BOOK BUYERS.

Errors They Sametimes Make Are Cuite Amusing.

During the recent book sale in this city, says the Chicago Chronicle, there were many calls for Henryx Sienkie-wicz's "Quo Vadis." One girl appeared with a card bearing this: "Qwadiz," by "Stinkwitz." Another reader asked for whose name ends in "Itch."

"While the sale was going on a woman asked a cash girl:

"Can you find 'David Copperfield?" "I'll see," said the girl, and disappeared. She presently returned and

"No, mum. He don't work here no

Another customer at the sale was a weman who drove up in her carriage. she explained to the clerk that she had just moved into her own house.

"The library," che said, "Is one by twenty and the shelves run around the whole shooths' match." She looked at the stock of books and sweeping her hand over a lot of shelving containing about 1,500 volumes, she said: "Send those books up." As the assortment contained broken sets, odd volumes, duplicates and paper covered novels, her "library" will be a motley collection.

COVERED

Eczema unide its appearance on my head in its worst form, a. I it continued spreading until my face was covered with scales and became a horrid sight. I had a fine head of hair, seven years' growth, and had to sacrifice it. I was in despair. The physicians had failed even to relieve me, when one recommended CUTIOURA SOAP. My father procured a set of CUTIOURA SEARDISS, and in three weeks the scales left my face and the skin lost its florid hue. In six weeks I was entirely cured. My face was smooth and my complexion clearer and finer than it had ever been before.

Where the blood loses its intense red grows thin and watery, as in anemia, there is a constant feeling of exhaustion, a lack of energy - vitality and the spirits depressed.

Scott's Emulsion

of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda is peculiarly adapted to correct this condition. The cod-liver oil, emulsified to an exquisite fineness, enters the blood direct and feeds its every corpuscle, restoring the natural color and giving vitality to the whole system. The hypophosphites reach the brain and nerve centres and add their strengthening and beneficial effect. If the roses have left your cheeks, if you are growing thin and exhausted from overwork, or if age is beginning to tell, use SCOTT'S Emul-
