

UNTOLD STARVATION

Icebound Whalers at Point Barrow.

THE FOOD SUPPLY IS EXHAUSTED

Wretched Sailors Forced to Subsist on Decayed Fish and Dog Meat.

NANAIMO, B. C., April 5.—G. F. Tilton, third officer on the steam whaler Belvidere, who has just reached the outside world from the vessel imprisoned in the ice, says the steam tender Jennie, steam whalers Orca and Belvidere, the steamer Rosario and a bark are near Point Barrow. He says the men on the frozen-in vessel are suffering untold privations on account of the scarcity of provisions, and are compelled to feed on the rankest kinds of fish and dog meats.

Tilton came south by way of the Mackenzie and Yukon rivers and was just five months and 22 days making the trip of 2000 miles to the Pacific coast, during which time he and his Indian guides suffered the most excruciating agony from the intense cold. On his way out Tilton met Lieutenant Jarvis and the overland relief expedition. He directed them to the point at which the fleet is frozen in, but it was thought best that he should continue on his way to St. Michaels, in order to make known the safety of the men on board the different vessels.

Tilton, after bidding farewell to his comrades, commenced his long and dangerous voyage, and when he reached the coast he chartered a steamer to carry him and his guides to Juneau to await a south-bound vessel. He was intercepted north of Sitka by the Albion, was transferred to that vessel and came south.

The United States relief expedition steamer Bear, which is at Dutch harbor, has not as yet been of any assistance to the ill-fated whalers, who have been icebound since the tenth of last October.

No deaths had occurred among the whalers at the time that Tilton started south.

Speaking of the prospects of the whalers, he said that beyond a doubt the vessels would be total wrecks. As soon as the ice breaks they will be ground into matchwood, and nothing of them will ever be seen again.

The suffering sailors do not know that any effort has been made to relieve them. There is a possibility that aid may be rushed overland by the route Tilton followed.

THE IDEA WAS WILLIAM'S.

German Emperor Proposed That Pope Leo Offer to Mediate.

LONDON, April 5.—A Rome correspondent says.

Archbishop Ireland has cabled deprecating a formal offer of intervention, and explaining that the pope could only intervene successfully by recognizing the Monroe doctrine, which will be impolitic.

A rumor is current here that Emperor William first broached the idea of papal mediation and was warmly seconded by Austria.

The solution the vatican proposes is an armistice to save Spanish troops during the rainy season, allay excitement on both sides and prepare the way for Cuban independence in the autumn. Spain is agreeable to this, but there is little hope that the insurgents or their American sympathizers will accede to the proposal.

A bushel of notions doesn't weigh half as much as one stubborn fact.

Beats the Klondike.
Mr. A. C. Thomas, of Marysville, Tex., has found a more valuable discovery than has yet been made in the Klondike. For years he suffered untold agony from consumption, accompanied by hemorrhages; and was absolutely cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. He declares that gold is of little value in comparison with this marvelous cure; would have it, even if it cost a hundred dollars a bottle. Asthma, Bronchitis and all throat and lung affections are positively cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Trial bottles free at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Guaranteed to cure or price refunded.

Kaiser Billy Wouldn't Mix.
BERLIN, April 5.—The Berlin Post says:
The attempt at joint European intervention between Spain and the United States failed owing to a divergence of views. Emperor William declined to mix in the affair. It is doubtful if the United States at the pope's word will consent to have a fat morsel torn from its grasp.

Jeffries Signs.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 5.—Jim Jeffries has signed to fight both Peter Maher and Gus Rhulin in the East, and will leave for New York immediately after his battle with Mexican Pete, at the Olympic Club on April 26.

"A word to the wise is sufficient" and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know. The oft repeated experience of trustworthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W. M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

Sheep marking paint; ready for use. Two colors, black and red. Why you should use our sheep paint. First, because the colors are ground thoroughly in pure linseed oil by fine machinery; second, because it is made of high grade color, with the proper amount of dryers added to give it binding and lasting qualities, which prevent it from washing or rubbing off; third, it is much more economical, because it is always ready for use.
