REGARDED INEVITABLE

Spain Will Have a Fight on Her Hands.

MORE DENIALS MADE BY SPANIARDS

Proof, It is Claimed, Can Be Furnished That Havana Harbor Was Not mined—Opposition Press Brings Weyler Out as the Prospective Savior of Spain.

MADRID, April 14.—The newspapers here regard war as inevitable. The latest dispatches from Washington have created profound excitement throughout Spain. The Spaniards protest against the "odious imputation" that Spanish officers are responsible for the loss of the Maine. It is asserted that proof can be furnished to show that no torpedoes have ever been laid in Havana harbor. The official Gazette tomorrow will publish a decree organizing a national subscription to increase the strength of the Spanish fleet.

The feature of the opposition press is an endeavor to bring Weyler to the front and make him champion of the cause of revolution, under the guise of the savior of national honor. Weyler today undoubtedly has numerous followers, and even the newspapers which, ever since his return from Cuba, have violently denounced him, are now lauding the former captain-general of Cuba as the man who can save the nation.

Weyler at Madrid.

MADRID, April 14.—Weyler arrived here today, apparently having been called by the government. He considers war with the United States as inevitable.

NOT ASSENT TO RECOGNITION.

The President Determined to Veto Resolution for Recognition.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The president is determined to veto the Cuban resolutions if they carry a provision for recognition of Cuban independence. He stated this today to a senator who called on him.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The action of the house yesterday in adopting the Cuban resolution made the senate today the storm center of the war elements. The galleries were packed and thousands were turned away.

Hale presented a memorial, calling attention to the necessity of repealing some of the present navigation laws in the event of war. The laws, he said, prevent our merchant vessels from sailing under a foreign flag, while every Spanish merchantman would be under the French flag. Our ships would therefore be preyed upon by Spanish privateers.

Penrose presented the following telegram from Philadelphia:

"The house resolution is diswater; the Davis resolution is satisfactory; remember the Maine."

A message was received from the house transmitting to the senate the Cuban resolution passed by the house by unanimous consent.

The resolution yesterday reported by the senate foreign relations committee was laid before the senate, and Turner (Wash.) began a speech, in which he sharply criticized the administration for its vacillating, irresolute, cowardly and pusillanimous policy in the Cuban question. He said the developments of the past two weeks had shaken his faith in those who held the president's ear and confidence.

Turner declared himself strongly in favor of the minority resolution, maintaining congress could not delegate to the president power to make war, and vehemently attacked the president for delays in sending his message to congress, charging that the delay was not due to General Lee's request, but to the fact that Archbishop Ireland cabled the vatican in the hope that the pope might bring about a peaceful solution of the difficulty.

Turner ridiculed the diplomatic negotiations of the administration, and declared with bitter sarcasm that with such diplomatic agents as we have representing the United States, the Madrid government might eventually, for a suitable indemnity, absolve this country for blocking the harbor of Havana with the shattered hulk of the Maine.

Hoar followed Turner. He said this was no time for impassioned rhetoric, and manifestations of approval greeted the sentiment. He said that Turner, who represented only half a state, was making McKinley, who represented 45 states, the subject of the same kind of objurgations that were inflicted upon Washington. Hoar thought the Maine affair was enough to justify war. Still he thought honorable reparation might possibly be secured without war.

Turpie followed Hoar with a speech for the recognition of the Cuban republic.

WILL NOT GIVE UP CUBA.

Spain Determined to Resist Any Such Demand it Made.

LONDON, April 14.—According to a special from Madrid today, a Spanish minister has declared in an interview that should President McKinley notify Spain to evacuate Cuba this government will immediately and emphatically refuse, and is fully prepared to take the consequences. The government does not regret according an armistice, as it thereby proves its position from an international point of view and makes it more difficult for the United States to intervene without putting itself completely in the wrong.

There was a big revolutionary demonstration at Valencia, capital of the Spanish province of that name, yesterday evening. A large crowd assembled, a red flag was waved and the "Marseillaise" was sung. The police dispersed the people who took part in the demonstration and captured the red flag.

I was reading an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the Worcester Enterprise recently, which leads me to write this. The Shakers of Mount Lebanon, a community of simple, honest, God-fearing men and women, have prepared the Shaker Digestive Cordial for many years, and it is always the same, simple, honest, curative medicine that has helped to make the Shakers the healthy, long-lived people that they are. The Shakers never have indigestion. This is partly owing to their simple mode of life, partly to the wonderful properties of Shaker Digestive Cordial. Indigestion is caused by the stomach glands not supplying enough digestive juice. Shaker Digestive Cordial supplies what's wanting. Shaker Digestive Cordial invigorates the stomach and all its glands so that after awhile they don't need help. As evidence of the honesty of Shaker Digestive Cordial, the formula is printed on every bottle. Sold by druggists, price 10 cents to $1.00 per bottle.
