

FROZEN IN AN ICE FLOE

Blinding Snow Hid the Vessel From the Men.

SEVERE STORM WAS THE CAUSE

Terrible Fate of Forty-Seven Sailors of a Newfoundland Sealing Steamer.

St. John's, N. F., Mar. 28.—The steamer Greenland has reached this harbor with a grewsome cargo. On deck were twenty-four corpses and fifty five men were meaning in terrible suffering in the hold in the pain of frostbitten limbs and bodies. The dead bodies were on the decks disfigured and almost unrecognizable. The effects of the terrible suffering which they had endured presents ones of the most terrible sights which human eyes have ever witnessed.

The dead number 25. The frostbitten number 55. All will recover.

The Greenland set sail from St. John's about the first of March on her fateful voyage. She was commanded by Capt. George Barbour, and carried a crew of nearly 300 sealhunters. The steamer proceeded northward with the rest of the sealing fleet, but after a couple of hours she diverged on a separate tack, and reached the hunting grounds not long after. All went well until Tuesday last. Seals were quickly encountered, and several very good packs were secured.

On Tuesday morning the hunters left the ship about 7 o'clock as usual, when the lookout reported ice plentiful around them. The men were clad in light clothing, for the slaughtering of seals is exhausting work. Scattered over the ice fields, they wandered far from the protection of the ship, and a gale and snow storm shut them off from view. The ice floe parted and drifted away from the steamer. Long ere the storm had subsided many of the unfortunate fellows had succumbed to the terrible cold and exposure. Those who did not die were terribly frostbitten and suffered excruciating pain.

The long night passed, but morning brought no help, for the storm still raged and the air was thick with snow driven by the gale. Snow continued nearly all day, and evening brought no cessation to the high wind. Another night was spent in untold agony. Some of the victims had already given up hope, and in despair had laid down and died. Every hour witnessed at the least two deaths.

Toward morning the storm subsided and clear weather enabled the survivors to see that the Greenland was not far away searching for the missing. The steamer bore down on the drifting field of ice, and began the work of picking up the stark bodies of the dead and the lifeless bodies of the living. Twenty-five corpses were taken on board that morning, but twenty-three were still missing, and though the search was continued, no more were found.

Thursday night the Greenland headed for shore, reaching Bay de Verde, proceeding thence to St. John. Most of the men who perished were married and have large families, who are thus deprived of all means of support.

DEATH IN A TORNADO.

Three Families Perished in the Indian Territory.

SOUTH McALLISTER, I. T., Mar. 28.—A terrific wind storm passed over the country between this place and Colgate last night. Four farm houses were demolished and the occupants of three of them are reported to have been killed. Those reported killed are: James Seaforn, wife and three children.

Pendergrass and his entire family. Samuel Stinson, wife and five children.

Passengers arriving from Lehigh tonight, state that in the country southeast of here the tornado did great damage, and that many are killed and injured. Physicians from the various towns along the M. K. & T. railroad have been sent to the scene of the reported disaster. In the vicinity of South McAllister it is reported that minor damages were done.

A cloudburst near summit last night washed out or submerged about twenty-five feet of the road. A washout is also reported on the Choctaw, Oklahoma and Gulf road, near Galvin, twenty-five miles northwest of here. The "Katy" road is handling its freight and passenger traffic around the washouts by detours over the Choctaw and the Missouri Pacific lines.

Freeze in Kansas and Missouri.

KANSAS CITY, Mar. 28.—Freezing temperature, close to 20 degrees above zero, prevails tonight throughout Northern Kansas and Northwestern Missouri, which is, throughout the territory named, a fall of 40 degrees within thirty-eight hours. A heavy rain last night was followed by sleet and later by a light fall of snow.

It is feared that this sudden freeze will cause material damage to growing grain and budding fruit.

The drop in temperature is also marked in Oklahoma and Indian territories, where heavy rains seem to have been general, accompanied by more or less destructive wind.

It is feared there will be heavy loss on range cattle recently brought into the Territory from Texas. Telegraph service has been considerably hampered by the prevailing high winds and the sleet.

I have been afflicted with rheumatism for fourteen years and nothing seemed to give any relief. I was able to be around all the time, but constantly suffering. I had tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did, and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured. I am happy to say that it has not since returned.—Josh Edgar, Germantown, Cal. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.
