WHY OPPOSITION EXISTS (?)

The Mitchell Republicans have about reached the conclusion that no extra session of the legislature will be called. Governor Lord has been asked time and again if he intends to do so, and the invariable answer has been that he sees no necessity for such action on his part. The only desire on the part of the Mitchell Republicans to have an extra legislative session lies in the hope that possibly J. H. Mitchell would secure enough votes to get back into the United States senate. The term of the 19th legislative assembly expires after the promulgation of the official vote cast for senators and representatives at the election next June, after which any call for a special session would be directed to those elected to serve during the 20th biennial session.—Oregonian.

This is about as near correct as the Oregonian is able to state a fact nowadays whenever local politics are concerned, and yet anyone who is at all conversant with the situation knows that the above article is far from true. It is the Simon men who do not want an extra session of the legislature and who, through the connivance of Governor Lord, have been able to prevent it. They are opposed to an extra session because they fear Mr. Mitchell, or some gentleman over whose head the Simon hat does not fit, might be elected.

The Mitchell men, or anti Simon men, or whatever you may wish to call them, may or may not be in favor of an extra session. We have no information upon that point, but we do know that the people of Oregon, irrespective of political faction, are desirous that Oregon should have her proper representation in the United States senate, and that the senator to be chosen shall not be a Democrat, Populist, nor both.

It is safe to assume that the Oregonian and Joe Simon would rather see a Populist like Pennoyer or Bourne elected senator than that some man like Binger Herman, John H. Mitchell or Charles W. Fulton should be chosen. The interests of the state are as nothing in Joe Simon's opinion compared with political prestige and pull.

The Dingley tariff continues to justify itself, at least to its friends, by the revenue receipts. February, though a short month, showed the largest returns of any month since it was enacted, exceeding $15,000,000. The total of receipts for the month was $28,572,000 and the expenditures $26,599,000, showing a surplus of a little less than $2,000,000. As compared with February, 1897, the income is considerably larger and the expenditures somewhat smaller. There was then a deficit of nearly four and a half millions. The Dingley law has been in operation now seven full months, during which it has produced $75,500,000. Compared with the first seven months of the Wilson tariff, this shows a difference of somewhat less than $3,000,000 in favor of the productive capacity of the Wilson law. It is, of course, to be remembered that the importations during the last four or five months of the Wilson law were extremely heavy in anticipation of the advance of rates, and therefore the importations were correspondingly light in the first four months of the Dingley law. The customs receipts for the last month were the largest February receipts since 1893. Very little doubt is now entertained by the friends of the Dingley tariff that it will produce a sufficient income, and that for the rest of the current fiscal year it will show a handsome surplus, with the constant increase manifested in internal revenue returns.

There is need in the United States senate of another member representing Oregon. It is not reasonable to expect that one man can properly attend to all the necessities of the state, and they can but suffer in his hands. The duty before Governor Lord is plain, and unless he hears the call, his political future is undone. It makes no difference who is chosen senator, provided he is an able, conscientious Republican—in accord with the platform of his party—and anxious to further the material prosperity of the state. We want no Populist to represent us; yet such a calamity is possible unless an extra session is called.

Governor Leedy, of Nebraska, has undertaken to run the supreme court of the United States. He will find this a bigger job on his hands than Pennoyer had when he tried to run President Cleveland.

I have been afflicted with rheumatism for fourteen years and nothing seemed to give any relief. I was able to be around all the time, but constantly suffering. I had tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did, and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured. I am happy to say that it has not since returned.—Josh Edgar, Germantown, Cal. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

The Discovery of the Day.

Aug. J. Bigel, the leading druggist of Shreveport, La., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and it is the best seller I have." J. F. Campbell, merchant of Safford, Ariz., writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is all that is claimed for it; it never fails, and is a sure cure for Consumption, Colds and Coughs. I cannot say enough for its merits." Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is no experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and today stands at the head. It never disappoints. Free trial bottles at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.

One Minute Cough Cure, cures. That is what it was made for.

Rev. E. Edwards, pastor of the English Baptist Church at Minersville, Pa., when suffering with rheumatism, was advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He says: "A few applications of this liniment proved of great service to me. It subsided the inflammation and relieved the pain. Should any suffer profit by giving Pain Balm a trial it will please me." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.
