WRESTLING WITH CUBAN RESOLUTIONS

The Debate in the Senate Continues with Little Prospect of Being Brought to Conclusion Soon.

A SPEECH BY SENATOR CULLOM

Appeal to American People to Avenge the Atrocious Murder of the Maine's Men.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—The prospects are now that the debate in the senate will not end today (Friday). There will be a night session, perhaps lasting long into the evening. An effort will be made by the conservative senators to secure an adjournment at 6 o'clock.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—At the suggestion of Davis, the early morning business of the senate was set aside and the foreign relations committee's Cuban resolutions were laid before the senate. Cullom of Illinois delivered a carefully prepared speech, covering the general Cuban question. He declared the hour for action by this country had come. Spain's black crimes, said he, called aloud for vengeance, and that vengeance will be taken by the American people in the interest of humanity. Cullom reviewed the circumstances of the Maine disaster, and declared it was a "deliberate and atrocious murder."

After making an extended argument for immediate action, in the course of which he paid the highest tribute to the president, he concluded by saying that if the people of this country do nothing more than drive the Spanish barbarians into the Caribbean sea, they shall earn the praise of every lover of freedom and humanity the world over.

Berry of Arkansas followed Cullom. He spoke of the nearness of war, and said that to bring victory to the American arms it was absolutely necessary to give the president the aid and comfort needed in this hour of his greatest trial. Then, with impassioned outbursts, he pledged the South's loyalty to the flag. Daniels was next recognized. His fame as an orator is known, and there was a craning of necks to listen to the distinguished Virginian.

"We stand upon the edge of war," he began. "This nation is one with sword in hand, and if the word that now hesitates upon the lips be spoken and the command 'forward' given, upon some proud day the Stars and Stripes will be waving over Morro castle and Cabanas prison."

Daniels said he had been for peace, but that time appeared to have gone by, and he wanted to do everything possible to support the president in the needs of the hour.

DONS MUST FIRE FIRST SHOT.
McKinley Will Occupy Cuba Peaceably if He Can; Forcefully if He Must.

New York, April 15.—A World special from Washington says:

The president's present intention is to give his act of war in taking possession of Cuba a humanitarian aspect. He proposes to send merchant vessels loaded with medicine, food and clothing for the starving Cubans to Havana and Matan-

A bushel of notions doesn't weigh half as much as one stubborn fact.

zss. These vessels will be accompanied by a fleet of 20 warships and by transports carrying regular United States troops. They will land peaceably and take possession of the fortified towns, unless Spain forces battle on them. If Spain fires the first shot the battleships Indiana and Iowa and the monitors Puritan, Terror and Amphitrite will instantly begin the bombardment of Havana with their 12 and 13-inch guns. How long the two-century-old fortifications of Havana with their 17th-century muzzle-loading cannon, will stand against the 68-ton guns of Captain Sampson's fleet, is an interesting question.

The bombardment is not likely to last longer than the bombardment of Alexandria by the British fleet in 1882—about four hours. Then all that will remain will be to use torpedoes to clear Havana harbor of the submarine mines, and the United States will be in possession of the capital of Cuba.

The president has decided to give Consul-General Lee the command of the Virginia volunteers in the event that hostilities break out between this country and Spain. This decision was reached after a conference with Secretary Alger. The matter was first broached by a friend of the president, who suggested that it would be a good plan to give Lee a command of some sort in case of war. The president consulted with several friends, who advised him that it would be impossible to appoint Lee to a command in the regular army. The president, who is a staunch admirer of General Lee, was nonplussed. Finally the announcement was made from the war department that in the event of volunteers being called for, the president would appoint all officers of the rank of colonel and above, and officers under that rank would be appointed from the various states from which the volunteers were received.

When the call for volunteers is issued, Virginia, General Lee's state, will furnish her quota, and the president will designate General Lee as commander of the forces from the Old Dominion. Owing to General Lee's great knowledge of the topographical condition of Cuba, it is more than likely that his command will be given orders to at once proceed to Cuba.

General Lee has announced his willingness to return to Havana at the head of an invading army, and doubtless he will be allowed to go upon the opening of hostilities. A member of the senate proposes to introduce a special resolution, whereunder the president may appoint General Lee a major-general of volunteers.

Beats the Klondike.
Mr. A. C. Thomas, of Marysville, Tex., has found a more valuable discovery than has yet been made in the Klondike. For years he suffered untold agony from consumption, accompanied by hemorrhages; and was absolutely cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. He declares that gold is of little value in comparison with this marvelous cure; would have it, even if it cost a hundred dollars a bottle. Asthma, Bronchitis and all throat and lung affections are positively cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Trial bottles free at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Guaranteed to cure or price refunded.

Thirty-five years make a generation. That is how long Adolph Fisher, of Zanesville, O., suffered from piles. He was cured by using three boxes of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sufferers from piles should use De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sufferers from piles should use De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve.

TRUE PATRIOTISM EXHIBITED. John Wanamaker Will Raise a Regiment in Case of War.

PHILADELPHIA, April 15.—Ex-Postmaster-General John Wanamaker has sent this telegram to Washington:

"To the Honorable, the Secretary of War: Though opposed to war unless honorably unavoidable, in the event of its coming I will, under your instructions, raise a regiment of Pennsylvanians for military duty and go with them for service. JOHN WANAMAKER."

After sending his offer to the secretary of war, Mr. Wanamaker posted in his store two notices, one for the manager's office and the other for the timekeeper's desk, as follows:

"In order that our men may have easy minds in considering and arranging their affairs in the event of being called upon for military services, this notice is posted to say:

First—That all the positions thus vacated will be re-opened to return when the military service is over.

Second—That all salaries will continue in full in such absence for actual service, and to be paid to the authorized representative of their respective families.

Third—An insurance to the amount of $1000 will be paid by the firm in case of each death while any of our people are actually engaged in military service."

Mr. Wanamaker, in a speech at Ash-burn last night, said:

"We know not to what we shall awake with the morning light. Thick shadows of impending strife of arms have settled down upon the land, notwithstanding the hope against hope that lawful costs of war in blood and treasure might be saved with justice to both countries and with dignity and honor. The roll of drums and the signal of the flying squadron is calling us to war. Each of us must consider his relations to the nation and adjust our affairs accordingly."
