WEDNESDAY - MARCH 9, 1898

FRIENDLY OPINIONS.

After all, the Briton, standing on his native soil, is a better friend to the United States of America than the white-livered anglophobic of American birth. The degenerate American who apes British airs can see no good thing in America; to him American politics is rotten, American goods worthless, American art crude, American life vulgar. Even the distant sound of "trumpets blown for wars," in which his country may be called to take part, does not inspire him with patriotic feeling. He derides our army as it passes in review, and he sneers at our navy as a feeble thing.

The un-American American is the most despicable of God's creatures; if, indeed, copperheads and moral invertebrates be among God's creatures. The Briton who is interested in his own country is, perforce, interested in all countries, for the British empire is nothing if not colonial and diffusive. He is interested in the United States because this republic borders on Canada. He is interested in France and Germany because their possessions border on British possessions in Africa. He is interested in Russia because Russia is his neighbor and rival in Asia. He cannot afford to underrate the navy of any of these powers because at any moment he may be called upon to contend with it. He is a cool, and, on the whole, an impartial judge of the values of the armed forces of the world.

Hence the opinions of the ship-builders and torpedo boat makers have value. In the opinion of these competent and certainly unprejudiced judges our navy, ship for ship, is as good as any float, that of Britain not excepted. Indeed, Mr. Allan, one among the greatest of British ship-builders, expresses a doubt as to whether Great Britain has a warship of the same cruiser class equal to our Columbia. Both Mr. Allan and Mr. Tweddle bear testimony to the admirable character of our seamen, and Mr. Allan speaks of them as men able to make short work of an equal number of Spaniards in a naval engagement. And Mr. Allan says: "I am ready to lay a wager that the United States will have every town on the Spanish coast blown to atoms a month after the commencement of hostilities."

It is pleasant to hear such encouraging words from men whose fathers have fought on land and sea against our fathers, but who themselves are our friends. In these days, when every crawling copperhead hisses "Jingo!" as soon as a spirited word is spoken by an American, it is comfortable to know that a foreign and critical, though friendly, nation has confidence in our ability and admiration of our courage to defend our rights and our honor.—Inter-Ocean.

Russia is benefiting by the gold standard. According to the official statement of M. de Witte, the minister of finance, the gold coin in circulation has increased from 37,000,000 roubles in 1896 to 155,000,000 at the close of last year. Meantime the paper currency has been reduced to the extent of 122,000,000 roubles. The Russian circulation is now composed of—gold, 1,470,000,000; silver, 162,000,000, and paper 999,000,000 roubles. It follows that Russia has now 47 per cent more gold than paper. Russia has pursued the policy recommended here by Secretary Gage, and, as the result, her financial position is strong and sound. No wonder that Minister de Witte "expresses great pride in the results of the adoption of the gold standard."

The annual expenses for the current fiscal year are estimated at $441,000,000. This state of things calls for prudent, sound financial management in order to maintain our credit at home and abroad. There is no place for the partial revival of "flatism" or for any experiments of that kind. The public burdens of the general government are heavy enough. It would be sheer folly to add to them the further issue of paper currency.—Sound Money.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars; free.

The Discovery of the Day.

Aug. J. Bogel, the leading druggist of Shreveport, La., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and it is the best seller I have." J. F. Campbell, merchant of Saffords, Ariz., writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is all that is claimed for it; it never fails, and is a sure cure for Consumption, Colds and Coughs. I cannot say enough for its merits." Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is no experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and today stands at the head. It never disappoints. Free trial bottles at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.

Sheep marking paint; ready for use. Two colors, black and red. Why you should use our sheep paint. First, because the colors are ground thoroughly in pure linseed oil by fine machinery; second, because it is made of high grade color, with the proper amount of dryers added to give it binding and lasting qualities, which prevent it from washing or rubbing off; third, it is much more economical, because it is always ready for use. We guarantee our sheep marking paints to give satisfaction. Try it and be convinced. Clarke & Falk, agents, The Dalles, Or.

I have been afflicted with rheumatism for fourteen years and nothing seemed to give any relief. I was able to be around all the time, but constantly suffering. I had tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did, and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured. I am happy to say that it has not since returned.—Josh Edgar, Germantown, Cal. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.
