The regular adjourned meeting of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks will be held in the K. of P. hall at 8:30 this evening. All members are requested to be present.

The Pacific coast is well protected in case of trouble. After the contents of the president's message is known in Madrid it is thought that hostilities will commence immediately.

We understand that J. G. Miller has entered the United States navy at Mare Island. For the next five years his time will be spent as cornetist in the United States marine band at that place.

Douglas county cattle-buyers have been in Coos county looking for enough cattle for an early spring drive. Although offering good prices, they found few cattle for sale, the owners preferring to wait till later in the season.

In Oakesdale Sunday afternoon A. C. Lebold was accidentally shot by a boy, who was hunting squirrels. A bullet from a 22-caliber rifle struck him in the breast, just above the pit of the stomach, and physicians fear it has penetrated the cavity.

G. A. Westgate, representing Moore, Ferguson & Co., of San Francisco, yesterday bought 100,000 bushels of wheat, which is stored in the Farmers' warehouse in Albany, in warehouses at Tangent, Lebanon and Tallman. The price was seventy cents net to the farmers.

President McKinley will request that troops be sent to stop the Cuban war. He is opposed to recognition, and says the insurgents are not fit to govern themselves. The government has sent six steamers to Havana to bring Lee and all Americans who desire to return home.

The property owners seem determined to have good sidewalks this summer, and quite a number are having the old worn-out planks taken up and new ones put in their place. We hope that others who have not yet begun to make like improvements will profit by these good examples.

Hon. B. M. Veatch has forwarded to Washington his resignation as register of the United States land office at Roseburg, and has asked that he be relieved at once. His term expired some time ago. Mr. Veatch will take to the stump soon and make an active canvass for election as representative.

The Red Men entertainment at the K. of P. hall last evening was well attended, and the good time which this order always has at their entertainments was enjoyed. A spread was served and the evening's entertainment was closed with a social hop, which lasted till after 12 o'clock.

At present everything looks very encouraging for the G. A. R. encampment, which will be held in this city in May. All necessary preparations that could possibly be made at this early date are completed, and the members of the G.

A. R. and the others who are assisting them in their work, will do everything in their power to make the encampment a grand success.

The pictures of the principal characters and groups that will take part in "King Hallaboola II" are on display in the windows of Pease & Mays, A. M. Williams & Co., the Snipes-Kinnersly Drug Co. and the Postoffice Pharmacy, and are attracting a great deal of attention. Every stranger who sees them inquires in the next breath where tickets for that show can be purchased.

A runaway occurred near the Christian church last night, which might have been serious. The horse started near Captain Lewis' residence, and at the time there was a small boy in the vehicle, who, owing to the speed of the team, was unable to get out. On Court street the vehicle got caught on a telephone pole and the frightened animals pulled loose. No damage was done except to the buggy and harness.

Another medal will be purchased for the ladies.

Capitalist and Contractor John Kierman, of Portland, owner of the stranded ship Glenmorag, passed through Ilwaco Tuesday morning on his way to the scene of the wreck. He is going to make a determined effort to stop the leak in her hull, caused by the crushing of the steel plating, and if he succeeds he will leave the ship in the hands of a competent keeper until the weather settles, when a final attempt will be made to float her.

By permission of Judge Bellinger, counsel for I. H. Taffe, in the suit of the United States against him, to condemn right-of-way for the Celilo railway across his property, appeared in court Monday to make some suggestions for the guidance of the court in the matter of awarding damages. Some time since Mr. Taffe stipulated that Judge Bellinger should decide the amount of damages to be awarded, and Judge Bellinger went up and looked over the property to enable him to arrive at a just conclusion as to what the damage would be. Taffe's counsel wished to make some statements and explanations in regard to the matter, and were given permission. U. S. Attorney Hall was present on behalf of the government, and, after hearing what the counsel for the defense had to say, replied. Mr. Taffe was present, and also Lieutenant Potter, U. S. engineer, who has charge of the proposed boat railway. The court after hearing the arguments took the matter under advisement, and will deliver his decision as soon as convenient.

THE COUNTY CONVENTION.

Nomination of Candidates--Delegates to the State Convention.

At 10:30 o'clock this morning the delegates to the Republican county convention were called to order by J. M. Patterson, chairman of the county central committee, and at once proceeded to business. The courthouse was crowded with not only Republicans, but men from every party seemed anxious to be on hand and witness the proceedings. Unlike the convention held a week or two since, no quibbling took place, but matters were conducted in a business-like manner, and interest ran high.

For chairman of the convention T. A. Hudson, of The Dalles, and E. E. Savage, of Hood River, were nominated, and Mr. Savage was elected on the first ballot.

Committees on credentials and order of business were then appointed and the convention adjourned until 1 p. m.

The convention being called to order at 1 o'clock, the committees reported and their reports were accepted.

The order of business was as follows: First, the selection of ten delegates to the state convention; nomination of sheriff, clerk, treasurer, school superintendent, commissioner, surveyor and coroner.

The following delegates were unanimously elected to the state convention: E. E. Savage, A. E. Lake, E. L. Smith, H. L. Kuck, M. T. Nolan, J. S. Schenck, M. P. Ienberg, T. H. Johnston, Walter Frairie, Grant Ashby.

The nomination for sheriff was next in order. The names of Robert Kelly, E. S. Olinger, T. J. Driver and C. W. Haight were placed before the convention. The first ballot stood: Kelly 22; Olinger 16; Driver 36; Haight 18.

On the second ballot Kelly received 30 votes, Driver 40, Olinger 12, and Haight 11.

Third ballot--Kelly 36; Driver 42; Olinger 9; Haight 6.

The fourth ballot decided the vote, and was between Kelly and Driver. On this ballot Kelly received 48 votes, while Driver got but 45; which gave Mr. Kelly the nomination for sheriff.

The next in order was the nomination for clerk, and the name of Ed Kelsey, who has during the past four years served faithfully in this position, was brought before the convention. No other nomination was made, and he was nominated by acclamation.

The nominees for treasurer were William Tackman, C. L. Phillips and M. H. Nickelsen. The first ballot resulted as follows: Tackman 19, Nickelsen 17, and Phillips 57, which gave the latter the nomination.

C. L. Gilbert was nominated by acclamation for county school superintendent, as was also W. H. Whipple for county assessor.

Those named for county commissioner were M. C. Evans and J. W. Hinrichs. On the first ballot the vote stood 46 to 46, and on the second, Evans received 52 votes, while Hinrichs had 41.

The nomination was placed on J. B. Goit and W. Campbell for county surveyor, and the first ballot decided it in favor of Goit, the vote standing 52 to 38.

William Butts and Dr. O. C. Hollister were placed in nomination for coroner. Butts carried the nomination by a vote of 64 to 36.

As there were no further nominations of county officers to be made, a recess of fifteen minutes was given before the nominations for precinct officers took place, a report of which will be given tomorrow.
