, Cuba, are desolate.
Oriental advices received at San Francisco yesterday say a terrible earthquake occurred on the island of Amboyna, in the Molucca group, January 6th. Fifty persons were killed and over 200 injured.
Two steamers sailed for Alaskan ports from San Francisco last night. The Excelsior took away all the passengers she could carry for Copper river, Dyea and Skaguay, and the Humboldt has 312 aboard.
There is scarcely any doubt that the British ship Asia, bound from Manila for Boston, was wrecked near Nantucket during the gales of the past few days, and that her entire crew of twenty men have perished.
It is almost certain that the bill which passed the senate Tuesday to create two additional regiments of artillery will pass the house without much opposition, if it is reported while the house is in its present temper.
Information has reached Washington from London to the effect that a syndicate of English and American capitalists has perfected arrangements for the construction of a railroad from the head of Lynn canal over White pass, and thence by a route, already located, to a point on the Yukon river below the rapids and all other obstructions to clear and safe navigation.
The Wool-Growers' Association.
Preparations for the Wool Growers' Association to be held here on March 1, 2 and 3, are to a great extent completed, and from present indications it will be the biggest kind of a success. Delegates have been appointed by the governors of Montana, Idaho, Washington and Oregon to attend, and every wool grower that can possibly come have signified their intention to do so. We need not trouble about the association not being well attended, but rather to find suitable accommodations for them when they are here.
The Kinross Quartet club, of Portland, has been engaged to furnish entertainment in conjunction with Birgfeld's orchestra, and those two along with the numerous speakers of prominence who will lecture, will make the occasion one of more than usual interest.
Attention, Ladies!
All lady members of the families of Odd Fellows, who are eligible to join the Rebeccas, are cordially requested to meet in the Odd Fellows' hall tomorrow (Friday) evening at 8:30, as a Rebecca lodge will be organized on that occasion.
To Cure a Cold in One Day.
Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if they fail to cure. 25c.
DeWitt's Little Early Risers,
The famous little pills.

THE STORY OF MY LIFE.
Mary A. Livermore's Latest Book—Sunshine and Shadows of Seventy Years.
This new and superbly illustrated book is the crowning life work of the famous Mary A. Livermore, and, as she herself states, it is the last that will ever come from her pen. It is a thrilling narrative of her life from infancy to old age, portraying the sunshine and shadows of seventy years of a most marvelous career, told in her own words.
It seems almost incredible that woman now so famous made "mud pies" in her childhood, was often sent supperless to bed, and was often bounced down into a kitchen chair with a force that caused her to "see stars." When a young girl, struggling to support herself, she took in "slop work," made shirts and subsequently learned the trade of dressmaker, at which she worked for twenty-five cents a day. At eighteen she "ran away from home like a boy," and spent three eventful years on a Southern slave plantation—years full of tragedy and comedy, and packed with thrilling experiences.
She tells of the eventful Christmas night when she wandered into the church of a strange young preacher, who soon afterward became her husband. Their comical experiences in their first attempts at housekeeping; the ignominious fate that her husband condemned her first fish chowder (he buried it in the garden after dark); and the many trials and tribulations that followed are marvelously entertaining. They were poor. She tried her hand at tailoring, and with the money saved by secretly making a pair of trousers for her husband she paid for a years subscription to a weekly newspaper.
Mrs. Livermore threw her whole heart and soul into measures for the relief of sick and wounded soldiers, and spent four years as a nurse in the Union army. Her intellectual greatness and nobility of character led her to rise from those thrilling experiences to become the best known woman of America, and opened the way to her phenomenal platform career, that has continued for more than thirty years. At her feet millions of people have sat and listened in wonder and admiration. The rich and poor, the high and low, the learned and unlearned have been alike thrilled and moved by her burning words. She has swayed brilliant audiences of fashion; has spoken in state prisons, jails and penitentiaries; to audiences composed of outcasts, and to audiences numbering thousands of children. In this autobiography she gives many reminiscences of her platform experiences, with anecdotes and incidents too funny for anything.
Many distinguished men and women have long urged Mrs. Livermore to tell the marvelous story of her life. She has received letters from thousands of men and women, unknown to her, expressing the hope that such a volume would be written.
This work is wholly and entirely new. It contains nothing that appears in her "Story of the War, [1887], of which sixty thousand copies were sold.

The book is splendidly illustrated with beautiful and costly full page photogravure plates and portraits, and over one hundred fine text illustrations. Many of them are intensely humorous, while others depict thrilling scenes full of pathos and tragic interest.
We do not know when 730 pages have given us more genuine pleasure. If we speak warmly of the book it is because it richly deserves it. It is sold only by agents and is meeting with a large sale. Agents who introduce a first-class work like this ought to be cordially welcomed. We believe the way to keep out poor books is to introduce good ones, and a better one than this has never been brought to our notice. Put it in your homes. It will be read over and over again by old and young, with pleasure and lasting profit, and may well be handed down from father to son and mother to daughter as a princely legacy.
The book is sold only by agents and is published by the well-know firm of A. D. Worthington & Co., Hartford, Conn., whose imprint is sufficient guarantee of the excellence of this first-class volume.
Mrs. C. M. Sisson is agent for the valuable work in this county.
The Modern Way
Commends itself to the well-informed, to do pleasantly and effectually what formally done in the crudest manner and disagreeably as well. To cleanse the system and break up colds, headaches, and fevers without unpleasant after effects, use the delightful liquid laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs. Made by California Fig Syrup Co.

"Then I'll a Friar Be."—The song. "What! You become a nun, my dear; then I'll a friar be," has been one of the most popular songs for male voices ever written. The tendency to do as others do is strong in many ways in life. Your neighbor has a piano. Why not you? Always a GOOD investment, a piano is a BETTER investment just now than ever before.
