William C. Kaufman, who owns a farm on the banks of the Columbia river about sixteen miles from Wilbur, was arrested by Deputy United States Marshal Arment last Wednesday on the charge of having assaulted Sarah M. Today's bulletin does not bring forth any new developments in the war question further than that the president's message is ready and will be presented to congress tomorrow. It also states that Uncle Sam is not looking for mediation, and that if there is any backing down done it will be by Spain. Pope Leo hopes to avert war, and has offered suggestions to both countries. The United States will stand firm on the Cuban question, and Spanish atrocities must stop immediately.

Yesterday a call was made on the long distance line from Walla Walla, for a party by the name of Louis Kinney, who some time ago came to this place to accept a position as a laborer. The call was made by his wife, who said their children were sick, one of them being at the point of death. Search was made for Kinney, but he could not be found. It is said the family is without means of support. If anyone knows of the whereabouts of the party they will do well to report to the Oregon Telephone Co.

In speaking of the price of admission to "King Hallabahoola II" in an issue of a few days ago an error was made. It should have been 75 cents for tickets, no extra charge being made for reserved seats. The box office will open at 9 a. m. next Friday, and at that time seats can be reserved. No seats can be reserved before hand, and the first to be on hand will have the choice of seats. No partiality will be shown to any one, and in order to prevent any dissatisfaction, no person will be allowed to reserve more than five seats.

Last Night's Performance.

It seems to be always the case that when a first-class performance is put on a Dalles stage it is poorly attended, and last night only demonstrated the fact the plainer. The performance of Dante (Eliason), was superior to any of the kind that has ever been seen in the city. His sleight-of-hand performances were clever in the extreme, and many of his tricks were new, original, and certainly mysterious.

His work in magic was wonderful, as was also the performance of Mile Edmunda counted not to be surpassed.

We can readily recommend this performance to the public, and are pleased to state that Dante will be with us again this evening. We sincerely hope that tonight's entertainment will be better attended than was that of last evening, for it has proven itself well worth seeing.

Don't Worry About the Rooster.

You remember the story of Carlyle and the rooster that crowed early in the morning. Carlyle complained and the owner promptly suppressed the rooster. But still Carlyle didn't sleep. "It isn't the noise of his crowing that disturbs me now," he said, "it is lying awake expecting him to crow." We will allow you to make your own application of this story. All Pease & Mays ask is that you look at their H. S. & M. line before buying a new suit for Easter.

Attention, G. A. R.!

Our neighbor, Mr. Lynch, a veteran of the G. A. R. and the son of a veteran, is lying seriously ill at the residence of Mr. Douglas Dufur, next door to the residence of J. M. Huntington, on Seventh street, between Court and Washington. Go and see him. L.

AN IMPORTANT MEETING.

A Number of Matters Considered--A Special Meeting Called.

The regular monthly meeting of the city council was held at the usual place last night, with Mayor Nolan in the chair and Councilmen Thompson, Kuck, Saltmarsh, Stephens, Wood, Johnston and Clough present.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved, after which the petition of A. H. Curtis for a track leading to his mill was read and referred to the committee on streets and public property.

It was moved and carried that Thompson and Kuck be added to the committee on streets and public property, and it was also moved and carried that Stephens be selected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Champlain on that committee.

A remonstrance of Maetz & Pundt against the repair of Court street, between First and Second, was read and upon motion was filed with the ordinance.

A like remonstrance of T. T. Nichols and others against the proposed improvement of Union street was read and upon motion was filed with the ordinance.

A special ordinance vacating the alley between lots A, B, C and D and I, J, K and L, block 51, was read and on motion placed on its final passage. On roll call the councilmen present favored the same and it was declared passed.

Thompson, of the judiciary committee, made a verbal report in regard to the O. R. & N. franchise to First street, and recommended that an ordinance be prepared regulating the use of the said street. It was moved and carried that the report be received and an ordinance drawn according to the instructions of the judiciary committee.

Clough, of the committee on fire and water, made a verbal report stating that 500 feet of hose had been purchased. It was moved and carried that the action of the committee be declared the action of the council.

At this time Councilman Johnston was excused from the meeting.

Councilman Kuck, of the special committee on streets and light, made a verbal report recommending the ordinance to be passed granting a franchise to the Northwestern Light and Manufacturing Co. to lay pipes for the purpose of lighting the city with gas. On motion the report was received and an recommendation was adopted by the council. It was then moved that the ordinance on the above franchise be placed on final passage, and the vote stood four in favor to two in opposition.

A special meeting was called for next Monday night, April 11th, to consider the passage of the above ordinances.

Reports of officers were read and received, and bills recommended by the officers were approved by the committee on finance and ordered paid as follows:
